Mothers Club to Furnish Room for Them—Interesting Paper on Work of State Board of Health—Mrs. Lawrence a Charming Hostess

"What is so rare as a day in June," unless it be so perfect a day as was Tuesday, Nov. 16th—an ideal day for the Literary Club to meet with an ideal hostess.

Two committees reports were of interest to the club and will no doubt be to the town. The Library committee reported success at last in finding a home for the books, which have been for some time stored in the West Sanford school building.

The other report came from the Prize committee, and plans having been perfected for offering, on the part of the club, a ten dollar gold piece to the boy or girl in the Sanford high school who is able at the end of the school year to write from memory the greatest number of questions.

North Carolina's definition of progress is health, education, roads and agriculture, but the greatest factor in the combination is health, since upon it all the others depend.

The State Board of Health is beyond doubt one of the State's greatest assets, having with an appropriation of $100 in 1877 and working up to an expenditure of very near $400,000 in 1920.

Mrs. W. A. Monroe gave the first paper on the program, a splendid review of public health work in North Carolina from its beginning in 1877 by Dr. Thos. F. Wood, of Wilmington, to the present time, as carried on by Dr. Rankin.

Mrs. Crabtree and Mrs. Check Charming Entertainers

Beautiful in setting and correct in every detail was the delightful reception given by Mrs. W. A. Crabtree and Mrs. Charles Check Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Crabtree.

The home of Mrs. Crabtree, about which there is always a prevailing charm, was never lovelier and lent itself most gracefully to the tasteful decorations.

The guests were welcomed first by Mesdames Vance Scott and Harry Edwards. Mrs. Scott was gowned in white georgette and Mrs. Edwards in turquoise taffeta.

Mrs. Kemp Griffin, dressed in pink silk, introduced the guests to receiving line which was composed of Mrs. Crabtree, Mrs. Check and Mrs. Charles Check, Sr. Mrs. Crabtree wore orchid satin, Mrs. Check turquoise duvetyne and Mrs. Charles Check, Sr., black velvet.

Mrs. W. W. Robards in white lace costume and Mrs. A. A. F. Seawell in black satin and lace, ushered the guests to the dining room where they were welcomed by Mrs. R. E. Bobbitt, gowned in white satin and lace.

Mrs. P. H. St. Clair, in black lace and satin, and Mrs. Charles M. Weaver, in blue georgette, cut the cream which was served with cake and exquisite candies by Misses Ellsworth Seawell, Emily Check, Emily McGuire, Lee McIver and Harry Edwards.

About two hundred guests enjoyed the gracious hospitality of the lovely hostesses. The occasion was one of the happiest of Sanford's social events and will long be remembered.

From six to seven Mrs. Crabtree and Mrs. Check served a buffet supper to the ladies who assisted them in receiving. A most delicious repast was immensely enjoyed by the assisting hostesses.

Rev. Walter M. Gilmore left the Rocky Mount the first of the week to attend the annual meeting of the State Baptist Convention.

RAINBOW WEDDING AT CAMERON

Mr. Earl York and Miss Willie May Wooten Married in Presbyterian Church

A beautiful rainbow wedding was solemnized at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, Nov. 16th, when Mr. Earl York, of Sanford, led to the altar Miss Willie May Wooten, of Cameron. The church was a scene of magnificent beauty, with its dark back ground of long leaf pine entwined with chrysanthemums of varied colors, contrasting beautifully with the six pedestals holding candles, the colors of the rainbow, that cast a brilliant glow, enhancing the beauty of the scene.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Margaret McIver Wicker, of Sanford, gowned in pink and blue changeable taffeta and carrying pink chrysanthemums, escorted with piano, a violin solo, "Sonnets of Love," by VonBibon, played by Miss Marion Manning, of Sanford, who was gowned in pink taffeta and lace, carrying white chrysanthemums.

Miss Ruth Manning, of Sanford, handsomely gowned in yellow taffeta and marling, sang "Love, Here Is My Heart." Then to the strains of Lobengrin, played by Miss Manning on violin, accompanied with piano by Miss McIver, the bridal party entered. First came the ushers, W. A. Muse, of Cameron, Edgar Jones, of Sanford, Erwin Ray and L. B. McKeithen, of Cameron.

Next came the bridesmaids and groomsmen. The bridesmaids were Miss Lela Brannon, of Sanford, wearing light blue taffeta and carrying pink chrysanthemums; Miss Ernestine Matthews, of Sanford, wearing light green crepe de chine, carrying white chrysanthemums; followed two groomsmen, Messrs. Calvin Donnell and D. E. McIver, of Sanford, the two bridesmaids, Miss Lela Brannon, of Cameron, wearing orchid taffeta and carrying orchid chrysanthemums; Miss Jackie Muse, of Cameron, wearing yellow taffeta and carrying yellow chrysanthemums.

Followed two groomsmen, Messrs. E. D. Masland and John Jones, Jr., of Sanford. Bridesmaids and groomsmen ascended the platform back of the bride arch. Next came the bridesmaid, Mrs. A. M. Hubbard, of Sanford, sister of the bridegroom, wearing light blue taffeta, carrying yellow chrysanthemums; Mrs. C. P. Rogers, of Sanford, in white satin and georgette (her wedding dress twelve years ago) and carrying yellow chrysanthemums. The maid of honor, Miss Vera Wooten, of Cameron, came next. She was gowned in light blue crepe melodee trimmed in gold.

Wooten, carrying the ring in a nosegay of tiny white chrysanthemums. Preceding the opposite aisles came the bridegroom with his best man, Mr. Clarence York, of Sanford, and leaving on the arm of her father, Mr. W. M. Wooten, came the bride, a dainty vision of loveliness. She wore a gown of white duchesse satin and real lace trimmed in pearls and with bridal veil crimped with orange and blue ribbons, also a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

The ring ceremony was used and the young couple took the solemn vows that made them man and wife.

Mrs. York is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wooten, of Cameron. She is a modest little beauty and popular among her many friends. For the past few years she has held a position as stenographer with Cross & Brian, of Sanford. Mr. York is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. York, of Sanford, a rising young mechanic, also a member of the corps during the World War.

The bride received many handsome, costly, dainty and useful presents, among them a chest of silver from the parents of the bridegroom.

Wicker-Mansfield

A quiet but beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. James H. Wicker on Wednesday, November 9th, at 4 p. m., when the bride, Miss Mamie Louise Bosman, the daughter of Mr. E. D. Masland, of Sanford, was united in matrimony to Rev. L. A. McLaughlin, pastor of the bride, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Mrs. K. M. Wicker, sister of the bride, presided at the instrument.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party entered the room; first Mr. Fred Mansfield with Miss Lela Brannon, then Mr. M. E. Wicker with Miss Alma Mansfield. Next came the bride and groom.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the groom where a delicious supper was served.

The bride is an attractive young woman and held in high esteem by all who know her. The groom is one of Lee county's prosperous farmers.

The best wishes of their many friends go with them through life.

Good Corn

Notwithstanding the dry weather, some fine corn was grown in Lee county this year. E. H. Johnson and brother, who live near Colon, produced ninety bushels on one acre and a half. Four hundred and eighty pounds of fertilizer was used. Mr. Johnson says they planted for one hundred bushels to the acre but the corn was cut short by the dry weather. It cost 50 cents per bushel to produce and house this corn. This beats buying corn from the W. S.

Kill Five Turkeys Out of Ten

Two boys, Earl Harrington and Jim Godfrey, killed five turkeys out of a drove of ten a few days ago. These turkeys were found in a thick growth near Colon and the boys, who were quick on their feet, killed half of them while the other half were getting away. While on their way home with the turkeys the boys killed a rabbit. It is up to Dr. Matthews and Sheriff Rosser to come again to beat this day's hunting.

Planting 300-Acre Peach Farm

Mr. E. P. Edwards, general manager of the Atlantic and Western Railway, who The Express that the trees are now being put out on the 300 acre peach farm that a joint stock company has opened up a few miles this side of Lillington, in Harnett county. Should this company make a success growing peaches for the market the fruit industry will no doubt reach proportions in this section during the next ten years.

Mr. Edwards expects to see in a few years almost one continuous orchard between the line of the Atlantic and Western between Sanford and Lillington. Mr. Hodgins has demonstrated the fact that as the peaches will grow in this section as in the famous Marshall section of Moore county, Mr. Edwards has offered every encouragement to induce the farmers along the line of his road diversify their crops by raising such things as peaches, watermelons and cantaloupes. His efforts along this line are beginning to bear fruit. More watermelons and cantaloupes were raised in lower Lee county than in any other section of the county this year than ever before.

Horse and Wagon Sell for $70

A horse, a one-horse wagon and a load of harness all sold here last Saturday at public auction in front of the courthouse for the sum of $70.00. The horse was only six years old and seemed to be in good condition. Some one remarked that it seemed that automobiles, trucks and tractors were about to take the horses out of business. A man remarked that if he were to bet that horse he would eat his head off by next spring. The scarcity of such cash is one thing that has cheapened horse flesh.

JONESBORO NEWS

Mr. W. L. Brooks had the misfortune to have his Maxwell car stolen last week by a hobo he had befriended. No doubt Mr. Brooks will be afraid hereafter to help a man claiming to be out of work and walking to Florida.

The many friends of Miss Davenport, of the graded school faculty, will regret to learn she is confined to her room with a severe cold.

The town is very sorry to lose the family of Mr. Thaddeus Petty who, on Monday, moved to Haywood where Mr. Petty will engage in farming.

The Young Peoples Missionary Society will give a pageant, "Hanging the Sign," next Sunday evening at the Methodist church, to which everyone is cordially invited. An offering will be taken for two foreign mission schools.

A very enjoyable and appropriate program was rendered at the school auditorium Friday night, celebrating Armistice day. There were songs, recitations, roll call of ex-service men, with addresses by Professor Allen and Dr. H. W. Williams.

Dr. H. W. Williams is out of town this week attending the Baptist State Convention which is in session at Rocky Mount.

Mrs. Bettie Partridge, of Mt. Airy, is expected to arrive the last of this week to visit relatives and friends.

Rev. C. R. Ross left Wednesday for Newbern to attend the North Carolina annual conference.

Rev. T. Sloan Guy is attending the State Baptist Convention in Rocky Mount.

Armistice day was fittingly observed by the missionary societies of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches in a union meeting held at the Baptist church Friday afternoon, Nov. 11th, at 3:30 o'clock. The Baptist society being hostesses of the occasion, members of this organization acted as receiving committees and stood in the vestibule and at the doors of the church to welcome every one as they came in. The church was beautifully decorated in the national colors, ferns, potted and cut chrysanthemums.

An appropriate program was rendered by members of the three societies. Each song, each prayer and the splendid papers all breathed the thrill and a lesson thanksgiving that still fills our hearts on account of the event that took place on that memorable day. It is fitting indeed that our great country this year has Isn't always the one who sits at the head of the table and carves the Sunday chicken.

Many times it's Mother whose clever headwork makes the family income travel just as twice as far as it otherwise might.

Mother usually sees to it that the Savings Account is "paid" just as regularly as the grocery bill—so that as long as there is a family there'll be Sunday chicken to carve.

An account here ably assists the head of the family.
