Washington Correspondence of The Express.) Washington, August 6.—Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party. If you can't And don't forget the come, write. aid. For this is the season, of the needful dollar, and the time of the year that sprouts grey hairs in the campaign treasurer's heads. Ten thousand a day will keep the grey hairs away.

The great "kick in" campaign of 1928 has just opened. Out in the great open spaces the workers are yelling for action-and money. Ten thousand job hunters have wormed their way in person, by letter and by wire, into the presence of the party exchequers only to find that the bare boards are showing on the At least 5,000 plain and bottom. fancy plans for making the nation afe for Democracy-or Republicanism-have been brought up during the past six weeks. Every plan would make the planner well to do. Upwards of 3,000 spell binders are, all set to bind. All they need is the wherewithal. They have offered their services at sums ranging all the way from "necessary expenses" to $1,000 a day. At least 50 gentlemen scattered throughout the Union want to start daily papers to boost Hoover or Smith, as the case may be. They are long on patriotism, short on cash. So they have come to the place where the long green grows. They want all the way from $10,000 to $100,000 They want apiece.

The button manufacturers expect to declare extra dividends this yearout of the Democratic and Republican treasuries. The railroad companies hope to fatten their passenger revenues with $50,000 special trains and oodles of private cars for the distinguished statesmen who will flit hither and thither on their ragchewing chores. A smile perches on the phiz of the radio boss. All the radio crowd is looking for is a cool half million rbrofoasicgtntadhe half million for broadcasting the The Bureau of Ennoble oratory. graving and Printing has run off million extra two-cent several stamps. All over the country they are oiling up the printing presses.

And two tired, harassed gentlemen upon whom has been wished the job of getting the money to pay for all this, are biting their nails and growing grouches. For the campaign is all set to go and the money just simply is'nt there-yet. And heaven only knows where it is all coming from and when it is coming. The patriot with a thought in his head outnumbers the patriot with a dollar in his hand something like 50 to 1.

This campaign is going to cost each side something like $1,000,000 a month from now to November. Fig ure it out on the daily basis, 25 working days per month, eight working hours per day, and you have a is naturally expected to kick in with combined spending of at least $10,- at least $2,500 toward financing his
