

The Sanford Express

Sanford, N. C., Aug. 9, 1928.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Lieutenant Governor J. U. Gunter, accompanied by Mr. W. W. Robards, went to Warrenton last Friday afternoon...

Mrs. Sam Foushee and children, who spent some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Watson, left for her home in Greensboro Thursday afternoon...

Crocket Chears, who has been making his home in Charlotte, has been promoted and transferred to Danville, Va., where he and his family will make their home...

Mr. M. H. Bruton, salesman at this place, for the Singer Sewing Machine Company, joined 75 other salesmen of the company at Wrightsville Beach last week and spent a day or two there as the guests of the company...

Mr. Knox Hughes moved his family last week to Aohoskie where he will buy tobacco this fall. He is now at Dillon, S. C., handling tobacco...

Mr. E. M. Yates, of Richmond, Va., and Mr. E. E. Yates, of Spencer, have been here for a few days visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Yates...

To the farmers and others of Lee county: Please bear in mind that there will be a county fair at this place this fall and you are expected to not only be present yourself, but to have an exhibit of some kind to help make the fair a success...

The Sanford Brick and Tile Company has 700,000 brick ready to be shipped to Fort Bragg to be used in carrying out an ambitious building program that was put on there a few months ago by the Federal government...

Mr. W. F. Wood, who has charge of the Farmers' Tobacco Warehouse at Dillon, S. C., this season, left for that place last Sunday accompanied by his family. The market opened at that place this week...

Mr. Wm. M. Avent, Sanford, R. 2, left Tuesday morning for Tarboro to attend the North Carolina Confederate Veterans' Reunion now being held at that place...

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard and daughter, Attalee, of Durham, are spending the week at the home of Mrs. Henry Hamilton...

Miss Clara Belle Mann has returned from a visit to her grandfather at Fuquay Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthy McDonald and two children, of South Norfolk, Va., are the guests of Mrs. J. D. Pegram.

Union Services. Dr. R. C. Gilmore, of Sanford, will conduct the union services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night...

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Elva Rosser has just returned from an extended trip to points in Florida and Cuba. In Havana, Cuba, she was the house guest of Mrs. A. C. Farrell, formerly Miss Essie Rosser, of Sanford.

Mrs. Duie Dunlap, of Bolee, Miss Hattie Raggan, of Laurinburg, Miss Alfreda Hunter, Messrs. Taylor Davenport and Wade Snipes have returned from Shallotte where they spent a few days.

Mr. L. H. Lawrence, of Jonesboro, R. F. D., returned Monday from a visit to Mt. Holly, Hickory and Asheville.

Mr. H. C. Renegar spent a few days with relatives and friends at Statesville, his old home, last week.

Fred Van Snt has returned from a visit to relatives in Irmo, S. C. Lynn McIver is on an extended visit with kinfolks in Louisville, Ky.

Miss Olive Donnell has returned from Portsmouth, Va., where she spent two weeks with relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Golden and daughters Anne and Frances left Wednesday for Montreat where they will spend a week.

Misses Mattie McIntosh and Bessie Boyd left Saturday morning by automobile for Norfolk, Va., there they will take a boat to New York where they will buy their fall stock of goods.

Miss Pauline Turner, of Winston-Salem and Miss Mildred Sharpe, of Burlington, have been visiting in the home of their cousin Mrs. H. F. Makepeace.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Makepeace and children have returned from an extended stay at Wrightsville Beach.

Mrs. T. D. Wall and T. D. Jr. have returned to their home after a visit with Mrs. Wall's parents Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carrington.

Mrs. Anderson, of Haw River, spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. Linda Rand Williams.

Mr. O. L. Way, Mrs. J. E. Way and daughters, Mary Edith and Pauline, left Sunday for the Shenandoah Valley, Natural Bridge, Endless Caverns, Washington, D. C. and other points.

Mr. J. S. Caddell is spending the week with relatives in Carthage.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brannon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knight, and Miss Chloe Lawrence left Wednesday morning for a trip through the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, and Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gwynn and children spent the week end at Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thomas spent the week end at Wrightsville Beach.

Mrs. J. C. Von Cannon has gone to Miami, Fla., to attend the funeral of her brother, Rupert McBryde, formerly of Jonesboro.

Mrs. Roy Stout and children have returned from a weeks visit with relatives in Ramsour.

Miss Alice Gooch, of Oxford, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Gilliam.

Miss Louise Hill has returned from a two weeks visit to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hill and sons, Lawson and Link, of Charlotte, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Newbold spent the week end in Statesville, returning home Sunday night.

Miss Louise and Billie Hill are visiting in Charlotte this week.

Mrs. Frank Clegg's daughter, Elizabeth, arrived on a visit.

John Hill has gone to Hendersonville to make arrangements to enter school there August 20th, at Fruitville Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Isenhour have moved into the Morris house on Chisholm street.

Mrs. Otis Bridges is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Isenhour.

JONESBORO NEWS LETTER

BY MRS. J. R. DALRYMPLE

Return From Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Riddle, Mrs. Claudia Matthews and Miss Florrie Matthews returned Sunday from a delightful trip through the Shenandoah Valley, visiting Natural Bridge, Massanutten and Endless Caverns, also the tomb of Robert E. Lee in Lexington, Va.

Mrs. Oehler Hostess.

Circle No. 2 of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. P. Oehler. Mrs. Albert Hamilton led the devotional, while the Bible study was led by Mrs. J. A. Dalrymple. A feature of the program was the lovely duet, "Others," sung by Mrs. B. P. Williamson and Mrs. J. A. Dalrymple.

The hostess served frozen fruit salad.

Class No. 10 of the Presbyterian church met with Miss Ruby Campbell Monday night. Miss Virginia Cole had charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Waylon Blue was elected teacher for the next year.

Delightful refreshments were served. Mrs. Laura O'Connell and two children, Lois and Lee, are visiting Mrs. J. H. Stedman near Asbury.

Class No. 5 of the M. E. Sunday school held its monthly meeting at the home of Miss Matie Adams, teacher, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The program was enjoyed by everyone. Afterwards grapes and watermelon were served.

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. O. A. Keller are glad to know that their son, Oscar, is doing nicely after having undergone an operation for tonsils and adenoids at Central Carolina Hospital Tuesday.

Miss Blanche Godfrey left Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. H. C. Buchan, near Southern Pines.

Mrs. John Williams, of Monroe, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Saunders last week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Cox, of Orlando, Fla., have returned after a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Vernon Hamilton.

Rev. O. A. Keller will go to Greenville, S. C., next week where he will conduct revival services at Fork Shoals church near Greenville.

Mrs. J. H. Booth, of Durham, Mrs. L. A. Ferrel, of Buies Creek, and Misses Dorothy Grindstaff and Margaret Cain, of Buies Creek, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Yarborough last Sunday.

Mrs. R. B. Cole has returned to her home in Washington, D. C., after a visit to her people here.

Miss Katherine Phillips has returned from a visit to Miss Allene Currier, of Oxford. She was accompanied home by Miss Currier who will spend some time here.

Miss Elizabeth Arent spent the week end with friends at North Carolina College, Greensboro.

Mrs. Scott Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thomas attended the funeral of Mr. Arch Womack, at Cheraw, S. C., last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Waylon Blue and Dr. Blue's mother, from Smithfield, have returned from a week's trip through the mountains of Western North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lloyd have returned from their wedding trip and are at home in East Jonesboro. The Jonesboro people wish to extend a hearty welcome to Mrs. Lloyd as a member of their social and civic life.

Mr. J. L. Covington and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. J. N. Gregory, of Buies Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Avent and children, James, Celeste and Bobbie, of Bennettsville, S. C., spent Sunday with Mrs. George Avent.

Misses Lois Dalrymple and Greta Phillips have returned from Raleigh where they spent the week end with Mrs. Rufus Morgan.

Miss Ellie Ford Hinson returned last Thursday from a visit to Miss Mary Brown, of Raleigh. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Brown and mother, Mrs. B. F. Brown, and Louis Wilson, who, with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lloyd enjoyed six o'clock dinner at the parsonage.

Mrs. J. A. White and brother, John McLean, of Raleigh, and Miss Minnie Caddell have returned from a trip to the mountains.

odist church last Sunday night and are looking forward with interest to having him with us again.

Death of Beloved Resident of Greensboro.

The funeral services of Mrs. J. M. Luther, who died after a short illness of pneumonia at her home in Greensboro, were held Friday afternoon from Salem Presbyterian church conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. E. Hodgkin, of Westminster Presbyterian church of Greensboro, assisted by Revs. J. S. Cook and O. I. Hinson, of Jonesboro.

A quartette composed of Messrs. W. L. and B. W. Thomas, George Hunt and W. H. Campbell sang "Nearer My God To Thee." Other hymns used were "God Will Take Care of You," "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "Take Time to be Holy." The pall bearers were railroad men from Greensboro, friends of Mr. Luther. The floral designs which were unusually beautiful were also in charge of friends from Greensboro.

Mrs. Luther was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dalrymple, and was born in the Salem section where she spent her girlhood days. In 1912 she was happily married to Mr. J. M. Luther, of Greensboro, where she spent the remainder of her life.

There she was known and loved for her unselfish disposition, friendly demeanor and capable usefulness. She was a consistent member of Westminster Presbyterian church. Her devotion to her parents and brothers and sisters was beautiful. After her marriage she came often to see them and her coming was an event that brought joy and sunshine into the home, and only the Master she loved and served can measure the extent of her beneficent influence upon the lives of those she touched while here among us.

Much sympathy is expressed for the family who only a short time ago were called on to give up little Billy Watson who met a tragic death in an automobile accident.

Mrs. Luther is survived by her husband, J. M. Luther, of Greensboro, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dalrymple, of Carthage; five brothers, J. A. and J. R. Dalrymple, of Jonesboro, and W. W., R. C. and M. G., of Carthage; three sisters, Mrs. S. H. Campbell, of Madison, Mrs. R. A. Watson, of Jonesboro, and Mrs. Chas. McDonald, of Carthage.

The funeral was largely attended by friends and loved ones from Greensboro. Among those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Reade and family, of Raleigh.

Death of Former Jonesboro Boy in Tampa, Florida.

News was received here Tuesday of the death of Mr. Rupert McBryde, of Greensboro, who died in Tampa, Fla., after a long illness.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McBryde, of Greensboro.

He was a member of the Methodist church and was a very successful business man.

He was a very kind and generous man and was loved by all who knew him.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

He was a very successful business man and was a very kind and generous man.

Mrs. J. A. McBryde, of our town, and a brothe of Mrs. Carl VonCannon, of Sanford. No details were given, the first message stating that Mr. McBryde was facing a serious operation. A few hours later a telegram was received announcing his death. Mrs. Carl Von Cannon and little daughter, Mauda, left immediately for Tampa to attend the funeral. Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. McBryde who are unable to attend the funeral.

Mr. McBryde spent his boyhood days in Jonesboro and his many friends are grieved and shocked to hear of his untimely death. After leaving here he has held many responsible positions. For a number of years he was court stenographer in Richmond, Va.

Recently Mr. McBryde passed the board of examiners for law and received his license and at the time of his death was practicing law in Tampa, Fla.

He is survived by his wife, his parents, one sister, Mrs. Carl VonCannon, of Sanford, and a brother, Claude McBryde, of Jonesboro.

Birth Party. Miss Lora Foy Caddell entertained a number of her little friends Saturday morning from 9:30 until 11 o'clock, celebrating her sixth birthday. The little folks were greeted on the lawn where they joined in a number of outdoor games.

After many enjoyable games the guests were invited into the dining room which was beautifully decorated in pink and white, harmonizing the birthday cake on which burned six pink candles. Here they were served block cream and a slice of the birthday cake, the favors being tiny pink flower baskets filled with pink and white mints.

The little hostess was the recipient of many useful gifts.

Tonsil Operation. The many friends of Miss Louise Temple, of Durham, are pleased to know that she is doing nicely following a tonsil operation at Central Carolina Hospital Monday. Miss Temple is now recuperating at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. S. Temple.

YOU NEED THEM— You need your tonsils and appendix too. And other organs that belong to you; Chiropractic will save them and restore You to the health you had before! Just Try CHIROPRACTIC

DR. R. O. HUMPHREY. Sanford, N. C.

Your best Insurance Policy is one that insures your income. We pay from the first day irrespective of Cause. Write today to J. C. Watson, Jr. Jonesboro, N. C., ask for Form No. 561 A.

Turnip Seed! Purple Top White Globe, Purple Top Milan, Purple Top Aberdeen, Amber Globe, Cow Horn, Southern Prize, Seven Top, Flat Dutch, Etc. Also Cabbage Collard Seed and Mustard Seed, all in bulk. J. H. MONGER, Telephones Nos. 52 and 53. SANFORD, N. C.

Georgetown, S. C., August 1, 1928. Stroud-Hubbard Co., Sanford, N. C. Gentlemen:— I enclose herewith my check for $1.00 and will thank you to send me two bottles of Walk-Over One-for-Three White Shoe Polish. This is by far the most satisfactory cleaner for white slippers I have ever used. Thanking you for your courtesy, I am Yours very truly, FRANCES LEE, 117 1-2 Screven St., Georgetown, S. C.

OLIVER'S Special - - - Special Saturday, 10th-AUGUST-10th Come to See us SATURDAY— SPECIALS IN DRY GOODS, READY TO WEAR And MILLINERY. 3 Yards of 50-cent VOILES, all Colors. SATURDAY— $1.00 3 Yards 49c FLAXON, SATURDAY—For $1.00 5 Yards Fast Color PRINTS, SATURDAY For $1.00 11 Yards 36-inch SHEETING, the best made—SATURDAY For $1.00 1 Pair of FULL FASHIONED HOSE—SATURDAY For $1.00 1 Pr. RAYON BLOOMERS, the best made SATURDAY For $1.00 2 Yards SILK PONGEE, the best made—SATURDAY For $1.19 All LADIES' SILK DRESSES, $ 9.75 and $12.50—SATURDAY For $7.39 All Ladies' SILK DRESSES, $16.75 and $18.75—SATURDAY $11.95 All Ladies' SILK DRESSES, $24.75 to 34.75 SATURDAY $16.95 All LINEN and VOILE DRESSES SATURDAY, $5.95 values $4.39 Ask to see our 89c RAYON BLOOMERS, SATURDAY— 89c NEW FELT HATS— $1.95, 2.95, 3.95, $4.95 Come to See us SATURDAY—These prices Will only be good SATURDAY, AUGUST 10th. OLIVER'S