SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday, June 10th, 3:30 P. M.—The Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of Steele St. Church will meet in the Ladies' parlor.

Tuesday, June 11th, 3 P. M.—The Halcyon Club will be entertained by Mrs. S. V. Scott.

8 P. M.—Young Women's Wesley Bible Class will meet with Mrs. J. D. Johnson.

COLE-WICKER A marriage centering the interest of the community occurred quietly at Buffalo, Mass.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. Barham, pastor of Buffalo Presbyterian church, and was witnessed by Judge and Mrs. P. J. McPherson, life long friends of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Cole is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Wicker, who were prominent residents of Lee county, and has made her home for a number of years in Sanford, where she is loved for her splendid character and attractive personality by a host of friends.

Mrs. Cole is one of Sanford's leading business men and churchmen, being president of the Cole Printing Company and lay-leader of Steele Street Methodist church. Their friends wish for them much happiness in life.

Mrs. Pittman and Kirkpatrick Give Large Party Entertaining at the attractive home of Mrs. Pittman on Gulf Street, Mesdames J. C. Pittman and J. W. Kirkpatrick were hostesses at the largest and most brilliant bridge party of the season on Friday afternoon.

The guests, being president of the hostesses and tallies were passed by Mrs. J. F. Foster. There were seventeen tables in play, arranged in living room, sun parlor, and dining room, where masses of summer flowers formed a colorful setting.

Following a number of progressive high score prize, a set of beautiful crystal goblets with gold rims, was presented to Mrs. Keller Britt, and second prize, a rose glass sandwich plate, to Mrs. W. A. Freeman.

Assisted by Mesdames R. E. Bobbitt, J. F. Foster, W. P. Dyer, J. A. Davis, J. T. Davenport, Jr., James Holland and W. R. Makepeace, the hostesses served delicious orange ice, during the games. Joining the play cakes and mints. Punch was served for refreshments were Mesdames J. H. Griffin, Harry Isaacson, and Miss Mae Oliver.

Circles of Methodist Auxiliary, Circle 1 of the Woman's Auxiliary of Steele Street church met at the home of Mrs. A. J. McRae on Monday afternoon with an attendance of fourteen and one new member, Mrs. J. R. Milliken. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. W. L. Seawell and several business matters were taken up.

Mrs. F. Y. Hamner read a most interesting article on "Missions in the Country." During the social hour sandwiches and tea were served. The circle will have Mrs. Hamner as next hostess.

Mrs. T. S. Cross cordially entertained Circle 2 and two new members were added to the roll on this occasion, Mesdames U. L. Robinson and I. C. Brewer. Mrs. L. C. Davis conducted the devotional exercises and several committees reported. An interesting program was given by Mesdames W. M. Kelly and M. J. McPhail. At the conclusion of the meeting the hostesses served a delicious salad course with sandwiches, cheese straws, pickle, and iced tea. There were seventeen members present.

With an attendance of thirteen members, Circle 3 met at the home of Mrs. G. T. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. O. P. Makepeace, who gave the Scripture reading, after which the Lord's prayer was repeated in concert. Mrs. A. M. Hubbard gave an interesting article on "Educating Korean girls and children." A very pleasant social hour followed, during which the hostesses, assisted by her sister, Tressie Jackson, served a delicious ice course. The next meeting will be the society's annual picnic at Lemon Springs.

Mrs. Scott Hostess to Club Mrs. Charles L. Scott very graciously entertained the Halcyon Club members last Tuesday afternoon, there being only one visitor, Mrs. H. P. Edwards, of Panama City, Fla. High score prize was won by Miss Eoline Monroe.

Pierian Club Coming as a charming finale to a most delightful club year was the last meeting of the Pierian Club on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Howard Butler, at her home on Coal Glen. The beauty of the rural surroundings and the attractiveness of the home which was graced with a profusion of summer flowers, combined to afford the members unusual pleasure.

The regular program for the year having been completed, a most delightful play was effectively read by Mesdames M. C. Reeves and E. G. Heine, Jr. Following this the hostesses assisted by Miss Helen Butler, served a delectable double course collation consisting of tomatoes stuffed with chicken salad, sandwiches, satines, and iced tea, followed by ice cream and cake. Visitors were Mrs. W. H. Cralle, of Fort Myers, Fla., Mrs. Kate G. Glenn, of Greensboro, and Miss Helen Butler, of Southern Pines.

Mrs. Chaffin Is Hostess Entertaining at the first of a series of parties which she will give during the next few weeks, Mrs. W. Chaffin was hostess Thursday afternoon at four tables of bridge.

The spacious home was beautifully decorated with summer flowers and two tables were placed in the living room and two in the library. The guests were greeted by Mrs. C. M. Reeves and directed by Mrs. J. G. Formy-Duval to the living room where they were received by Mrs. Chaffin and presented to Mrs. J. H. Pumphrey, of Asheville, who, with her husband is spending some time in Sanford at the Carolina Hotel.

Tallies were passed by Mrs. R. T. Howard and a number of most interesting games ensued. High score prize, a lingerie, was won by Mrs. E. Griffin, of Asheville, who, with a rubber apron, by Mrs. Gus Womble. The hostess served delicious refreshments of moulded ham loaf, congealed salad, sandwiches, satines, iced tea, and chocolate mints.

The group of guests included Mesdames O. H. Furbush, L. M. Reeves, Gus Womble, R. T. Howard, J. G. Formy-Duval, L. M. Thompson, R. E. Bobbitt, J. R. Ingram, E. A. Griffin, W. W. Roberts, J. F. Foster, J. C. Pittman, J. W. Kirkpatrick, J. J. Barringer, Max Heins, and S. Q. Kimrey.

Mrs. Knight Honored at Luncheon Honoring her sister, Mrs. F. L. Knight, whose birthday anniversary it was, and who was leaving Friday for an extended visit with relatives in Greensboro, Mrs. L. Rhea Ward gave a most charming luncheon party Thursday at the Wilrik.

The table was attractively arranged with masses of summer flowers in pastel shades which found a corresponding tint in the lovely place cards. Covers were laid for twelve and a most delicious luncheon was served by the hotel management.

Covers were laid for Mrs. F. L. Knight, Miss L. Rhea Ward, Miss Isabel Knight, of Carthage, Miss Millard, of Raleigh, Mesdames J. A. Overton, O. P. Wakefield, Cary Knight, Holoid, of Selma, Ala., R. G. Sowers, of Jonesboro, H. A. Russell, Victor King, and C. H. Crabtree.

Order Eastern Star It was a great pleasure to the local chapter order of the Eastern Star to have with the meeting Thursday evening two grand officers, Mrs. Agnes Hamilton, of Southern Pines, Past Worthy Matron, of the State of North Carolina, and Mrs. Nellie Levitt, also of Southern Pines, District Deputy Worthy Matron. A moment of these distinguished visitors made interesting talks which were greatly enjoyed. Plans were made for the State meeting in Asheville next week which will be attended by Mesdames F. E. Snipes, M. J. McPhail, and Lee S. Jones, of the local chapter. A delightful social hour concluded the evening during which Mrs. McPhail gave several beautiful piano selections and Mrs. R. L. Burns a delightful reading. An ice course was served.

U. D. C. Mrs. M. J. McPhail and Mrs. E. M. Underwood were hostesses to the local chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy Thursday afternoon at the beautiful home of the former, on Jonesboro highway.

The program for the afternoon consisted of most excellent talks of Robert E. Lee, given by Mrs. Muse Cameron, and a delightful talk on "The Meaning of Decoration Day," by Mrs. D. C. Lawrence.

During the social hour the hostesses served delicious sandwiches and iced tea. Visitation at the meeting was Mesdames Muse, of Cameron, J. R. Milliken and A. J. McRae. The chapter will not meet again until September, when Mrs. J. C. Pendergrass will be hostess at her country home.

HANDSOME ARIEN THRILLS IN NEW ACTION ROMANCE

Spectacle, Hamo, Love, Make Big All Around Entertainment for New Temple Theatre Next Friday and Saturday.

Richard Arlen is seen as a swaggering, bragging and wholly lovable lover in his featured role in "The Light of Western Stars," which comes to the New Temple Theatre next Friday and Saturday, for a two days run. With a part closely resembling his inimitable role in "The Virginian," Arlen gives a great portrayal in this Zane Grey outdoor action-romance.

Mary Brian is the heroine of this thrilling story and she is here every bit as sweet as she was in "The Virginian," or in "Burning Up," in which she was seen with Arlen recently. The story is exciting and fast moving, and replete with spectacular scenes, such as a gigantic wild horse stampede which would be hard to match for realism and startling beauty.

"The Light of Western Stars," in novel form was one of the best sellers of the year. Paramount has captured the true spirit of the moving story, Arlen, a young cattle foreman, in a moment of desperation, vows to marry the first white woman he meets. That woman happens to be Mary Brian, who resents his insult. In a succession of adventurous events, Arlen manages to offset his initial poor impression and wins the girl.

There are several excellent humorous roles in the story, portrayed by Harry Green, whose dialect comedy is funnier than ever in this strange setting, and by William LeMire, the garbled comedian of "Only the Brave." Fred Kohler furnishes the thrills as the bad man who comes between Arlen and his girl.

"The Light of Western Stars" is well worth seeing for its romance, its thrills, its spectacle, or its humor, but chiefly we recommend it for its all-around entertainment.
