Monday, June 23rd, 3:30 P. M.—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will meet at the church. Tuesday, June 24th, 3 P. M.—The Halcyon Club will be entertained by Mrs. W. G. Brown at her home in Carthage.

Thursday, June 26th, 3 P. M.—Mrs. H. M. Waggoner will be hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Club. Methodist Auxiliary. The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of Steele street church occurred Monday afternoon in the ladies' parlor, the president, Mrs. Linda Williams, being in the chair. Quarterly reports were received from all circles.

Halcyon Club. Mrs. S. V. Scott was hostess to the Halcyon Club Tuesday afternoon, there being three tables of bridge in play. High score prize, a flask of perfume was won by Mrs. J. G. Formy-Duval. When cards were laid aside the hostess served angel food cake, cream, and salted nuts. Mrs. Thompson, of Georgia, house guest of Mrs. O. P. Mackay, was a visitor. The club will be entertained next week by Mrs. W. G. Brown, at her home in Carthage.

Miss Yarrowborough Is Hostess. Miss Nell Yarrowborough was hostess to a number of friends at a most delightful chicken supper last Wednesday evening at the home of her cousin, Mrs. R. E. Marck, near Colon.

Following a delicious chicken supper the crowd enjoyed radio music and dancing for some time. Present were Misses Elsie, Alice, and Mary Thomas, Mrs. H. P. Edwards, of Panama City, Fla., Messrs. R. E. Marks and Love Hines.

Tournament. Mrs. G. W. Anderson's group of Camp Fire girls gave a most enjoyable bridge and rook tournament Thursday evening in the ball room of the Wilrik. Ladies' bridge prize was won by Mrs. Jessie Griffin, Mon's prize, by Mrs. S. Q. Kimrey, and low score prize by Mrs. B. K. Kammer. Mrs. F. B. Van Sant was winner of the rook prize. During the evening the Camp Fire girls sold candy and cold drinks, and quite a substantial sum was realized toward the national dues.

Mrs. Ingram Gives Party. A most beautiful porch party was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. R. Ingram at her hospitable home on Hawkins Avenue. The spacious porch was a scene of great beauty with its background of shrubbery and luxuriant ferns against which masses of brilliant flowers created great spots of color. Nine tables were arranged for bridge, the players finding their positions by means of attractive tallies passed by Mrs. C. C. Hatch, Jr. Playing was most enthusiastic, and high score prize, a beautiful tray, was won by Mrs. J. F. Foster, second score prize, a large Godey Print, by Mrs. E. A. Griffin, a smaller Godey Print Miss Ethel Ross.

Assisted by Mesdames C. M. Reeves, S. T. Ingram, E. A. Griffin, Virgil Kennedy, and Misses Alice Ingram and Sybber, the hostess served baked ham, potato salad, sandwiches, hot rolls, iced tea, and homemade candy. Out of town guests were Mesdames Kate Barnes, of Mount Vernon Springs, Dora Brown, of Princeton, W. Va., W. H. Gralle, of Fort Myers, Fla., H. P. Edwards, of Panama City, Fla., and Lloyd Bray, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Fortnightly Club. Unusually pleasant was last week's meeting of the Fortnightly Club at the home of Mrs. W. M. Quick, two tables being arranged for bridge with only club members as players. High score prize, a Japanese vase, was won by Mrs. E. W. Hunter, and low score prize, a plaque, by Mrs. J. C. Preddy. The hostess served delicious congealed fruit salad, minced ham sandwiches, cheese wafers, pickle, iced tea and cookies. The next hostess will be Mrs. J. C. Preddy.

Thursday Afternoon Club. With her customary gracious hospitality Mrs. C. H. Oliver was hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Club last week, there being four tables in play. Masses of summer flowers filled the home, creating a colorful setting for the tables. Guest prize, a box of towels, was won by Mrs. Beverly Peters, and to Mrs. L. P. Campbell, of Wilmington, who was a charter member of the club, the hostess also presented a box of towels. During the games delicious fruit punch was served and at their conclusion ice cream and cake.

Guests were Mesdames L. P. Campbell, of Wilmington, R. L. Robertson, of Jonesboro, E. R. Hoyle, E. B. Kammer, F. B. Van Sant, S. R. McDonald, and Beverly Peters. Mrs. H. M. Waggoner will be the next hostess.

Misses Ross and Howard Entertain Circle. Misses Judith and Glenn Ross and Carrie Howard were hostesses Thursday evening to their circle of the Alice Green Missionary Society and a few friends, there being eighteen present. Special guests were mothers of some of the members, Mesdames Annie Ross, C. J. Crabtree, and Brown, and in their honor Miss Camille Carroll very beautifully played a number of old songs. An interesting contest was also staged and several numerous numbers. At the conclusion of the evening the hostesses served delicious ice cream, cake, and mints.

Guests in addition to their honor guests were Misses Kate Alderman, Josephine McCracken, Luna Monroe, May Barrie Camille Carroll, and Mrs. Walena Summers. Elizabeth Gilliam Gives Party. Elizabeth Gilliam was hostess to a number of her friends last week at a very delightful party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gilliam, on Endor street. Three tables were made up for ruck, and the games were most interesting. High score prizes were won by J. W. Stout, Jr. In a very humorous contest the prize was won by Wilson Howard. Progressive conversation also formed part of the evening's diversion. A delicious ice cream course was served.

Guests were Inez Russell, Flora McIver Teague, Arlene and Sarah May Pryor, Mary John Watson, Mildred Gilliam, and Billy Makepeace. J. W. Stout, Jr., Wilson Howard, James King, Warren Williams, Jr., and J. P. Brannon. Young Women's Wesley Bible Class. A most successful and delightful meeting of the Young Women's Wesley Bible Class of Steele St. Sunday School occurred Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. D. Johnson, Mesdames Johnson and I. C. Brewer being joint hostesses. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Roy Moore, who conducted the devotional exercises. Mrs. W. L. Seawell gave a reading on "How to Make a Sunday School Class a Success" and Mrs. J. D. Johnson read "A Direct Answer to Prayer."

During the business session various committees reported and the class planned its social service work for the summer. A picnic was also planned. A most interesting musical contest was staged during the social hour, Mrs. R. L. Burns gave a humorous reading and Mrs. W. A. Freeman gave several piano solos. The hostesses served delicious fruit salad, sandwiches, saltines, and iced tea, and the plates were graced with sprays of sweet peas. Birthday Party. Tuesday afternoon little Miss Carroll Poust was given a party it being her 5th birthday. The children spent a pleasant afternoon playing out and indoor games. Carroll received many gifts which all enjoyed seeing her open them. The refreshments were ice cream, cake, peanuts and favors. Those present were Norman Faulk, J. P. Foster, J. William Foushee, Gladys and Mildred Fields, Geraldine Gunter, Nellie Wicker, Charles Theaur, Helen and Thelma Foust.

COLLEGE GRADUATES AND TEACHERS ENTERTAINED BY SANFORD MASONIC CLUB. On Tuesday, June 17, the Sanford Masonic Club entertained the boys and girls of Lee county who had been graduated from college this year. The teachers who reside in the county but during the past year have taught out side were also guests of the Club. An excellent club-plate supper was served, the menu consisting of assorted cold meats, sandwiches, beaten biscuit, pickles and relish, Russian salad, iced tea, ice cream and cake. While cigars and cigarettes were passed a number of talks were made. The Club Chancellor, Dr. R. O. Humphrey greeted the guests, and the address of welcome was very ably delivered by Mr. J. W. Stout, who presented some splendid ideas in the "Pursuit of Happiness," the topic of his talk Mr. Clyde Foushee made the response for the guests. H. P. Makepeace, the newly elected Master of the Blue Lodge, the office being the highest honor that can be conferred upon a master mason, made a short but very interesting talk on Masonic work. Mr. J. S. Truitt, the principal of the High School followed and stated that he had probably issued more college entrance certificates than any other high school principal in the county. Mr. Truitt had graduated most of those present from the local high school. Mr. H. C. Renegar, Sanford at torney and former school superintendent addressed the fine talk which he interspersed with many humorous remarks. Miss Elizabeth Cross and Miss Frances Wilkins spoke briefly, the former a teacher and the latter a recent graduate from Greensboro College.

After the supper a program of entertainment was much enjoyed in the Club rooms. The following furnished the entertainment: Miss Billie James, Ballet and Charleston dancing, a boys quartette from Jonesboro under the direction of W. H. Campbell; Miss Janette Stout gave several humorous readings; Dr. Charles Hall sang some old ballads, and the splendid vocal solos of Miss Eloie Bass completed the program.

The teachers more than seventy people present which included the following guests: Teachers: Lena Mae Palmer, Mae Belle Nalle, Marion Nall, Mary Stout, Wiley Stout, Elizabeth Cross, Mrs. W. H. Fitts, Rust Davenport, Margaret Rives, Margaret Gunter, Estelle Kelly, Daisy Dowdy, Ruth Cotton, Maude Cotton, Janette Stout, J. S. Truitt and C. E. Teague. College Graduates: Kenneth Aderholt, F. W. McCracken, Jr., Bob Ingram, Charlotte Chaffin, Mildred Cross, Myrtle Underwood, Christine Wicker, Clyde Foushee, Frances Wilkins, Ralph Coggins.

The Club expressed its thanks to Mrs. Lee Jones, Mrs. A. F. Seawell, Mrs. Frank Snipes and Miss Katie Yaden for their assistance in preparing the supper, and Miss Trace Stout and Miss Frances May who acted as hostesses; Mr. Marsh, of the McPhail Greenhouses for his floral donations; and Mr. T. T. Hayes of the Sanford Ice and Fuel Company for the ice that was used that night.

BE ON THE LOOK-OUT FOR THE RUNAWAY BRIDE. Listen folks! The Runaway Bride that you have been reading about so much is coming to Sanford. She will be at the Temple Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, June 25th and 26th. Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes are re-united again in this fast moving romantic drama. You have loved them on the silent screen, now see and hear them on the talking screen.
