All Democrats in Good Standing Authorized to Go as Delegates to the State Convention Which is Being Held in Raleigh Today.—K. R. Hoyle Re-elected Chairman County Executive Committee.

The Lee County Democratic Convention, to elect delegates to the State convention, which is being held in Raleigh today, also to the Congressional and Judicial Convention, met at the court house last Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The meeting was called to order by K. R. Hoyle, chairman of the County Executive Committee. S. V. Scott and P. H. St. Clair were made secretaries. By a unanimous vote the temporary organization was made permanent. John R. Jones, Sr. was by a unanimous vote re-elected for election as a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee to succeed W. H. Fitts, deceased. All Democrats in good standing were made delegates to the above named conventions.

W. C. York, one of the militant, was the keynote of the convention. He developed most of his speech to the beating President Hoover, charging his administration with being responsible for the "hard times." He charged the Republicans with being responsible for 12 cent cotton and pictured the evils that would follow the high tariff measure that recently passed Congress. He expected to see the thing end up in a money panic. He predicted a great victory for the Democratic party in 1932.

Most of the precincts were represented in the meeting. After the convention adjourned the New Democratic County Executive Committee met and elected K. R. Hoyle to succeed himself as chairman of the county executive committee. Mrs. J. P. Monroe was elected vice-chairman and S. V. Scott secretary.

The following were certified as precinct committeemen: Broadway, B. C. Kelly; Cummock, W. T. Seagrove; Deep River, E. J. Johnson; Greenwood No. 1, T. M. Perry; Greenwood No. 2, C. H. Wicker; Gum Springs, T. M. Seagraves; Jonesboro, A. D. Rymple; East Pickett, Lonnie Dickens; West Pickett, E. L. Cole; East Sanford, S. Ray Byerly; West Sanford, J. W. Stout.

While many of the members of that body will be young men, Mr. Seawell will be on committees with men who went to the Legislature years ago. It will be a coming together of comrades and old friends.

MILK FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

Last school term, the Woman's Club, Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club and Christmas Seal fund, donated $104.00 to be used for milk for undernourished children in the city schools. Each child received a half pint each day for the five school days for three months. Mr. A. E. Bridges, the dairyman, who furnished the milk, also donated the necessary amount for two and a half weeks.

The results were very gratifying, the average gain was 2 3/4 lbs per child. In one or two instances a child gained 12 pounds. Mrs. Bridges also gave the above mentioned organizations special prizes on the milk. He has recently installed a larger refrigerating plant so as to take better care of the milk. He invites mothers to visit his plant and see it in operation, and they can see the grade of milk and the process of development in operation from 3:30 to 4:30 P. M.

DEAD INFANT FOUND ON SIDE OF THE RAILROAD

The crew of a Seaboard Air Line freight train while passing the plant of the Borden Brick and Tile Company just north of Sanford last Sunday morning about 8 o'clock, discovered the body of a white infant, boy, lying beside the track. The finding of the body was reported to Dr. J. F. Foster, county coroner, who visited the scene to investigate the matter. He found the body of a well developed infant a few feet from the track. He thinks the child was alive and believes that it was thrown from a northbound passenger train Saturday night by its mother who had just given birth to it. The little body was made. The skull and one leg were fractured. The body was brought to Sanford and turned over to Undertaker Rogers for interment. There is no clue to the crime.

Honoring Zack Way, whose birthday was Monday, lemonade and mints were served with the cakes.

There were thirty seven present to enjoy this occasion and many cute and useful gifts were received.

DEPOSITORS PEOPLES FIFTY PER CENT

It was stated in this paper last week that the depositors of the Peoples Bank would be paid 50 per cent of their deposits by calling at the Greensboro Bank & Trust Company on Wicker Street Tuesday. This bank having about 1,800 depositors it was reasonable to suppose that many of this number would call at the bank at once to receive the checks. While many have called since Tuesday morning there has been no great rush. The depositors seem to think that they will have to wait in getting their money and are not in the least excited over the matter. It seems that confidence has been fully restored and that the closing of the bank on April 7th has done nothing more than inconvenience some of the depositors, who remainders covering interest on deposits with the local banks, while others who needed the money have had the checks cashed for their personal use.

The report showed that there was approximately $250,000 on deposit in the Peoples Bank at the time it closed. Half of this to get circulation in the town and community means a great boost to business. There are other sources through which money is getting circulation in Sanford and this section. As was stated in The Express last week the dewberry growers in Lee and Moore counties received good prices for the crop which put a lot of money in circulation in this section.

Now comes the Sanford Building & Loan Association sending out checks to its stockholders covering interest on paid up shares of stock. At the annual directors meeting in February the board passed a motion changing the interest paying period from September 1st, to June 30th, and March 1st to December 31st so as to conform to the fiscal year. As the Building & Loan Association is handling a large volume of business the semi-annual interest on paid up shares amounts to quite a nice sum. The funds from this source will help to relieve the financial stringency very much.

CHURCH SERVICES AT FORT BRAGG

Church services were held in the open air Sunday at Fort Bragg, at 9:15 o'clock, the entire regiment attending, and the 17th Field Artillery Band furnished music. Chaplain Stewart I. Dr. Snyder conducted the Bible class immediately following church services with between two and three hundred CMTC students in attendance.

At the church service special music was furnished by a quartette composed of John B. Moore, Greensboro; Samuel P. Lane, Sanford; Allen E. Stanley, of Greensboro; and William F. Cox, of Greensboro, all CMTC students, with Mrs. Stephen Lambert, of Fayetteville, at the piano.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral, among whom were Mrs. Linda Williams and son, Mayor Warren Williams, of this place.

Following the services the casket covered with flowers was taken to Raleigh, the interment being in the family plot in that city. Before her marriage Mrs. Powell was Miss Fannie Myatt, of Wake County. She is survived by three children, John N. Powell, of Southern Pines; Henry Powell, of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. S. Knight, at the residence of Mrs. Rand, on Thursday. A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral, among whom were Mrs. Linda Williams and son, Mayor Warren Williams, of this place.

RECORDER'S COURT

Hard Session, All Day—Violation Prohibition Act, Theft, Wife Beating, Feature Day. Sentences Aggregate $5,000. Years Dispensed.

This week's docket in Recorder's Court was unusually heavy, consuming the entire day in disposing of the numerous charges.

The first case called was that of John Gilmore, colored, charged with possession and sale of John's case, who was arrested by city officers and whiskey was found in his possession as janitor of Elk's hall, in Colored Town. The officers testified that complaint had come to them of retailing activities in the vicinity of John's place of employment. While John resisted the charge, the evidence of his guilt was found in his possession of a quantity of whiskey and he drew a twelve-month sentence. Otis Allison, colored, an old offender, was also sent away for a term of twelve months. The charge against him was also possession for the purpose of sale.

James Williams and John Simpkins, colored boys, were arraigned on charges of stealing gasoline and attempted theft of cars. They were found guilty and given six months each on the roads.

Guy Struill, colored, was found guilty of having a pint of hooch for his own consumption, and required to pay the costs.

Bertha Beck, colored fellow, drew a twelve-month sentence for hitting a man and being armed with a knife. This will probably be the last sale for the hot summer months, for poultry prices have followed other things and are at a low level now. Heavy hens will sell for 17c a pound. Leg-horn hens 14c, roosters 9c, and colored broilers two pounds and up.

This call being held so that farmers can dispose of old roosters, cull hens, and young roosters weighing from 3 to 4 pounds. No pullets should be sold. It will pay to keep them for layers or to sell as hens next winter or spring.

COTTON BLOSSOMS

Cotton blossoms are now popping open in Lee county. A. J. Sloan, Sanford R. F. D. No. 2, sends in one on the 30th; Marvin Groce, Jonesboro R. F. D. No. 3, one on the 29th; H. C. Bachelor, Jonesboro R. F. D. No. 3, one on July 1st; S. A. Wicker, one on July 1st; J. B. Matthews, Jonesboro R. F. D. No. 2, sends in two, but the date is not given; Mrs. J. N. Martin, Sanford R. F. D. No. 1, one June 25th; Walter McLeod, colored, on K. E. Seymour's place, one June 30th; R. R. Prince, colored, Broadway section, one June 28th.

It will be seen from the above dates that Mrs. Martin reports the first bloom in the county. Mrs. Martin not only has one of the best and most productive farms in the county, but she is one of the county's most successful farmers. Her farm is under a high state of cultivation and produces very fine tobacco, cotton and corn, in fact everything that is raised on a farm in this section. This farm was first owned by the late Kenneth Worthing, who was at one time sheriff of Moore county. His son, Mr. S. B. Worthing, now owns and lives on part of the farm.

Other business concerns in the town will probably also keep half holiday.

COTTON COSTS AVERAGE FIFTY DOLLARS AN ACRE

The average acre of cotton produced in North Carolina costs $50 in labor, fertilizer, ginning and other costs. Working from this as a starting point, the grower knows that he must produce at least 32 pounds of lint when cotton sells at 16 cents a pound before he will produce the cost of production. Either this or he must cut the cost of production below $50 an acre.

"Few growers, however, know what it costs them to produce an acre of cotton," says Dr. G. W. Forster, agricultural economist at State College. "The season is not too far advanced but that a fairly accurate figure may be obtained for this year. It will be necessary to recall the number of hours of family labor, including the operator, and the number of hours of horse or tractor work put in on the crop up to this time. Any work done last fall, such as cutting the stalks, disking and seeding for a cover crop needs to be charged against this year's cotton. The time spent in breaking, discing, harrowing, running rows, rigging, disking, fertilizing, seeding, chopping and cultivating should be listed. The time spent by hired labor need not be recorded, but the cash paid should be entered as a direct expense. The value of the fertilizer must be given and manure when used. A fair way to estimate the cost of the crop is to put in on the crop up to this time. The market price for home-grown seed or the purchase price for bought seed must be recorded. Dust materials and all items from now until harvest must be accounted for."

The total of all these will show the gross cost, says Dr. Forster. The net cost may be secured by deducting the value of the seed. The net cost divided by the number of pounds of lint grown per acre will give the cost of producing one pound.

FIRST PART OF FIGHT WITH BOLL WEEVIL ABOUT OVER

Pre-square poisoning with the 1-1-1 molasses mixture is the first and most important step in the direct fight against the boll weevil. Most of the cotton growers of Lee county have put two or three applications of this mixture on their cotton and have the boll weevil under control.

LIVE STOCK DEMONSTRATION SPECIAL

V. W. Lewis, General Live Stock Agent of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, is planning to operate a Live Stock Demonstration Special over that system of road in Eastern North Carolina in co-operation with the North Carolina State College of Agriculture and the North Carolina Department of Agriculture, August 5th to 26th inclusive. This special will give a demonstration in Sanford from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m. August 7th.

A great deal is being said and done in Eastern North Carolina to develop the live stock industry, and the operation of this Special Live Stock Train Series of Exhibits is to bring to your farmers and business men practical suggestions with regard to a proper development of the live stock and poultry industries by your College and Department of Agriculture.

The various departments of your State College and the Department of Agriculture, as well as the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, are assembling exhibits at this time, and I am sure you will be interested in seeing this train of exhibits and will desire that your farmers and business men also visit the project.

Since this project is being put on at considerable expense to all concerned, we hope you will make a special effort to have the people in your community see the exhibits. Work out such plans as will be most effective in getting the people in your community interested in seeing this fair on wheels, when it arrives in your county.

The Atlantic Coast Line put on a special of this kind in South Carolina in 1928 which drew large crowds of people at the stations which were visited and is believed that it accomplished great good in that State.

BOARD ELECTS AN ARCHITECT FOR COUNTY HOSPITAL

The board of Trustees at its meeting last Monday night elected Mr. E. G. Flannagan, of Henderson, architect to draw up the plans for the county hospital, the construction of which will begin at an early date. Mr. Flannagan comes highly recommended. Some of the Sanford contractors who have worked with him, say he is one of the best architects in the State and has high standing among the contractors and builders.

While he is a young man he has made the blue prints for some of the most costly buildings in the State. Mr. Flannagan, of the hospital department of the Duke University, was here in consultation with the board and looked over a number of sites that have been offered by people in and around the town. He visited and inspected some 18 sites and recommended any four as being a suitable location for the hospital. The board met again Wednesday night, but failed to reach a decision as to the lot that should be chosen for the building. They eliminated all but two, but it seems that they failed to decide the one that should be used. They adjourned to meet again next Tuesday night at which time they hope to reach a decision.
