Meeting of the Broadway Home Demonstration Club- B. P. U. of Antiock Church Puts on a Program at Broadway-Mrs. J. L. Burgess Entertains the Ladies of the Presbyterian Church-Honor Roll Broadway School-Other Broadway News

A number of parents, teacher and friends of the school gathered at the school building last Wednesday even-ing to organize a Parent-leachers Association. Mr. Taylor, the princi-Association. Mr. 1aylor, the princi-pal, was elected temporary charman and presided over the meeting. He made an interesting talk about the purpose of a Parent-Teachers organiand told of work which he had known of such organizations doing in the past. Instead of a regular elec-tion of officers from the floor, a nomtion of officers from the floor, a nom-nating committee was appointed who will submit nominations for the var-ious offices to the next meeting. This committee is composed of Mr. D. E. Shaw, Miss Beulah Thomas and Mrs. S. H. Rosser. A program committee composed of Misses Alta Dewar, Mary K. Horton and Mrs. J. L. Joyce was appointed to prepare a program for the next meeting. for the next meeting.

A very interesting program, con-sisting of games, contests and music had been prepared by the teachers and was greatly enjoyed by all those present. Especially good music was rendered by Miss Phillips, teacher of music Clyde Thomas hanio: and Mr. music, Clyde Thomas, banjo; and Mr. Malcolm McLeod, violin. Another in-teresting feature of the program was music furnished by Mr. Watson, a comedian, who presented an entertainment the following night at the school house. During the social hour, lemonade and wafers were served by members of the faculty. All present showed an interest in the Parent-Teachers Association and seemed ankious to have a worthwhile organizain this community.

The children of Mrs. Green Sloan have been called to her bedside as her condition remains serious.

The B. Y. P. U. of Antjock Baptist church gave a program at the Bap-tist church here last Sunday evening at the regular meeting hour. The program was greatly enjoyed by those present. Especially, interesting was a talk by Miss Mary Ayescue, field worker for this sector. field worker for this section

WHAT WILL YOU DO WITH IT ? THREE PROPOSITIONS ARE OPEN TO YOU:

1. Sell it now at the lowest price in 26 years, a price far below the cost of production, and help to run prices down to still lower levels

2. Haul it back home, thrown it on the ground, unin-sured, and subject to fire and theft risk, and loss in weights and country damage; and put no money into circulation in your community; or

3. POOL YOUR COTTON NOW. AVOID FIRE AND THEFT RISKS, AVOID LOSS -IN WEIGHTS, AVOID ANY DAMAGE, DRAW YOUR ADVANCE WITHIN ONE CENT PER POUND OF THE AVERAGE MARKET VALUE PLUS AMOUNT DUE FOR BETTER GRADES AND STAPLES, HELP PUT MONEY IN CIRCULA-TION, AND STILL HOLD YOUR COTTON

There is a far better opportunity for cotton to ad-vance beyond the 6c level this year than there was for it to advance above 10c last year or 16c in 1929.

Information gladly furnishd by our Field Men, Receiving Agents, and Warehousemen, or write the Raleigh office.
