

Brevities

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Roberson and daughter, Betsy Ann, of Henderson, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Robards.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clark and Mrs. H. M. Wagoner, who are sojourning in Florida, are expected to return home in a few days.

Miss Elizabeth Crews, a teacher in the City Graded Schools, spent the week-end at her home in Greensboro with her parents.

Rev. George Tally, of Carbondon, will preach at the East Sanford Baptist church next Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to hear him.

Dean D. D. Carroll, of the University, will fill Rev. Frank C. Hawkins' appointment at the First Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The public is invited to hear him.

Miss Helen Palmer has accepted a position as teacher in a dancing school at Reidsville. She is teaching under the supervision of Mrs. Jacquelin Downing, who is rated as the best dancing teacher in the State.

The Two Point filling station, where Gaither Edwards and the two Birdsongs were killed in a gun battle over where the Carthage road leads out from Federal Highway No. 1, is now in charge of O. D. Palmer.

Perry's Garage has been incorporated to engage in the automobile business. The authorized capital stock is $10,000.00, $1,500.00 subscribed by Garland Perry, Robena S. Perry, of this place, and L. H. Perry, of Cummock.

Miss Sarah Busbee, of Raleigh, who is conducting a dancing school at this place, was in this office yesterday and asked The Express to state that she will return to Sanford next week for the purpose of instructing her pupils.

Mr. W. L. Simmons, general manager for Williams-Belk Company, of this place, left the first of the week for New York to purchase a spring stock of goods for his firm. He will purchase a stock sufficient to meet the demands of the trade. He expects to return about the last of the week.

This issue of The Express carries an advertisement from Mr. C. H. Smith offering for sale the Melver Building on the corner of Chatham and Melver Streets. There is a bargain in this building as it was constructed of the very best material that could be had years ago. This building will be sold on Saturday, February 27th, at 3 p. m.

The Express stated a few weeks ago that the person killing the heaviest hog in Lee County this season, would be given a year's subscription to this paper free of charge. So far the biggest hog reported to this office was the one killed by Mr. J. M. Yarborough, which weighed 890 pounds. As the season is now about over this was probably the biggest hog that will be reported.

Joe Cotton who has for some time held a position as a salesman with the Progressive Stores, Inc., at this place, has been promoted by accepting a position with the company as manager of the store at Smithfield. This is the reward for faithful, efficient service. While his Sanford friends will be pleased to learn of his promotion, they regret that he is called away from Sanford.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Craighill Brown have returned from Washington, D. C., where Mr. Brown attended a week session of the College of Preachers held at the National Cathedral. The subject under discussion was "Christian Internationalism." Some of the most prominent ministers in the United States were on the program, with Rev. Dr. McGreggor, of the North western University, as the leader during the Conference. During Lent Mr. Brown will hold services at St. Thomas Episcopal Church on Tuesday and Sunday afternoons at 4 p. m.

Mr. L. F. Baldwin has sold his interest in the Baldwin Bargain Store, on Steele Street to his brother, Mr. K. L. Baldwin and will retire from business. Mr. K. L. Baldwin will continue in business. Mr. L. F. Baldwin is advertising his house and a vacant lot for sale in this issue of The Express. Although he has not made plans for the future he expects to leave Sanford soon. Their many friends in Sanford will regret to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin plan to leave Sanford.

Her many Sanford friends will be pleased to learn that Miss Maude Holmes who has been critically ill with pneumonia in Raleigh, is now improving and it is expected that she will recover. Her sister, Mrs. Walter Cade, has been at her bedside since last week. Dr. J. P. Monroe went over to Raleigh last week to see Miss Holmes. Miss Holmes, who, before going to Raleigh, was head nurse at the Central Carolina Hospital, was held in high esteem by the entire medical and nursing corps.

Bobby Burns, proprietor of the Burns filling station at Three Points, tells The Express that many of the tourists who spent the season in Florida are now passing through on Federal Highway No. 1 returning to their homes in the Northern States. In fact they are moving in both directions. Some tourists are going to Florida to spend a few days on the golf links. Mr. Burns says that the first season now starts the early year. The seasons at the watering places are not so long, but the tourists are constantly coming and going.

JONESBORO NEWS LETTER

NOVETI NA ZOLJA BAIKRYNPLE

George Washington Celebration. On Monday afternoon, February 22, at 2 o'clock, a special George Washington Bicentennial program will be presented in the school auditorium under the auspices of the Jonesboro Parent-Teachers' Association. A splendid program under the direction of Miss Blanche Godfrey, chairman, of the program committee, assisted by Misses Nell Gibbs, Bernice Currie, and Mesdames H. M. Jackson and Emory Watson will be presented. The grammar grade choruses composed of fifty voices will sing a number written especially for the Bicentennial celebration. The stately and beautiful minut will be danced in costume by ten pupils of the A. & B. sections of the 5th and 6th grades. Two short playlets will also be given by the pupils of Misses Nell Gibbs and Frances Roberts. Immediately after the program tree planting exercises will take place on the school grounds. Three pink dogwood trees will be planted, one honoring the memory of the Father of our Country, another in the memory of the late Dr. E. P. Snipes, beloved physician who rendered such valuable service to Jonesboro and the surrounding community for more than forty years, and one in honor of Mr. Redin Bryan, Sr., who is one of our town's oldest and most beloved citizens. Mr. Bryan is one of the few remaining Confederate veterans.

Following the tree planting a colonial tea will be given in the music room, honoring the parents and grade mothers of the Parent Teachers' Association. Parents and friends of the school are cordially invited to attend this special George Washington program.

Bridge Clubs Entertained. Mrs. J. K. Hunt and daughter, Mrs. Dion Hunt, extended a delightful courtesy Thursday evening when they entertained the Teachers' Bridge Club and the Merry Go Round Bridge Club at their home on West Main street.

Mrs. J. K. Hunt cordially greeted the guests at the door and they were shown to the cloak room by Mrs. Dion Hunt. Attractive valentine tallies were passed and the game was entered into with enthusiasm.

The living room, where five tables were in play was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Lovely yellow jonquills, narcissus and hyacinths were tastefully arranged in baskets and vases throughout the room creating a spring-like atmosphere. Mrs. J. A. White and Miss Carrie Phillips tied for high score.

At the close of this delightful evening the hostesses assisted by Miss Ruby Hunt, served neapolitan cream and angel food cake. Those present were Misses Alice Parker, Christine Meadows, Mela Stroupe, Mae Snipes, Mildred Campbell, Nell Gibbs, Elva Bryan, Vivian Avent, Catherine Phillips, Mesdames T. C. Black, H. M. Jackson, J. A. White, W. M. Arnold, E. J. Caddell, Waylon Blue, W. M. Holt, Seth Cox, W. G. Watson, E. J. Kelly, L. L. Thomas, Max Makepeace, J. R. Dalrymple and Mrs. Graham, of Raeford.

Miscellaneous Shower. On last Wednesday afternoon Class No. 12 of the M. E. Sunday school C, where Mr. Brown attended a week session of the College of Preachers held at the National Cathedral. The subject under discussion was "Christian Internationalism." Some of the most prominent ministers in the United States were on the program, with Rev. Dr. McGreggor, of the North western University, as the leader during the Conference. During Lent Mr. Brown will hold services at St. Thomas Episcopal Church on Tuesday and Sunday afternoons at 4 p. m.

Mr. L. F. Baldwin has sold his interest in the Baldwin Bargain Store, on Steele Street to his brother, Mr. K. L. Baldwin and will retire from business. Mr. K. L. Baldwin will continue in business. Mr. L. F. Baldwin is advertising his house and a vacant lot for sale in this issue of The Express. Although he has not made plans for the future he expects to leave Sanford soon. Their many friends in Sanford will regret to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin plan to leave Sanford.

Her many Sanford friends will be pleased to learn that Miss Maude Holmes who has been critically ill with pneumonia in Raleigh, is now improving and it is expected that she will recover. Her sister, Mrs. Walter Cade, has been at her bedside since last week. Dr. J. P. Monroe went over to Raleigh last week to see Miss Holmes. Miss Holmes, who, before going to Raleigh, was head nurse at the Central Carolina Hospital, was held in high esteem by the entire medical and nursing corps.

Bobby Burns, proprietor of the Burns filling station at Three Points, tells The Express that many of the tourists who spent the season in Florida are now passing through on Federal Highway No. 1 returning to their homes in the Northern States. In fact they are moving in both directions. Some tourists are going to Florida to spend a few days on the golf links. Mr. Burns says that the first season now starts the early year. The seasons at the watering places are not so long, but the tourists are constantly coming and going.

Decorations on this occasion, with its decorations of spring flowers and graceful ferns. In the dining room the table was spread with a lovely lace cloth and centered with a silver basket filled with narcissus, jonquills and larkspur.

About sixty friends of Mrs. Knight called during the afternoon. A pleasant surprise of the afternoon was the arrival of several ladies representing the Bible Class of the M. E. church, of Sanford, who also brought many useful and lovely gifts.

Club Hostesses. Despite the inclement weather a delightful meeting of the Merry Go Round Bridge Club was held Monday evening with Mrs. W. M. Holt and Miss Vivian Avent at the home of the later on West Main street.

Ferns and blooming potted plants, together with the soft glow of floor lamps, furnished a pleasant setting for the games which was played at 4 tables until a late hour. Mrs. Albert White was winner of high score and to her the hostess presented an attractive cookie jar.

After cards were recalled Mrs. B. P. Williamson and Miss Vivian Cole assisted the hostess in serving congealed fruit salad, sandwiches, saltines, pickle, coffee and fudge.

Club members present were Mesdames W. M. Arnold, W. G. Watson, Waylon Blue, Alert White, E. J. Caddell, Seth Cox, T. C. Black, W. M. Holt, Misses Vivian Avent, Deavie Kelly, Blanche and Myra Godfrey. Especial guests were Mesdames L. L. Thomas, P. G. York, B. P. Williamson, Max Makepeace, Misses Virginia Cole and Catherine Phillips.

The body of Ross Sloan who died in Panama recently, arrived this morning. Funeral services will be held at Shallow Well Christian church tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m., conducted by Rev. J. E. Blalock, assisted by Rev. T. F. Wright, of this city.

Benefit Basketball Game. On Friday evening the Civic League and Community Choir will sponsor a benefit basketball game in school gymnasium. The small price of tickets will be charged. This game will be a double header, the Jonesboro High School girls' team will play the town girls. The married men will play the town boys. This game promises to be one of thrills and fun for ever yone present. Let everyone come out and help a good cause.

A. S. Pierce Passes After Long Illness. Alexander S. Pierce, a well known farmer, died at 8 o'clock Thursday morning at his home near Jonesboro, after an illness of several months.

Mr. Pierce, who was 51 years of age, was born in Randolph county, but for several years had lived in Lee county where he had many friends. Early in life he married Miss Dora Gilmore. Some years after her death he married Miss Mary Hugh in school together with the following children: Mrs. S. Hinesley and Mrs. Millie Cramp, both of Lenoir, Vance, Walter, Brantley and Basler Pierce. Surviving also are one sister and two brothers. The funeral services were held at the home Friday afternoon conducted by Rev. O. A. Keller assisted by Rev. J. E. Blalock.

Bible Class Meets. The Men's Bible Class of the Presbyterian church taught by Dr. Waylon Blue, met for their regular meeting last Thursday evening at the tune in having such an efficient street.

After a short devotional conducted by Rev. J. S. Cooke a business session was held over which Mrs. K. H. Phillips presided. At this time plans were made for the every member canvass which will take place in March. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Russell served chicken salad sandwiches, saltines, pickle and coffee.

Circle Meeting. Circle No. 3 of the Presbyterian church, with Mrs. Waylon Blue, chairman, met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Bertha Cole, with a very full attendance. The devotional was led by Mrs. H. F. Oehler, after which an interesting program on Japan followed. A reading entitled "Train up a Child" was splendidly rendered by Mrs. Bertha Cole, who is the oldest member of the entire auxiliary. The Bible study was led by Rev. J. S. Cooke.

During the social hour Miss Virginia Cole and Mrs. E. P. Williamson served sandwiches, stuffed eggs and hot tea. The Mary Lee Seawell Circle met Friday evening with Mrs. J. Walker Kelly, with the chairman, Mrs. E. J. Kelly, presiding. After the devotional conducted by the chairman, the program on Japan followed. The Bible study was led by Mrs. Cooke. The circles which will close their church year in March, gave gratifying reports.

Circle No. 1 with Mrs. W. G. Watson, chairman, met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Gertrude Arnold, and daughter, Mrs. W. M. Arnold, at their home on Lee street. Mrs. W. M. Arnold led the devotional after which a program followed. The Bible lesson was taught by Mrs. Acree.

Teachers Club Entertained. Misses Mae Snipes and Alice Parker entertained their Teacher's Club and a few friends at a valentine bridge and rook party last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hunt, on Lee street.

High scores were made in a compact, was awarded to Miss Christine Meadows; high score guest prize, dusting powder, to Mrs. J. A. White, and high score rook prize a cutex set, to Mrs. J. P. McDavid.

The living room was attractively decorated with red and white spring flowers carried out the valentine color scheme. Punch was served during the evening and at the conclusion of the party the hostess served block cream centered with red heart, angel food cake and valentine candies.

Those playing were Mesdames J. A. White, T. C. Black, J. P. McDavid, Geo. Hunt, H. M. Jackson, Dion Hunt, Misses Kate and Elva Bryan, Lau Rhea Ward, Isabel Knight, Frances Roberts, Bernice Currie, Nell Gibbs, Mela Stroupe, Mildred Campbell and Christine Meadows.

Return From Greensboro. Misses Annie and Myra Dalrymple who have made their home in Greensboro since last fall have returned to their home in Jonesboro for a stay of several months. The many friends of Miss Myra Dalrymple whose ankle was broken in a fall in Greensboro last September, will be glad to know that she has recovered and is able to walk now.

Notice. The people of our town and community are urged to attend the benefit basketball game at the gymnasium at 7:30 Friday evening. The proceeds of the game will go to a most worthy cause being sponsored by two of our outstanding organizations, the Community Choir and Civic League. Part of the proceeds will go towards paying for music used by the community choir which contributed so largely to the musical life of our town.

At the close of the meeting the members were invited into the dining room where doughnuts, coffee and cocoa was served.

Sunday School Class to Serve Lunch. On Saturday, February 20th morning of the Pictorial Class of the Baptist Sunday school will serve lunch in the old Model Market stand. A good, wholesome dinner will be served for the small sum of 25c and 35c. The public is cordially invited to patronize this class.

The Civic League is planning improvements and the remaining amount will go to that organization.

T. E. Class Meeting. The T. E. L. Class of the Baptist Sunday school met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Hare with a splendid attendance. The devotional was in charge of Mrs. Henry Hamilton followed by a business session. A very interesting George Washington program was then carried out by Mrs. Lanier and Mrs. Hamilton.

Jonesboro High Wins Fourth District Title. Jonesboro high school boys defeated the Lumberton high quint 29 to 26 last Thursday night at Campbell College to win championship of the Fourth District Conference of Class B high schools. The victory was the 20th in as many starts, this season for Jonesboro, which had won honors in group one play in the district. Lumberton had captured the title in group two. It was a hard fought affair and anybody's game until the final moments when John Womble tallied 14 points to show the way for Jonesboro while Dalrymple was runner with eight. The success of the Jonesboro team this year is large ly due to Coach C. J. Crutchfield who is considered one of the outstanding coaches in this part of the State. The Jonesboro school is indeed fortunate in having such an efficient athletic director.

JONESBORO - THREE Notice. All members of the Junior Order Lodge are urged to be present next Monday night when they will hear an address by Mr. D. E. Shaw, of Broadway.

Mrs. H. M. Jackson, Misses Blanche and Myra Godfrey, and James Dalrymple, Jr., attended the matinee performance of "The Student Prince" which was given at State Theatre, Raleigh, last Saturday. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robertson regret to know that their little daughter, Mary Leslie is quite sick at their home here.

Ruth Womble has returned from an extended visit to her sister in Carrboro. Mrs. Emma Stevens has gone to Washington, D. C., where she will visit her son, Clifton Bell, and her daughter, Mrs. Walter Wren. The Men's Bible Class of the Baptist church met last Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Hunt, at their home on Lee street. The president, Mr. Victor Rice, presided over the business session. Rev. Frank Hare made a fine talk. Fruit was served at the close of the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Hare, who have been residing with Rev. and Mrs. Frank Hare during the past winter, have moved to a home near Sanford.

For Your Grain

Sulphate of Ammonia

The Best Top Dresser Known

25 PER CENT AMMONIA

While Soda has Only 19 Per Cent Ammonia.

If there was ever a time to save money it is now and we will help you by insisting that you use SULPHATE OF AMMONIA for your grain instead of soda.

The trusts do not seem to be controlling SULPHATE OF AMMONIA and while we consider it worth ten dollars a ton more than soda it is actually selling much cheaper.

If you have never used it ask anyone you know who has used it. We will rest on their verdict.

STOCK NOW ON HAND FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY. TON $33.00; PER BAG, $3.50.

Get it at the mill or place your orders with our dealers.

Sapona Mills, Inc.

SANFORD, N. C.

DEALERS:

COTTON MILL STORE - Sanford
T. A. RIDDLE CO. - Sanford
HASTY CAMPBELL, - Jonesboro
J. C. JONES, - Broadway
H. P. McPHERSON, - Cameron
NED McLEOD, - Broadway, R. F. D.
J. J. HACKNEY, - Moncure
J. F. WOMBLE, - MONCURE
BUCHANAN BROS., - RYES

LOCAL MAN WINS HONORS IN ARMY PISTOL MATCH

Corporal Carlton J. Thomas, Battery A, 1st. Observation Battalion, stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, was a member of the Battery Team in the National Rifleman Association Pistol Qualification Trophy Match for 1931. Corporal Thomas has recently received the hearty congratulations of General King, commanding the Fourth Corps Area. Corporal Thomas has completed 10 years service in the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. McNair and children and Misses Rosalie and Ruth Thomas stopped over in Jacksonville Sunday to visit their brother, Julian Thomas, en route to Miami.

..FOR SALE..

AT VERY LOW PRICES!

- One Burroughs Adding Machine.
- One Corona Adding Machine. Both practically new.
- One Daulton Adding Machine and Cash Register Com.
- One Repeating Remington Rifle.
- One .38 Smith and Wesson Revolver, Hammerless, Pearl Handles.
- One Large Flat Desk and Office Chair.
- One Large Wooden Cabinet, suitable for storing heavy articles.
- One 100-piece Dinner Set, Genuine China.

We have other items that you might need that we will sell cheap.

Possibly you might have a typewriter that you want to exchange for the above. We will sell or exchange.

W. F. Cheers,

PHONE 147

February Specials!

JOHN B. STETSON HATS - $4.98.

INTERWOVEN SOX in broken lots, former prices 75c to $1, going now for only 25c a pair

Men's good heavy full cut OVERALLS all sizes, pair, 69c

Boy's good OVERALLS, sizes 2 to 12 years, per pair, 39c

Ladies' and school girl's OXFORDS and PUMPS, $1.48

These are worth more money but sizes are broken.

Stroud-Hubbard Co.

THE SHOE AND HOSIERY STORE.

SEE PAGE FIVE - for - FORD AD

A FEW ODD THINGS IN GOOD FOODS YOU CAN FIND AT OUR STORE:

Snider APPLE SAUCE, 11 ounce tins	10c
Premier Fancy WHOLE BREADS, No. 2 1-2 Cans	20c
Premier TOMATO JUICE, 14 fluid ounce cans	10c
Premier Fancy DICED CARROTS, No. 2 Cans	15c
Shivar Pale Dry GINGER ALE	10c
Five Pound PAID HONEY	85c
Home Made CHOPPED KRAUT, No. 2 Can	10c
Home Made CHOPPED KRAUT, No. 2 1-2 Can	15c
HOME MADE CHOPPED KRAUT, No. 2 1-2 Can, 2 for	25c
Van Camps HOMINY, Large Size	10c

OUR SEED DEPARTMENT IS FILLING UP WITH THE BEST TESTED SEEDS WE CAN BUY.

C. H. MONGER,

SEEDS AND GROCERIES

Phones 52 and 53 Sanford, N. C.