Sanford Music Club

Mrs. H. F. Makepeace and Miss Ruth Phillips were hostesses to the Sanford Music Club Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Makepeace.

Following a lengthy business session the program was taken up with Mrs. T. J. Brooks as leader. The study of the opera, "Samson and Delilah," by Saint-Saens, was continued. The story of the opera was told by Mrs. J. S. Truitt, and the following selections from the opera were given: piano solo, "Romance," by Mrs. A. M. Hubbard; vocal solo, "The Belle," by Mrs. A. L. O'Brian; and vocal solo, "O Love, Thy Help," by Mrs. W. H. White.

During the social hour the hostesses served a salad course with tea. The club will be entertained next by Mrs. H. M. Wagoner.

Mrs. Kimrey Is Hostess

Mrs. S. Q. Kimrey very cordially entertained the members of her bridge club and several additional guests Friday evening, there being three tables of contract in play.

Spring flowers graced the living room and attractive George Washington tallies were used. High score prize, two linen guest towels, was won by Mrs. L. E. Warrick. The hostess served cherry pie topped with whipped cream and coffee.

Guests in addition to club members were Mesdames R. T. Howard, P. L. Johnson, W. W. Chaffin, W. H. Gurley, and G. B. Kimrey.

Methodist Auxiliary

A very large attendance featured the February meeting of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of Steele street church on Monday afternoon in the ladies' parlor.

The president, Mrs. P. J. Barringer, conducted the meeting, which was opened with a hymn followed by prayer by Mrs. F. R. Snipes. Mrs. L. D. Hayman made an interesting report of the recent district conference in Fayetteville, and later several business matters were taken up.

Circle 1 was in charge of the program which was on Scarritt College and consisted of interesting articles by Mrs. F. Y. Hanner and Mrs. J. G. Porney-Duval. The devotionals were then conducted by Mrs. M. C. Reeves.

Junior Ramblers Meet

The Junior Ramblers met Thursday evening with Miss Reid Riddle at her home on Carthage street.

There was an initial business session during which Miss Margaretta Hartness was elected president, Miss Vera Stewart, secretary-treasurer, and plans were made for spring activities of the club.

An interesting valentine contest was then enjoyed, Miss Frances Leach Lashley being winner of the prize, a box of candy. Bridge and dancing were further diversions of the evening and at its conclusion the hostess served potato salad, sandwiches, sal-tines, and coffee.

Miss Frances Leach Lashley will entertain the club next.

Delightful Party

The Scout Club of the Presbyterian troupe entertained a number of friends Friday evening at the home of Herbert McDonald.

Dancing and progressive conversation were enjoyed, and delicious refreshments of peaches topped with whipped cream, cake, and hot chocolate were served.

Those present were Misses Frances Gunn, Margaret Hatch, Frances Leach Lashley, Reid Riddle, Wilna Mae Pount, Ernestine White, Ariene Tyson, and A. K. Miller, Jr., Edward McNair, Edward Griffin, William Wilkins, W. J. Wann, Herbert McDonald, and Edwin Buchanan.

Junior Contract Club

The Sandhill Tea House was the scene of a most delightful meeting of the Junior Contract Club when Miss Elizabeth Cross was hostess on Friday afternoon.

Spring flowers and George Washington tallies and accessories featured the affair and a number of pro-gram items of contract were enjoyed.

Following the games delicious refreshments of chicken salad, potato chips, hot rolls, coffee, and cherry pie were served. The club will meet next with Miss Ruth Phillips at the home of Mrs. W. F. Wood.

Pierian Club

The Pierian Club's meeting on Wednesday afternoon, February 15th, was one of unusual pleasure to the members, in that they had as their guests on this occasion the members of the Sanford Music Club and two former members of the Pierian Club, Mrs. C. E. Teague and Miss Ruth Gunter, of Greensboro, who accompanied the guest speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Kephart, of Greensboro.

The meeting occurred at the beautiful home of Mrs. E. C. Heins, Jr., on Rosemont, which was attractively arranged for the occasion with masses of early spring flowers. The guests were greeted by Mrs. Heins, Mrs. J. N. McNair, president of the Pierian Club, Mrs. J. R. Ingram, vice-president, and were presented to Mrs. Kephart, Mrs. Teague, and Mrs. Gunter. Mrs. E. A. Griffin received in the living room.

Mrs. Kephart was introduced to her audience by Mrs. Teague, and gave a most delightful talk on her impressions of and experiences in Scotland, where she, Dr. Kephart, and their son and daughter spent the school year 1930-31. Dr. Kephart, head of the Curry Training School of Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, having been at this time an associate professor in the University of Edinburgh. The speaker's charm of manner and many personal experiences made her talk a rare treat for her hearers, who also enjoyed the many beautiful pictures which she showed. Mrs. W. H. White then sang very beautifully a group of Scotch songs with piano accompaniment by Mrs. M. J. McPhail. Assisted by Mesdames R. E. Bobbitt, M. C. Reeves, E. A. Griffin, and J. R. Ingram. Mrs. Heins served chicken a la king in patties, stuffed tomatoes on lettuce, beaten biscuit, fruit cake, and hot tea.

Following the meeting the members of the Pierian Club held a short business session when it was announced that at the next meeting at the home of Mrs. P. J. Barringer on March 1st, each member would have the privilege of inviting one guest. The members are asked to assemble at 3:30 o'clock and the guests at 3:45.

Tuesday Contract Club

The members of the Tuesday Contract Club and one additional guest, Mrs. W. B. Jones, were most delightfully entertained last week by Mrs. L. M. Gould. Spring flowers graced the home and valentine tallies and accessories were used. There were two tables of contract and high score prize, a valentine box of candy, was won by Mrs. J. B. Koonce.

At the conclusion of the games elaborate refreshments in two courses were served, in which the anniversary motif was emphasized, Tuesday being the hostess' fourteenth wedding anniversary.

The club will be entertained next by Mrs. J. F. Jones.

Sanford Literary Club Entertains

One of the most delightful social events of recent months was the meeting of the Sanford Literary Club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. P. Monroe when the club had as guests the members of the Pierian Club and a number of other visitors. The hospitable Monroe home, which lends itself so well to large affairs, was beautiful with masses of spring flowers. Mrs. Monroe received at the door and the guests were then greeted by Mesdames J. U. Gunter and C. C. Cheek, in exquisite colonial costumes, and shown to their seats by Miss Catherine Monroe. The chairs were arranged in the north living room facing the folding doors which open into the dining room, where a play was later given. Mrs. M. J. McPhail, in colonial costume, extended a very gracious welcome to the guests, and announced that the program would open with songs of long ago. Miss Maude Cotton and Mrs. R. J. Benson, also in colonial costume, gave several beautiful solos, with Mrs. McPhail accompanist.

A most humorous and delightful play, "Not a Man in the House," was then very cleverly given by Mesdames D. C. Lawrence, F. Y. Hanner, R. E. Carrington, D. B. Teague, and T. G. Gunn, and was highly enjoyed by the audience.

Following this the guests were invited into the dining room where Mesdames Gunter and Cheek presided at the tea table and were assisted in serving by Mrs. A. W. Palmer and Misses Louise Futrelle, Catherine Monroe, and Carrie Phillips.

Halcyon Club

The members of the Halcyon Club enjoyed a most delightful meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. S. V. Scott at the home of Mrs. Chas. L. Scott.

Spring flowers were used as an attractive setting for three tables of contract. High score prize, a pot of hyacinths, was won by Mrs. H. P. Edwards.

Following the games the hostess served elaborate refreshments of pressed chicken, tomato sandwiches, saltines, potato chips, sweet pickle, peaches, and coffee, followed by strawberry short cake with whipped cream.

Guests were Mesdames J. F. Foster and J. C. Pittman. The club will meet next with Mrs. R. E. Bobbitt.

Wesley Bible Class

The home of Mrs. Fred Page was the scene of a most interesting meeting of the Young Women's Wesley Bible Class of Steele street Sunday School on Tuesday evening. Entertaining with Mrs. Page were Mesdames F. E. Street, M. B. Yarborough, C. H. Fogleman, C. C. Culbreth, and E. V. Neal. Thirty-five members answered to roll call and devotional exercises were conducted by Mesdames H. A. Palmer and W. L. Seawell. A cordial welcome was extended Mrs. H. G. Brown, as a new member, and Mesdames F. Y. Hanner and Clifton Capps as visitors. During the business session an apron sale was conducted, from which a neat sum was realized, and plans were made to have the annual birthday party at the next meeting. An interesting George Washington contest was staged during the social hour and later Russian tea, sandwiches, cheese wafers, and candy were served. The class will meet in March at the home of Mrs. W. R. Williams.

Mrs. Patterson Entertains

The Gelata Club was entertained Tuesday at a beautiful George Washington meeting by Mrs. E. M. Patterson, the contract tables being composed of club members only.

Spring flowers graced the rooms and George Washington tallies and accessories were used. High score prize, a card table cover, was won by Mrs. C. H. Fogleman.

The hostess served a delectable double course collation consisting of deviled crabs, beet salad, hot rolls and coffee, followed by individual cherry pies topped with whipped cream, and red, white, and blue mints.

The club will meet next with Mrs. H. M. Wagoner.

WOMAN LOST TWENTY POUNDS IN FOUR WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and further more I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.
