Wesley Bible Class

The May meeting of the Young Women's Wesley Bible Class of Steele Street Sunday school occurred Tuesday night of last week at the home of Mrs. J. I. Neal with Mesdames Rex Kelly, W. C. Moffitt, and Harvey Kennedy, as associate hostesses.
The president Mrs. H. F. Makepeace, was in the chair, and the meeting was opened with the singing of America. This was followed by the Scripture lesson by Mrs. Roy Moore, and prayer was led by Mrs. J. H. Knight. Reports were received from outstanding committees and the class voted to contribute $25.00 toward the expense of the vacation Bible school to be held at the church.

Mrs. B. Cole, social leader, then took charge of the program and a most interesting contest was staged. A lovely miscellaneous shower was then given Mrs. Roy Moore, who leaves soon to make her home in Wilmington. The hostess served individual lemon pies topped with whipped cream and iced punch.
The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. W. Hunted with Mesdames W. L. Simmons, Roy Knight, Tom Cole, and D.R. Moses as associate hostesses.

Theatre Party For Seniors

A delightful courtesy was extended to the Senior class of the Sanford High School last Tuesday evening when Manager T. C. Whitacre, of the Temple Theatre, gave a special show in their honor at 11 o'clock. The program featured Maurice Chevalier in "A Bed Time Story."
Prior to the picture delicious refreshments were served the seniors, the Coca Cola Bottling Company Coca Cola, and the Buttercup Ice Cream Company, ice cream in flower molds of orchid and jade, the senior colors.

Mr. Whitacre presented passes to the seniors bearing this inscription: "We take this opportunity to extend our congratulations for your accomplishments during your last high school year and wish you continued success in your future endeavors."
Please accept with our compliments this pass to the Temple Theatre from June 5th to June 10th, 1933.

On behalf of the seniors, Warren Williams, Jr., president of the class, expressed the appreciation of the class to Mr. Whitacre and to the three firms contributing to the pleasure of the evening.
Mesdames McKernan and Stewart gave a beautiful party.

A very beautiful bridge and rook party was given last week by Mesdames J. T. McKernan and J. L. Stewart at the home of the former, honoring Mrs. Roy Moore and Mrs. R. B. Vaughan, who leave shortly to make their homes elsewhere.

Masses of garden flowers filled the rooms and there were two tables of bridge and two of rook. Bridge prize, a deck of cards, was won by Mrs. J. B. Koonce and rook prize, a bon bon dish by Mrs. C. H. Riddle. To their honor guests the hostesses presented beautiful vases. Delicious frozen fruit salad, saltines, pickle and iced tea were served.

Guests were Mesdames Roy Moore, R. B. Vaughan, J. F. Cannon, James Bridges, T. E. Poe, R. E. McCullough, A. C. Thomas, W. B. Knight, C. H. Riddle, N. C. Wall, S. W. Allen, J. B. Koonce, Charles Bell, Dewey H. Cooper and Misses Kate and Susan McKernan.

U. D. C. Has Beautiful Meeting.
A beautiful and interesting meeting of the local chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy occurred Thursday afternoon with Mesdames L. P. Wilkins and J. R. Bowers as hostesses at the home of the former.
The program was most appropriately on Jefferson Davis as his birthday anniversary occurred June 3rd. "Reminiscences of Jefferson Davis" was read by Mrs. J. T. O'Neal, and "The Story of Jefferson Davis' Bible" by Mrs. E. M. Underwood. This Bible is now in the Confederate Museum in Richmond.

A number of old songs were sung by Mrs. H. F. Makepeace, among them "The Rose of Yesterday." Mrs. George Palmer, of Timmonsville, S. C. played several very beautiful old melodies with variations. The president conducted a round table questionnaire on Confederate history.

The guests were then invited into the dining room which was very beautifully decorated in garden flowers, and seated at small tables where delicious refreshments were served. Visitors were Mesdames George Palmer, Barrus, and W. H. Heins.
Mrs. Adam's Pupils To Give Recital.
Mrs. G. T. Adams will present her music pupils in a recital at 8 o'clock Friday evening, June 9th, in the assembly room of the Wilrik Hotel. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Halcyon Club Has Its

Annual Picnic Meeting
A most delightful event for the members of the Halcyon Club was the annual picnic meeting held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Chas. L. Scott. Contract was played throughout the day at three tables and at 12:30 the guests were invited into the dining room where a most delicious picnic luncheon was served. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered by a bowl of beautiful garden flowers.

Winner of high score for the day was Mrs. D. M. Gurley, who received two dainty handkerchiefs. The club will hold its final meeting for the season next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. R. Williams.
Charles Rogers Entertains Seniors
Following the graduating exercises Monday evening Charles P. Rogers, Jr., was hostess to his classmates of the class of 1933, the high school teachers, and the commencement marshals at his home on Hawkins Ave.
Chairs were arranged on the lawn of the beautiful Rogers home and the crowd enjoyed seeing the pictures of the Seniors as of ten years hence flashed on the screen. Informal conversation was also enjoyed and delicious ice cream and cake in the senior class colors of orchid and green was served.

Mrs. Johnson Gives Beautiful

Dinner For Her Mother
Honoring her mother, Mrs. G. W. Reynolds, of Carthage, who was her guest for the week, Mrs. P. L. Johnson gave a beautiful dinner party Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.
Both living room and dining room were lavishly decorated with larkspur and sweet peas, and the dining room table was covered with an imported lace cloth and centered by a bowl of sweet peas.

The following delicious menu was served: Fried chicken, rice and gravy, potato salad, carrots, tomato and lettuce salad, beet and cucumber pickle, hot rolls, iced tea, homemade pineapple ice cream and cake.
Covers were laid for Mrs. G. W. Reynolds, Mrs. W. L. Seawell, Mrs. F. E. Street, Mrs. Emma Kimrey, Mrs. R. M. Vestal, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Johnson.

Mrs. Jones Is Hostess

A lovely informal event of last week was the three table bridge party given Tuesday evening by Mrs. J. F. Jones.
Masses of garden flowers filled the attractive home and created a colorful setting for the tables. Following several progressions of contract high score prize, a picture, was presented to Mrs. Fred Page. To Mrs. Clark, of Apex, house guest of Mrs. Page, and to Miss Polly Jones, of Richmond, her own house guest, the hostess presented double decks of cards. A delicious ice course was served.

Miss Nell Lee and Wilbur Lee McIver were married in a beautiful ceremony in a beautiful ceremony at eleven o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Jesse Griffin, where the bride has made her home since coming to Sanford several years ago. Miss Nell Lee and Wilbur Lee McIver were united in marriage by Rev. Frank C. Hawkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church.
An improvised altar was erected before the mantel in the living room and it was in front of this that the vows were taken. Stately pines towered on each side and massed before these were luxuriant ferns in graduated heights. Pink and white sweet peas banked the mantel, the pastel pink being the only color used to complement the nuptial colors of green and white. Tall seven-branched candle stands of white were used on either side, the tapers gleaming star-like against the green foliage. Elsewhere in the living room white flowers were used, with here and there the soft shade of the pastel pink.
Prior to the ceremony a beautiful musical program was rendered by Mrs. Thad Pope, of Lillington, soprano, and Miss Anna Rogers, pianist. Miss Rogers wore a beautiful costume of blue with shoulder corsage of pink and Mrs. Pope wore pink with a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Pope's selections were "At Dawning" and "Love's Old Sweet Song." Miss Rogers played Lobengrin's wedding march as the processional, Mendelssohn's as the recessional, and during the speaking of the vows "To A Wild Rose."
The bride and groom entered together and were unattended. The bride who is a very beautiful and stately blonde, was charming in wedding dress of Eleanor blue crepe with hat, shoes, gloves, and pocket book of light grey and wore a shoulder corsage of pink roses, swansonia, and sweet peas. Following the ceremony, which was witnessed only by relatives and close friends, the young couple left in their car for a bridal trip to include Washington and other Northern Points. They will then make their home in Sanford.
The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee. She graduated from the Lillington high school completed her education at King's Business College, Raleigh, and was assistant auditor of Hargett County for several years before coming to Sanford to take a position with the State highway commission. She is a very lovely and competent young woman and is widely popular over the State.
Mrs. McIver is the eldest son of Mrs. Florence McIver and the late Lee G. McIver. He is a graduate of Campbell College and Wake Forest College and is one of the most prominent young business men of this section, having succeeded his father as manager of the Lee Furniture Company.
Among the out-of-town guests at the marriage were Miss Clara Lee, of Fayetteville, and La Lee, of Four Oaks, sisters of the bride, Miss Dorothy Lee, of Smithfield, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Thad Pope and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Monroe, of Lillington, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee, of Lillington.
Monday evening an informal reception was enjoyed by the members of the bridal party and out-of-town guests following the rehearsal at the home of Mrs. Griffin. Lovely garden flowers graced the home and delicious block cream and wedding cake were served.

Miss Gilliam Appears in Expression Recital.
One of the most beautiful private recitals ever given in Sanford occurred on Tuesday evening, May 30th, when Mrs. M. J. McPhail presented her pupil, Miss Louise Gilliam, in an expression recital at the home of Miss Gilliam's parent, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gilliam, on Endor street.
About sixty friends of the family were invited and the home was most beautiful in its decorations. The music room was transformed into a garden scene which was very effective. Masses of beautiful garden flowers were used in floor vases and stands, over a trellis at one side of the room roses climbed, and garden seats were placed at artistic intervals. The decorations were planned and executed by Mrs. F. Y. Hanner. The music room was used as a stage and chairs were placed in the
