TAR HEEL SCRAP BOOK

might have lost it in the recent debacle as many wiser than I did.
So Miss Robinson, this is my answer to the annual row. Perhaps if I had only stayed in college a few years longer I might have coughed the answer neatly in a few words.

The Express is informed that the North Carolina division of the Seaboard Air Line Railway hauled more freight through Sanford last Saturday and Sunday than in any two days; in three years. Saturday they made 1,100 cars of freight and on Sunday 1,020 cars. While some of this was fruit and vegetables much of it was non-perishable heavy freight. These figures show that business is picking up on this road. According to reports business is gradually picking up all over the country, and the railroads seem to be getting their share of it.

Miss Ruth Davenport left last week for New York and with a party of tourists will sail for Turkey. She expects to be abroad for some time.
