Mary Louise Hatch Has Birthday Party

A beautiful party was given Wednesday afternoon, August 23rd, by Mary Louise Hatch, attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hatch, when she entertained twelve of her young friends in celebration of her ninth birthday.

Games were played on the lawn and the young guests were much interested in the birthday letter written by the young hosts to "Old Man Happy," read over the radio.

Three small tables were placed on the side porch and the young guests were served birthday cake, ice cream, candy and lemonade.

Miss Lee McIver Entertains

Honoring her sister, Miss E. J. McIver, who has returned from an extended visit to Boston, and Mrs. E. Frank Hamilton, a recent bride, Miss Lee McIver entertained Friday afternoon of last week at 5 tables of bridge.

Colorful midsummer flowers formed a setting for the tables and the tallies also featured a floral motif. High score prize, a vanity case, was won by Mrs. C. C. Hatch, Jr. To Miss McIver the hostess gave a box of powder, to Mrs. Hamilton a pair of hose and a set of table mats, to Mrs. E. L. Morgan, a recent bride, a guest towel, and to Miss Ruby Thompson, house guest of Mrs. Max Heins, a handkerchief. A delicious salad course with ice tea was served.

Miss Dorsett Is Hostess

Miss Elizabeth Dorsett was hostess to a few friends Monday evening at her home on Second street.

Garden flowers were attractively arranged in the living room. The diversions of the evening were bridge and dancing, and at a late hour the hostess served ice cream, cake and watermelon.

Those present were Misses Gertrude Crabtree, Christine Gunter, Elsie Van Sant, Flora McIver Teague, Elma Kelly, Myrtle Riddle and Mary Shaw Rosser.

President White Entertains Rotary Chairman

W. H. White, who was recently elected president of the Sanford Rotary Club, entertained the chairmen of the various committees on Friday evening of last week, at a most delightful dinner at his home on Hawkins Ave.

A long banquet table was arranged in the dining room. The place cards were tiny baskets of mixed flowers, and the table was centered by a bowl of exquisite garden flowers with yellow as the predominant color, flanked by yellow tapers in tall holders.

A most delicious four course dinner was served.

Covers were laid for W. H. White, E. M. Underwood, Jr., W. H. Pitts, T. G. Gunn, Dr. F. L. Knight, Rev. L. D. Hayman, E. M. Underwood, Sr., W. B. Wilkins, O. P. Makepeace, W. R. Williams, A. M. Hubbard, F. P. Strong, Dr. A. D. Barber, J. H. Monger, Dr. M. L. Matthews, Robt. L. Burns, Wilbur L. McIver, E. C. Heins, Jr., and G. R. Wheeler.

Following dinner Mr. White outlined to the chairmen their duties and distributed the literature pertaining to them.

Entertains at Bridge

Mrs. Paul J. Barringer entertained informally at bridge Friday afternoon, players sufficient for 2 tables being in view.

Following several interesting progressions, the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. U. Gunter and Mrs. E. A. Griffin, served delicious assorted sandwiches, cookies, and ice cream.

A very delightful event of last week

Mr. and Mrs. Pittman Honor Guests. was the dance and wine roast given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pittman, honoring their house guest, Mrs. R. C. Sample and Mr. and Mrs. Tom McNair, of Hendersonville.

The party motored out to Lemon Springs, and there enjoyed a delicious wine supper. Later dancing was enjoyed for several hours, the music being furnished by local negro orchestra.

Mrs. Johnson Honored at Bridge

Honoring her sister, Mrs. A. S. Johnson, of Smithfield, who was her guest for several days, Mrs. W. R. Williams was hostess Saturday afternoon at three tables of bridge.

The games were most interesting and high score prize, an embroidered vanity dresser set, was won by Mrs. J. R. Ingram. The hostess served an iced fruit drink during the games, and at their conclusion pineapple ice cream and pound cake.

Miss Frances Gunn Gives Bridge Luncheon

A most delightful bridge luncheon was given Wednesday morning of last week by Miss Frances Gunn, in honor of Misses Nancy and Henrietta McIver of Gulf, and Miss Cora McAdams, of Graham. During the early part of the morning the guests played bridge, high score prize, a picture, was won by Miss Louise Long.

Later the hostess served a most delicious luncheon consisting of baked ham, congealed fruit salad, potato chips, olives, hot rolls, sardines, celery, chocolate cake with whipped cream and iced tea.

Mrs. Hamilton Honored at Theatre Party

Honoring Mrs. B. Frank Hamilton, a recent bride, Mrs. Mary Baine, entertained at a very delightful theatre party Thursday evening of last week at the Sanlee.

Following the show the guests were invited to Mrs. Baine's home on Hawkins Avenue where a delicious ice course was served.

Those present were Mesdames B. Frank Hamilton, G. S. Curran, Harold Makepeace, D. E. McIver, Jr., R. P. Rosser, Misses Elsie and Betsy Olin, Marjorie Johnson, Jean McIver, Ruth McIntoch, Frances Stedman, Lucy Cooper O'Brien, Flora Buchan, Vivian Hinson and Mary Shaw Rosser.

Visiting Girl Honored

Honoring her attractive house guests, Misses Janice and Jean Dunagan, of Atlanta, Ga., and Frances Barnes, of Jacksonville, Ga., Mrs. W. M. Quick was hostess Wednesday evening of last week at her home.

Dancing and bridge were enjoyed throughout the evening, and at its conclusion the hostess served sandwiches and punch.

Those present were Misses Janice and Jean Dunagan, Frances Barnes, Charlotte and Julia Chaffin, Ruth Phillips, and Messrs. J. R. Ingram, Jr., W. T. Chaffin, Bob Mason and James McIver.

Mrs. Sutton Entertains Club

With her customary gracious hospitality Mrs. R. W. Sutton was hostess last week to the Tuesday Afternoon Club.

Beautiful garden flowers were used as a setting for the two rook tables. Club prize, a crump tray, was won by Mrs. C. H. Jones, and guest prize, a pin tray, by Mrs. S. L. Cleary.

The hostess served delicious refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches, iced tea, and individual chess pies topped with whipped cream.

Special guests were Mrs. J. D. Hill, and Mrs. S. L. Cleary. The club will be entertained next by Mrs. C. H. Jones.

Circles of Methodist Auxiliary

Circle 1 of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of Steele Street church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. A. E. Griffin.

The meeting was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. F. R. Snipes, the 27th Psalm was read by Mrs. P. J. Barringer, and Mrs. R. T. Howard offered prayer.

The meeting then adjourned and during the social hour the hostess served a frozen fruit salad course. Mrs. Kate G. Glenn was a visitor.

Circle 2 was entertained by Mrs. W. M. Leggett at her home in Mylver Park. Mrs. W. L. Seawell was in charge of the meeting and devotionals were conducted by Mrs. S. A. O'Cliton.

It was planned to repeat in September the recent Tom Thumb wedding so successfully staged by the circle. During the social hour the hostess served iced cream topped with whipped cream and cake. Visitors were Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Leggett. Sr. Mrs. W. L. Seawell will entertain the circle at its September meeting.

Mrs. H. G. Roberts was hostess to Circle 3. The chairman, Mrs. T. L. Riddle, conducted the devotional exercises and Mrs. H. A. Palmer the Bible study. The circle was delighted to welcome Mrs. W. A. Cunningham as a new member and to have Mrs. R. L. Yow, of Carthage, a visitor. The hostess served an ice course at the conclusion of the meeting.

The meeting of Circle 4 occurred at the home of Mrs. K. R. Hoyle, with a very good attendance. The leader, Mrs. C. M. Reeves, conducted the devotionals and Bible study. The hostess served iced cream and cake.

Alice Green Missionary Society

The picnic meeting of the Alice Green Missionary Society planned to be held at McIver Park, transferred to the ground floor of Steele Street church, due to the fact that recent rains had made the park too damp.

Meeting at 6 o'clock the regular business session was first held. The monthly leaflet, "Woman's Place in the Local Church," was discussed by Mrs. J. D. Hill and Mrs. A. B. Cox. Following the regular meeting a most bounteous and delicious picnic supper was served.

Entertain at Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Griffin entertained a few neighborhood friends Monday evening at two tables of contract at their home on Hawkins Avenue.

Ladies' prize, a perfume flask, was won by Mrs. J. R. Ingram, and men's prize, a deck of cards, by Mr. Ingram. The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Katherine Griffin, served a salad course.

Luncheon For Bridal Couple

Honoring Miss Mildred Ellen Matthews and Frank Mast Payne, who were married at noon Thursday, of last week, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kelly gave a beautiful luncheon just prior to the ceremony at their home on Hawkins Avenue, guests being limited to members of the two families.

The luncheon table was centered by a bowl of beautiful snapdragons and a delicious two-course meal was served. Covers were laid for Miss Mildred Ellen Matthews, Frank Mast Payne, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Matthews, John Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson, of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. Will Payne, Misses Earl and Pearl Payne, all of Boone, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kelly.

Young Visitor Honored

Honoring Miss Evelyn DeBerry, an attractive young visitor from Florida, Mrs. Victor King was hostess recently at three tables of bridge.

Following several entertaining progressions high score prize, a novelty, was won by Miss Margaret Miller. An attractive gift was also presented to the guest of honor.

The hostess served delicious refreshments of fried chicken, congealed fruit salad, sandwiches, sardines, iced tea and pineapple cake.

Guests were Misses Evelyn DeBerry, Johnnie Jones, Tommie Lutterloh, Margaret Hartness, Margaret Hatch, Reid Riddle, Arlene and Sarah Mae Tysor, Frances Leach Lashley, Frances Gunn, Margaret Miller, Louise Long and Helen McCullough.

Honors House Guest

With her attractive house guest, Miss Carolyn McAdams, of Graham, as honoree, Miss Johnnie Jones was hostess Thursday afternoon of last week at three tables of bridge.

Colorful midsummer flowers formed an effective setting for the tables and the games were most spirited. High score prize, a novelty, fell to Miss Margaret Miller, and guest prize, lingerie, was presented to Miss McAdams.

The hostess served assorted sandwiches, cakes, mints, and punch.

Those present were Misses Carolyn McAdams, Evelyn DeBerry, Frances Gunn, Margaret Miller, Frances Leach Lashley, Margaret Hatch, Nita McDonald, Edna Stewart, Aelen Dowd, Flora McIver Teague, and Ola Gladden.

Entertains at Bridge

Another compliment was paid Miss Carolyn McAdams, of Graham, house guest of Miss Johnnie Jones, when Miss Nita McDonald entertained at bridge Saturday afternoon at her home on Gordon street.

There were three tables of bridge in play in a setting of garden flowers. High score prize, a box of candy, was won by Miss Margaret Miller, and to the honor guest the hostess presented lingerie. Delicious sandwiches, cakes and iced tea were served.

COOPERATION WITH THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RECOVERY ADMINISTRATION

First Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, D.C. Aug. 15, 1933.

In connection with the order appearing in the POSTAL BULLETIN of July 21, 1933, postmasters are directed to comply strictly with paragraph 7 to the effect that Certificates of Compliance must be sent to the district office of the Department of Commerce covered by your particular postoffice, such district office being noted on the return envelope enclosed in each letter "To Every Employer." In accordance with this paragraph, these certificates of compliance should be sent to the district office every week.

Dissemination of Information

The letter printed below, dated August 7, was sent to every employer of the National Recovery Administration: TO ALL EMPLOYERS who are not working under the Codes approved by the President.

HOW DO YOU OBTAIN THE BLUE EAGLE?

- A. By 100 per cent compliance. B. In case code has been submitted. C. Through petition for relief. Use one of these three methods:

A. Sign the President's re-employment agreement. Mail it to the district office of the Department of Commerce. Put its provisions into operation. Sign the Certificate of Compliance. Hand it to your local postmaster who will post your name on the honor roll and deliver samples of the NRA Blue Eagle.

B. Sign the President's re-employment agreement. Mail it to the District office of the Department of Commerce. Comply with its provisions as far as possible. Now, if a specific code has been submitted by your industry and its wage and hour provisions accepted by our deputy administrator, sign the Certificate of Compliance with this endorsement:

To the extent of NRA consent as announced we have complied with the President's agreement by conforming with the substituted provisions of the code submitted for the trade or industry.

Present this to your local postmaster who will post your name on the honor roll and deliver the NRA Blue Eagle.

C. Sign the President's re-employment agreement. Mail it to the district office of the Department of Commerce. If you find its provisions are mostly inoperative, then prepare a petition of NRA asking for a stay or postponement of those provisions which would produce an "unavoidable hardship." Submit this petition to the trade association of your industry or, if none, to your local chamber of commerce, or such other commercial organization as can properly vouch for the facts. If officially accepted by one of the above, add the following to the face of your certificate:

Except for those interim provisions regarding wages and hours which have been approved approved by have been approved by the Trade Association

(Then the postmaster will authorize you to use the Blue Eagle. This last procedure may take some time and is, of course, subject to reversal when your petition is reviewed by the NRA.

Thanking you for your cooperation, we are,

Very truly yours, THOS. S. HAMMOND, Executive Director, The President's Re-employment Program.
