

WOMEN'S REALM

—WEDDINGS
—PARTIES
—CLUB MEETINGS

—LOCAL HAPPENINGS
—PERSONALS
—SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Sheets-McCracken Pre-Nuptial Events.
Centering the interest of a wide circle of friends throughout North Carolina will be the wedding of Miss Josephine Morris McCracken and Harry Elias Sheets, of Fayetteville, which will be solemnized Wednesday evening, June 27th, in Steele Street Methodist Church, Sanford.

Officiating at the wedding will be Rev. J. H. McCracken, of Elizabeth City, an uncle of the bride-elect. The wedding music will be rendered by Mrs. George Grant, of Fayetteville, organist; Mrs. W. H. White, of Sanford, soprano soloist; Mrs. Benton Stacey, of Ruffin, violinist, and a valedictorian composed of Mesdames W. H. White, A. L. O'Brian, M. J. McPhail, J. P. Moore, Benton Stacey, Misses Catherine Monroe and Mildred Sinclair, and Messrs. L. C. Larkin, W. L. Jewell, F. Y. Hanner, and T. J. Brooks.

Ushers will be Messrs. Herbert Judd of Durham, Fred Green, of Wilson, George Grant and Metz, of Fayetteville, Edwards Burns, of Carthage, and Frank Webb McCracken, Jr., of Winston-Salem, brother of the bride-elect. The bridesmaids will be Misses Mary Wilkins and Effie Crabtree, of Sanford, Mary Currie, of Carthage, Bronnie Cogdell, of Goldsboro, George Ray Kinsland, of Asheville, and Dorothy Sheets, of Fayetteville, sister of the groom-elect. Mrs. T. P. Lloyd, of Chapel Hill, will attend the bride as dame of honor and Miss Maude McCracken, of Durham, will be maid of honor, both being cousins of the bride-elect. Dr. F. W. McCracken will give his daughter in marriage and Mr. Sheets will have as his best man Dr. Allison Ormond, of Wilmington.

The bride-elect has been honored at a number of pre-nuptial events since her engagement was announced and each day until the marriage has either one or two social events in her honor.

She was in the receiving line at the brilliant reception given in Carthage last Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. H. Lee Thomas, and again received Wednesday afternoon at the reception given by Mesdames E. D. and T. C. Nall and T. J. Brooks.

On Wednesday Mrs. George Grant, of Fayetteville, gave a beautiful luncheon in her honor at the Cotton Bowl, the guests being eight close friends. Thursday has two events in honor of Miss McCracken. At four o'clock in the afternoon Miss Mildred Sinclair will give a party at her home in Fayetteville and at eight o'clock in the evening Mrs. Frank Clegg, Mrs. Benton Stacey and Miss Effie Crabtree will entertain at the home of Mrs. Clegg in Sanford.

Friday afternoon, Miss Mary Currie, of Carthage, will give a tea in honor of the bride-elect, to which a number of Sanford people have been bidden.

Monday afternoon Mrs. E. L. Grady will give a kitchen shower at her home on Morganton Road, Fayetteville, in honor of the popular bride-to-be, and that evening at eight o'clock Miss Mary Wilkins will give a dinner at the Wilkirk Hotel, Sanford, for the women of the bridal party.

The round of pre-nuptial festivities will culminate Tuesday evening in the buffet supper which Miss Dorothy Sheets, sister of the groom-elect, will give at seven o'clock at the Cotton Bowl, in Fayetteville, for the entire bridal party and members of the chorus. This will precede the rehearsal which will be held later in the evening in Steele St. Church, Sanford.

Beautiful Reception Given by Mesdames Nall and Brooks.
Elaborately beautiful in decoration and detail was the large reception given Wednesday afternoon by Mesdames E. D. and T. C. Nall and T. J. Brooks at the home of Mrs. E. D. Nall honoring their guest, Mrs. Clarence Nall, of New York City.

The spacious lower floor of the hospitable home was en suite for the occasion and lavishly decorated in garden flowers with a massing of stately pines in the hall. The dining room table was covered with a lace cloth and centered by a tall mound of verbena, phlox, daisies, and lilies, while near the edge of the table ran an exquisite border of panicles, verbena, phlox, and delicate fern. Four tall ivory tapers in silver holders at the four corners completed the table ensemble or rare beauty.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Frank C. Hawkins and presented to the receiving line by Mrs. D. B. Teague. The line formed in the living room and was composed of Mrs. E. D. Nall, in blue lace; Mrs. Clarence Nall, in green chiffon; Mrs. T. J. Brooks, in green crepe; Mrs. T. C. Nall, in powder blue lace; Mrs. J. K. Perry, of New York City, in red and white organza; Miss Josephine McCracken, in pink chiffon; Miss Julia Chaffin, in pale blue imported tissue; and Miss Agnes Byrd, in pink chiffon. All the members of the receiving line wore exquisite shoulder corsages harmonizing with their costumes.

Directing the guests into the hall was Mrs. E. C. Heins, Jr., and receiving in the hall was Mrs. Fred Page. Mrs. J. T. Davanport received at the dining room door and serving block cream and cake in the dining room were Misses Charlotte Chaffin, Betsy Hartness, Mildred Cross, and Frances King.

Inviting the guests into the music room was Mrs. Mattie Riggsbee and presiding over the guests' register were Mrs. C. M. Gunn and Mrs. J. A. Overton. Receiving in this room were Misses Anna Rogers and Luna Yates and presiding at the piano was Miss Ruth Phillips. Goodbyes were spoken by Mrs. Chas. P. Rogers. Several hundred guests called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Harriss Entertains.
Complimenting her guests, Mrs. J. D. Ledbetter and daughters, Misses Doris and Frances Ledbetter, of Forest City, and Mrs. Clarence Nall, of New York City, who is the house guest of Mrs. E. D. Nall, Mrs. M. W. Harriss entertained Tuesday afternoon with a lovely party at her home on Gulf St.

The living room, dining room, and music room were most attractive with a profusion of summer flowers. The guests enjoyed an hour of music and musical readings given by Mrs. W. H. White, Misses Louise Gilliam, Inez Russell, Ruth Phillips, and the Misses Ledbetter. Following the delightful numbers was served a delicious salad course carrying out a color note of pink and green. Assisting the hostess were Mesdames F. L. Page, P. L. Johnson, T. J. Brooks and F. C. Hawkins.

Guests were Mesdames Ledbetter, Nall, R. T. Howard, W. H. White, T. J. Brooks, J. C. Pittman, F. L. Page, J. L. Sauls, Paul Lucas, P. L. Johnson, E. C. Heins, Jr., F. C. Hawkins, C. M. Reeves, R. C. Rush, Mattie Riggsbee, E. M. Underwood, Sr., E. C. Heins, Sr., S. J. Hinesdale, Roy Moore, L. P. Campbell, of Wilmington, and E. L. Robertson, of Jonesboro; and Misses Ledbetter, Margaret Lasater, Ruth Phillips, Helen Howard, Freda and Elizabeth Strong, Louise Gilliam and Inez Russell.

Halcyon Club.
Mrs. W. R. Williams was gracious hostess to the Halcyon Club at its last meeting of the season Tuesday afternoon.

Three guests, Mesdames A. S. Johnson, of Smithfield, Harold Makepeace, and E. D. Bracken, joined the members for an afternoon at contract.

High score prize, handkerchiefs, was won by Mrs. S. V. Sctot, and to Mrs. Johnson the hostess also presented dainty handkerchiefs.

An elaborate salad course with iced tea followed by peach ice cream and cake was served.

Wesley Bible Class.
The Young Woman's Wesley Bible class of Steele St. Sunday School met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. C. Roberts, Mesdames H. H. Underwood, M. W. Harriss, E. W. Hunter, and A. B. Cox being associate hostesses.

The president, Mrs. Roy Moore, conducted the meeting and the devotionals were in charge of Mrs. H. A. Palmer. A pounding was planned for a needy family. The members had all come dressed as little girls and during the social hour there was much enjoyment of this phase of the meeting. Mrs. H. A. Palmer received most votes for the best costume. The hostesses served block cream and cake.

The class will not meet again until the fall but planned a picnic during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones Entertain Club Members and Husbands.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones were hosts Tuesday evening to the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and their husbands.

Masses of summer flowers filled the rooms where small tables were placed for supper which was served buffet style. The menu consisted of chicken salad, baked ham, stuffed celery, pickle, saltines, potato chips, hot biscuit, hot rolls, iced tea, ice cream and pound cake.

Following, supper rook was in play for several hours. Ladies' prize, a Madeira luncheon cloth, was won by Mrs. L. D. Isenhour and men's prize, a tie, by Carl C. Culbreth. Guest prize, handkerchiefs, went to Miss Louise Maultsby.

In addition to the club members and their husbands guests were Mrs. Parvish and Miss Maultsby. The club will meet next with Mrs. C. H. Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland Honored.
Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holland, whose marriage was recently announced, the members of the force of Ross' 5 and 10 Cent Store gave a weiner roast Wednesday evening. The crowd met at the store where Mr. and Mrs. Holland were given a set of hot noll dishes and later proceeded to Lemon Springs where dancing was enjoyed.

In the late evening weiners were roasted and served with slaw, rolls, sandwiches, iced drinks.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holland, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Clary, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lucas, Misses Rebecca Wright, Edna Cashion, Margaret Hall, Sarah McLeod, Christine Gunter, Ossie Brown, Tommie Lutterloh, Lillias Brown, Doris Lemmonds, Edna Atkins, and Rachel McIntosh.

Miss Julia Chaffin Honored.
With three most attractive honor guests, Miss Julia Chaffin, who will be married during the summer, and Misses Jane Parker, of Macon, and Katherine Moseley, of Warrenton, her house guests, Miss Cornelia Atkins gave a beautiful party Saturday afternoon.

Masses of gladioli, snow balls, roses, and larkspur filled the spacious lower floor of the home. From a beautifully decorated punch bowl Misses Margaret Palmer and Elise Isaacson served refreshing punch to the guests upon their arrival.

Tallies were then passed and five tables of bridge were in play. High score prize, handkerchiefs, was won by Miss Alma Stewart. To Miss Chaffin the hostess gave a hand embroidered luncheon set and to Misses Parker and Moseley dainty handkerchiefs.

Following the games the players were joined by Mrs. W. W. Chaffin and Miss Carrie Howard and all enjoyed a number of beautiful readings by little Miss Gloria Stuart Campbell. The hostess served delicious ice cream and cake, the plates being graced by sprays of sweet peas.

Present were Misses Julia Chaffin, Jane Parker, Katherine Moseley, Alma Stewart, Camille Carroll, Louise Gilliam, Lena Mae Palmer, Lucile Seymour, Barbara Kelly, Bernice Hunt, Margaret and Mary Scott Gurley, Edith Makepeace, Elizabeth and Freda Strong, Emma Van Sant, and Francis Wakefield.

Methodist Auxiliary.
The Woman's Auxiliary of Steele St. Church met Monday afternoon in the ladies' parlor. The meeting was opened with a hymn followed by prayer by Mrs. R. T. Howard.

There was the regular routine of roll call, minutes, and reports, following which a life membership was presented Mrs. L. P. Wilkins by the Auxiliary, the presentation being made by Mrs. D. C. Lawrence.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Circle 3. Mrs. Lawrence told of the work of the church in Brazil and Mrs. T. L. Riddle conducted the worship program, the topic of which was "In Fellowship With Those Through Christ."

Miss Carroll Gives Beautiful Party for Miss Julia Chaffin.

Most beautiful in setting and detail was the party given Thursday afternoon by Miss Camille Carroll honoring Miss Julia Chaffin, popular and charming bride-elect of the summer.

Masses of white flowers and green foliage were used throughout the reception rooms to form a bridal motif of green and white. Attractive bridal tallies were passed by little Miss Evelyn Bowers.

There were five tables of bridge in play and high score prize, a sandwich tray, was won by Miss Bernice Hunt, while low score award, companion pictures, fell to Miss Emma Van Sant. To Miss Chaffin was presented a box of powder. Assisted by Misses Cornelia Atkins, Lucile Seymour, Barbara Kelly, and Maude Brown, the hostess served a salad course, iced tea, and chocolate cake.

To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin played by Miss Carroll, Miss Evelyn Bowers then descend the stairs dressed in an exquisite bridal costume and carrying a bouquet of sweet peas from which beautiful handkerchiefs hung on ribbon streamers, forming a lovely shower for the bride-elect.

Guests at this beautiful affair were Misses Julia and Charlotte Chaffin, Louise and Elizabeth Gilliam, Lucile Seymour, Cornelia Atkins, Barbara Kelly, Mercer Reeves, Leone Seawell, Maude Brown, Charlotte McNair, Edith Makepeace, Elizabeth and Freda Strong, Gertrude Crabtree, Margaret Daniel Reid, Margaret and Mary Scott Gurley, Emma Van Sant, Helen Howard, Elizabeth Dorsett, Pete Hill, and Bernice Hunt.

Miss Johnnie Jones Honored Guest.
With her attractive house guest, Miss Rebecca Marchison, of Rocky Mount, a former Sanford resident, as honoree, Miss Johnnie Jones entertained at five tables of bridge Friday afternoon.

Miss Flora Melver Teague was winner of high score prize, lingerie, and lingerie was also presented to the honor guest. The hostess served a congealed salad course and iced tea.

Those present were Misses Rebecca Marchison, Frances Leach Lashley, Margaret Hatch, Lucy Buchanan, Tommie Lutterloh, Willard Buchanan, Katherine Gunter, Elsie Van Sant, Vera Stewart, Flora Melver Teague, Margaret Hall, Christine Gunter, Margaret Hartness, Frances Gunn, Margaret Miller, Dorothy Hatch, Shaw Rosser, Louise Long, Helen and Lillian Dowd, and Mary John Watson.

Mrs. Campbell Honored.
A charming compliment to Mrs. L. P. Campbell, of Wilmington, who is the guest of relatives in Jonesboro, was the party given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. U. Gunter.

There were two tables of contract in play in a setting of beautiful garden flowers. High score prize, a double deck of cards, was won by Mrs. J. F. Foster. To Mrs. Campbell the hostess presented a beautiful vase.

Mrs. S. L. Long joined the players for refreshments which were served in the dining room at a beautifully arranged table. The menu consisted of stuffed tomatoes, potato chips, sweet pickle peaches, hot rolls, iced tea, and ice box pie with whipped cream.

Guests were Mesdames L. P. Campbell, of Wilmington, J. R. Dalrymple and R. L. Robertson, of Jonesboro, J. F. Foster, C. M. Reeves, W. R. Makepeace, J. G. Forny-Duval, and W. W. Chaffin.

Thursday Bridge Club Has Picnic.

A most delightful outing climaxed the year for the Thursday Bridge Club when the members enjoyed an all-day picnic last Thursday at Dr. Barber's camp on Little River.

Swimming, boating, and occasional rubbers of bridge filled the day with pleasure and at noon a most delicious picnic dinner was enjoyed.

Birthday Party.

Master N. A. Spivey, Jr., of Hawkins Avenue, celebrated his twelfth birthday Thursday, June 14th. After a number of games on the lawn all were invited to the dining room where the decorations of white and pink were most effective. A large cake with twelve candles was the centerpiece. Cake and cream were served to the following who enjoyed the afternoon: N. A. Spivey, Jr., Moody Stroud, Alfred and Champier McNair, Cummins McManus, Stewart McVee, Winston and Chestie Bobbitt, Lelia May Seigmon, Billy Riggsbee, Billy Ferrell, Bonnie Kelly, Willis Dellar, Louise Brewer, Ellen Spivey, Louis Hayman, David Poe, Thelma Craig and Landis Temple. N. A. received a number of nice presents and all had a most delightful time.

The Alice Green Missionary Society held its Bible study class Monday evening at 6:30 in the back of the church. Dr. G. T. Adams made a splendid talk on the Bible which was greatly enjoyed by all present. A picnic supper was then spread on the lawn at the close of the meeting. This was one of the most enjoyable meetings that has been held in a study class.

MISSIONARY PLAY

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Sanford Christian Church will give a missionary play at the Christian Church Sunday evening at 8 p. m. The play is entitled, "Something Big." It is a one act play and will be given by the young ladies of the Missionary Society, assisted by R. Frederick Brown, Jr.

The public is cordially invited to attend this special service.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement. Mrs. Lillie Cooper and family.

Mrs. A. S. Johnson, of Smithfield, is the guest of Sanford relatives.

NOTICE!

Licenses on all businesses, trades and professions which are payable under the City License Tax Ordinance were due JUNE 1st.

PENALTIES ACCRUE AFTER JULY 1.

PAY NOW AND SAVE PENALTY.

WARRANTS WILL ISSUED FOR ALL DELINQUENTS.

HARVEY KENNEDY, Tax Collector.

JUNE SPECIALS!

Full Showing of Summer Goods Now Ready and will be on Display During entire month of June.

YARD GOODS--FIRST FLOOR

- 40" ALL SILK FLAT CREPE, solid colors, and prints, yd. 59c
- ALL SILK PONGEE, Yard 15c
- 80 Square Fast Color PERCALE PRINTS, Yard 16c
- OTHER VOILES and PRINTS, Yard 10 and 15c
- SPECIAL TABLE REMNANTS One-Half Price

MEN'S AND BOYS' DEPT. 1st Floor.

Just a few Spring Suits left. All new Spring Goods. Now is the time to get yours—

- $22.50 SUITS, now $18.50
- $19.50 SUITS, now $16.50
- $17.50 SUITS, now $13.95
- $14.95 SUITS, now $12.50

These prices will not hold but a short time.

Men's Dress
Straw Hats
59c to $1.48

Get Yours Now!

NOTION DEPARTMENT—First Floor
CHILDREN'S SOCKS, 3-4 and Anklets, pr. 10c
New HANDKERCHIEFS, Each 5c to 48c
Boys ANKLETS, Dark and White, pr. 15c-19c

READY-TO-WEAR Dept. Second Floor.

- Extra Special! Ladies' CREPE DRESSES $3.88 Values $2.75
- LITTLE BOYS WASH SUITS 58c-79c-97c
- LADIES PRINCESS SLIPS 39c-68c-97c and up
- Ladies' Sheer PRINT DRESSES 59c Each

702 pieces Men's UNDERWEAR SHIRTS and SHORTS Regular 25c to 50c grades. Just small lots of each, at the very low price of 4 pieces for—
77 Cents
While They Last.

Ollivers-Bell Co.
SANFORD, N. C.

Of special interest to the Young Brides is this lovely pattern—

THE
Louis xiv.

In LOUIS XIV pattern the same delicate ornament appears in every piece of flat silver and the complete matching service—assuring a table ensemble of surpassing beauty.

Dawson's
Jewelry Store,
Fayetteville, N. C.

