

JONESBORO NEWS LETTER

By MRS. J. R. DALRYMPLE

Finals Begin at Jonesboro Friday Evening May 10th.

Rev. W. S. Golden To Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon, 12th.

The first number on the commencement program of the Jonesboro high school will be the Senior play, "The Man From Nowhere," given Friday evening in the school auditorium under the direction of Miss Broadwell.

The following is the cast of characters: Mrs. Craddock, who keeps the board- ing house—Juanita Baker.

Hilda Swenson, her maid—Elizabeth Rives.

Anne Royce, Dora Fry, Prof. Holmes Miss Fran, Boarders: Celeste Hamilton, Nora McDavid, Harry Harkey, Sarah Gay Godfrey.

Mr. Graydon, President of Bank—Edwin Dalrymple.

Henry Holt, who works in bank—Gorman Winstead.

Mr. Cox, who asks questions—Benjo Mann.

Rodney Baxter, the stranger—Loin Helms.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the school auditorium the commencement sermon will be preached by Rev. W. S. Golden, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Carthage.

Following is the program for Sunday: Prelude—Trio, March, Triumphant—Goebels.

Laura Katherine Williamson, Maude Von Cannon, Miss Godfrey.

Processional—The Morn Breaks Fair—Mendelssohn Glee Club.

Hymn—172. Invocation—Rev. J. W. Bradley. Solo—Mrs. W. H. White.

Announcements—Supt. W. A. Stroud. Life's Closing Day—Glee Club.

Sermon—Rev. W. S. Golden. Benediction—Rev. W. S. Golden. Postlude—Mrs. Lacy Smith, Miss Godfrey.

Tuesday night at 8 o'clock Miss Blanche Godfrey's music class will give a musical recital.

Thursday night at 8 o'clock the Senior Class presents the Class Day Exercises under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Abernathy.

Friday night at 8 o'clock the graduating exercises will take place, the address to be made by Dr. D. D. Carroll, Dean of the School of Commerce of the University of N. C.

The public is cordially invited to attend all of these exercises.

Jonesboro Hit By Chain Letter Fever. The chain letter fever has hit Jonesboro, and the send-a-dime-for charity letters are being typed at top speed and sent to friends in many states.

Members of the so-called Prosperity Club in Greensboro, Greenville, Orlando, Fla., and many other places have written to Jonesboro people. So far our Postmaster, Mr. Rosser, states that he has noticed no great increase in mail, but that he is prepared in case there is a rush.

Bridge Club Meets. Miss Dewey Kelly delightfully entertained the members of the Merry Go Round Bridge Club and three additional guests, Misses Frances Roberts, Virginia Cole and Nell Gibbs, Tuesday evening at her home on East Main street.

The living room where three tables were placed for contract was most inviting with its decorations of lovely spring flowers.

During the games a delicious iced drink was served. Mrs. Seth Cox, scoring high, was awarded an attractive flower container; consolation prize, a waste paper basket fell to Miss Vivian Ament. Misses Cole, Gibbs and Roberts guests, were given flasks of Shari perfume.

At the conclusion of the games the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Cadwell, served ice cream and angel food cake.

Those present were Mesdames C. Watson, Albert White, Seth Cox, T. C. Black, Ernest Caddell, Misses Blanche and Myra Godfrey, Vivian Ament, Nell Gibbs and Frances Roberts.

Announce Birth of Son. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoaglin, of Albion, Mich., announce the birth of a son, George William, on Sunday, April 23rd, at Sheldon Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Hoaglin was formerly Miss Zona Rives, of Jonesboro.

Seniors Honored. One of the most delightful affairs given in honor of the Senior Class was that of last Friday evening when Mrs. J. N. Martin and Mrs. W. A. Harkey, grade mothers, and Mrs. Floyd O'Connell, mother of the Senior mascot, entertained at a picnic supper.

The young folks drove to Worthy's Pond where bon fires were built around which many enjoyable games were indulged in. The presence of the Senior mascot, little Miss Gwendolyn O'Connell, added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Later in the evening a delicious picnic supper was served by the hostesses.

Belle Barnes Auxiliary Meets. The regular monthly meeting of the Belle Barnes Auxiliary was held Monday afternoon in the church with a good attendance, the president, Mrs. J. K. Hunt, presiding.

Following the business session during which encouraging reports were heard from each circle, Circle No. 1, with Mrs. J. W. Bradley leader, had charge of a most interesting program on the subject, "The Gospel For All."

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Hunt urged as many as possible to attend the Missionary Conference to be held at Laurinburg on Wednesday.

Class Hostesses. Mrs. L. L. Thomas and Mrs. Preston Cox were joint hostesses to the Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist Church last Thursday evening, entertaining at the home of Mrs. Thomas.

There was an unusually large attendance there being about twenty members present. Following the devotional which was splendidly conducted by Mrs. Arthur Rives, a business session was conducted by Mrs. C. A. Godfrey, president. During this time ways and means of making money were discussed, as plans are being made to aid in the work of painting the church during the summer months.

During the social hour the hostesses served a delicious salad course and an iced drink.

Tuesday Evening Bridge Club Entertained. The Tuesday Evening Bridge Club was delightfully entertained by Miss Eunice Harrington at her home near town.

Lovely spring flowers were used in the living room where three tables were arranged for bridge.

High score table prizes were awarded Miss Jamye Martin, Mrs. W. H. Abernathy and Mrs. Hallie Kelly. Miss Martin and Mrs. Abernathy receiving powder and Mrs. Kelly, pottery. Low scorers were: Miss Elizabeth Thomas, Mrs. Floyd O'Connell and Miss Flora Wyche. To each of these the hostess presented pantry delicacies. During the games delicious fruit punch was served.

At the conclusion of the games block cream and cake was served. Those present were Mrs. Floyd O'Connell, Miss Flora Wyche, Miss Edythe Wyche, Mrs. W. H. Abernathy, Mrs. Hallie Kelly, Miss Jamye Martin, Miss Elizabeth Thomas, Miss Catherine Phillips, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Gleason Yates, Mrs. J. A. Casha, Miss Margaret Gunter.

Mr. and Mrs. McFarland Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle McFarland entertained the deacons and finance committee of the Baptist Church Tuesday evening at their home in a good meeting amid delightful surroundings.

After greetings the guests were shown over the beautiful lawn and flower gardens, beauty met the eye in every nook and corner. The rock garden and pool with its fish and water plants was indeed lovely in design, trellises and shrubbery in the background bringing out the full beauty. A beacon furnished light for the rock garden. Mr. McFarland has owls, Mrs. J. N. Martin and Mrs. W. A. Harkey, grade mothers, and Mrs. Floyd O'Connell, mother of the Senior mascot, entertained at a picnic supper.

The young folks drove to Worthy's Pond where bon fires were built around which many enjoyable games were indulged in. The presence of the Senior mascot, little Miss Gwendolyn O'Connell, added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Later in the evening a delicious picnic supper was served by the hostesses.

Belle Barnes Auxiliary Meets. The regular monthly meeting of the Belle Barnes Auxiliary was held Monday afternoon in the church with a good attendance, the president, Mrs. J. K. Hunt, presiding.

Following the business session during which encouraging reports were heard from each circle, Circle No. 1, with Mrs. J. W. Bradley leader, had charge of a most interesting program on the subject, "The Gospel For All."

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Hunt urged as many as possible to attend the Missionary Conference to be held at Laurinburg on Wednesday.

Class Hostesses. Mrs. L. L. Thomas and Mrs. Preston Cox were joint hostesses to the Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist Church last Thursday evening, entertaining at the home of Mrs. Thomas.

There was an unusually large attendance there being about twenty members present. Following the devotional which was splendidly conducted by Mrs. Arthur Rives, a business session was conducted by Mrs. C. A. Godfrey, president. During this time ways and means of making money were discussed, as plans are being made to aid in the work of painting the church during the summer months.

During the social hour the hostesses served a delicious salad course and an iced drink.

Tuesday Evening Bridge Club Entertained. The Tuesday Evening Bridge Club was delightfully entertained by Miss Eunice Harrington at her home near town.

Lovely spring flowers were used in the living room where three tables were arranged for bridge.

High score table prizes were awarded Miss Jamye Martin, Mrs. W. H. Abernathy and Mrs. Hallie Kelly. Miss Martin and Mrs. Abernathy receiving powder and Mrs. Kelly, pottery. Low scorers were: Miss Elizabeth Thomas, Mrs. Floyd O'Connell and Miss Flora Wyche. To each of these the hostess presented pantry delicacies. During the games delicious fruit punch was served.

At the conclusion of the games block cream and cake was served. Those present were Mrs. Floyd O'Connell, Miss Flora Wyche, Miss Edythe Wyche, Mrs. W. H. Abernathy, Mrs. Hallie Kelly, Miss Jamye Martin, Miss Elizabeth Thomas, Miss Catherine Phillips, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Gleason Yates, Mrs. J. A. Casha, Miss Margaret Gunter.

Mr. and Mrs. McFarland Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle McFarland entertained the deacons and finance committee of the Baptist Church Tuesday evening at their home in a good meeting amid delightful surroundings.

After greetings the guests were shown over the beautiful lawn and flower gardens, beauty met the eye in every nook and corner. The rock garden and pool with its fish and water plants was indeed lovely in design, trellises and shrubbery in the background bringing out the full beauty. A beacon furnished light for the rock garden. Mr. McFarland has owls, Mrs. J. N. Martin and Mrs. W. A. Harkey, grade mothers, and Mrs. Floyd O'Connell, mother of the Senior mascot, entertained at a picnic supper.

The young folks drove to Worthy's Pond where bon fires were built around which many enjoyable games were indulged in. The presence of the Senior mascot, little Miss Gwendolyn O'Connell, added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Later in the evening a delicious picnic supper was served by the hostesses.

Belle Barnes Auxiliary Meets. The regular monthly meeting of the Belle Barnes Auxiliary was held Monday afternoon in the church with a good attendance, the president, Mrs. J. K. Hunt, presiding.

Following the business session during which encouraging reports were heard from each circle, Circle No. 1, with Mrs. J. W. Bradley leader, had charge of a most interesting program on the subject, "The Gospel For All."

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Hunt urged as many as possible to attend the Missionary Conference to be held at Laurinburg on Wednesday.

Class Hostesses. Mrs. L. L. Thomas and Mrs. Preston Cox were joint hostesses to the Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist Church last Thursday evening, entertaining at the home of Mrs. Thomas.

There was an unusually large attendance there being about twenty members present. Following the devotional which was splendidly conducted by Mrs. Arthur Rives, a business session was conducted by Mrs. C. A. Godfrey, president. During this time ways and means of making money were discussed, as plans are being made to aid in the work of painting the church during the summer months.

During the social hour the hostesses served a delicious salad course and an iced drink.

Tuesday Evening Bridge Club Entertained. The Tuesday Evening Bridge Club was delightfully entertained by Miss Eunice Harrington at her home near town.

Lovely spring flowers were used in the living room where three tables were arranged for bridge.

High score table prizes were awarded Miss Jamye Martin, Mrs. W. H. Abernathy and Mrs. Hallie Kelly. Miss Martin and Mrs. Abernathy receiving powder and Mrs. Kelly, pottery. Low scorers were: Miss Elizabeth Thomas, Mrs. Floyd O'Connell and Miss Flora Wyche. To each of these the hostess presented pantry delicacies. During the games delicious fruit punch was served.

At the conclusion of the games block cream and cake was served. Those present were Mrs. Floyd O'Connell, Miss Flora Wyche, Miss Edythe Wyche, Mrs. W. H. Abernathy, Mrs. Hallie Kelly, Miss Jamye Martin, Miss Elizabeth Thomas, Miss Catherine Phillips, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Gleason Yates, Mrs. J. A. Casha, Miss Margaret Gunter.

Mr. and Mrs. McFarland Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle McFarland entertained the deacons and finance committee of the Baptist Church Tuesday evening at their home in a good meeting amid delightful surroundings.

After greetings the guests were shown over the beautiful lawn and flower gardens, beauty met the eye in every nook and corner. The rock garden and pool with its fish and water plants was indeed lovely in design, trellises and shrubbery in the background bringing out the full beauty. A beacon furnished light for the rock garden. Mr. McFarland has owls, Mrs. J. N. Martin and Mrs. W. A. Harkey, grade mothers, and Mrs. Floyd O'Connell, mother of the Senior mascot, entertained at a picnic supper.

The young folks drove to Worthy's Pond where bon fires were built around which many enjoyable games were indulged in. The presence of the Senior mascot, little Miss Gwendolyn O'Connell, added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Later in the evening a delicious picnic supper was served by the hostesses.

Belle Barnes Auxiliary Meets. The regular monthly meeting of the Belle Barnes Auxiliary was held Monday afternoon in the church with a good attendance, the president, Mrs. J. K. Hunt, presiding.

Following the business session during which encouraging reports were heard from each circle, Circle No. 1, with Mrs. J. W. Bradley leader, had charge of a most interesting program on the subject, "The Gospel For All."

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Hunt urged as many as possible to attend the Missionary Conference to be held at Laurinburg on Wednesday.

Class Hostesses. Mrs. L. L. Thomas and Mrs. Preston Cox were joint hostesses to the Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist Church last Thursday evening, entertaining at the home of Mrs. Thomas.

There was an unusually large attendance there being about twenty members present. Following the devotional which was splendidly conducted by Mrs. Arthur Rives, a business session was conducted by Mrs. C. A. Godfrey, president. During this time ways and means of making money were discussed, as plans are being made to aid in the work of painting the church during the summer months.

During the social hour the hostesses served a delicious salad course and an iced drink.

Tuesday Evening Bridge Club Entertained. The Tuesday Evening Bridge Club was delightfully entertained by Miss Eunice Harrington at her home near town.

Summer Piece Goods

WILLIAMS-BELK COMPANY OFFERS An unusual collection of COTTON PIECE GOODS of all weights and textiles for those Hot Summer days. Come in and make your selection. They are easy on the pocketbook.

Seersucker in Plaids, Stripes and Solids, Fast color, 36 inches ..... 39c

Batiste in Plaids, Stripes and pretty floral patterns ..... 19c and 29c

White Cotton Coating in Basket Weaves and new Window Pane Weaves, 54 inches ..... 98c

Wool Coating, white and pastel shades, 54 inches ..... 98c. $1.48. $1.95

Lace Cloth, in Navy, Black and Pastel shades, 36 inches ..... 98c

Eyelet Batiste in Brown, Navy, Pink, light Blue, Yellow, ..... 59c, 79c and 98c yd

Stripes and Checks in Wash Silks, color fast and pre-shrunk, 39 inches, .... 79c and ..... 98c

New lot Silks in light shades and beautiful floral patterns, dots and stripes, 39 inches ..... 69c

WILLIAMS - BELK COMPANY

JONESBORO CIRCUIT Rev. J. W. Bradley, Pastor. Services for Sunday, May 12, 1935. 8 P. M.—Memphis. 8 P. M.—Broadway. The morning service at Broadway will be called off on account of the Commencement sermon.

Marvin Fulton, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Fulton, who is a student at Oak Ridge, is making a splendid record during the summer months. Mr. G. Marvin has been on the honor roll J. Casey is having two apartments every time and expects to finish a houses built on the opposite side of two year course in one and a half Gulf street from his home. Work is in progress. He is a bright young man and being pushed on these structures and it is expected that they will be finished in a few weeks.

COW PEAS-SOY BEANS (PRICED LESS THAN $2 A BUSHEL—BUY EARLY) Unloading this week car Larro Dairy Feed and Turkey Mash; Car Mixed Horse Feeds; Car Shipstuff; Car Choice Timothy Hay. All Reasonably Priced. Smith's Feed Store, "SELLING THE BEST FOR LESS." Chatham Street Sanford, N. C.

Poultry Sale CAR WILL BE ON SEABOARD TRACK Near Passenger Depot. SATURDAY, May 11th FROM 9 A. M. TO 3 P. M. TO RECEIVE POULTRY Poultry will be bought at the following prices: HEAVY HENS, Pound ..... 16c LEGHORN HENS, Pound ..... 14c KOSTERS, Pound ..... 7c DUCKS, Pound ..... 10c GEESE, Pound ..... 8c HEN TURKEYS, Pound ..... 17c TOM TURKEYS, Pound ..... 14c DO NOT Feed chickens on day of sale. DO NOT tie their feet. DO NOT put in sacks. For further information see G. H. Wilkie, Sec. Farmers Mutual Exchange, or E. O. McMAHAN, County Agent, Sanford.

SPECIAL WEEK END ON FANCY FRESH MEATS ROUND STEAK, pound ..... 25c BEEF ROAST, pound ..... 15c PORK ROAST, pound ..... 25c PORK CHOPS, pound ..... 25c FISH (Red Fin Croakers), pound ..... 5c STEW BEEF, pound ..... 10c

Sanford Meat Market Phone 192 Wicker Street

SEE US-- For a complete stock of Wood Shingles, Roll and Composition Shingles, interior and outside Paints, Cement, Lime, Beaver Board and general building materials. A number of our customers have used our finance plan for re-roofing and repairing their homes. Take advantage of this and make the repairs that your home really needs. Lee Hardware Co. SANFORD. N. C.

RELIABLE SEEDS Soy Beans, Velvet Beans, Seed Corn, Millet Seed, Seed Potatoes, Tomato Plants, Onion Sets, Garden and Flower Seed. J. H. Monger, Groceries and Seeds. Phones 52 and 53 Sanford, N. C.