REMINISCENCES

FOR YOUNG VOTERS.

Several Good Reasons, Why You Should Vote the Democratic Ticket. (From State Chronicic.)

There is a generation of voters scarcely appreciate the immense debt either wife or child or mother, sister, carry the election, and there will be of gratitude the people of the State owe to the Democratic party for its his single life and freedom for the McKay, candidate for Congress. manly stand during the days of Reconstruction. And they cannot appreciate it because they were too young to understand the issues of those days. For the benefit of all we beg leave to recall a few facts of indisputable record.

For the first three years of existence of the Radical party brute force was relied upon to accomplish grossest character. It was in 1868 and judge for yourselves, ye young ton Opera House case. its ends, coupled with insult of the that the women of the State were insulted by the advice given in an editorial in the Radical Raleigh Standard to Radical canvassers to throw their arms around them when their husbands were not about: It was in 1868, in a public address issued by Radical members of the Legislature, in their character as legisiators, that the white people were threatened openly with starvation and destruction of their homes from the vengeance of negroes.

It was in 1869 that the Speaker of the Lower House of the Legislature, in open day, with a band of armed men, attacked the editor of the Raleigh Sentinel, alone and unarmed, and that the Radical Governor of the State, in the presence and bench trying the case, declared his and character—to you, ye men, and insults to their mothers twenty years band is neglected or accepted only previous knowledge of the attack and his subsequent approval of all that had been done.

It was in 1869 that the Radical Governor claimed the power to suspend all laws at his pleasure. It was in 1869 the bill was passed under which the State was filled with spies. It was in 1870 that the Shoffner bill was passed empowering the Governor practically to declare they are willing to work for oreaer only by the interference of Judge habit awakens to find its companion North Carolina. It was under that bill that the Holden-Kirk war was else you will hear, did it never occur party had been able to carry out all things for granted—and she is the riages, especially among great men, carried on, and the Radical Governto you, that if you kill their children of its hellish purposes in those days, woman who says, "Oh when I was had resulted from their choosing and then pointing "to the nobles, or asked the Radical Congress to authorize the Radical President to authorize the Radical President to halves cornus. The wint of halves cornus to what would have been our condition to day?

The wint of halves cornus to wint fear? Did it never occur tion to-day?

The wint of halves cornus to wint fear? Did it never occur tion to-day?

The wint of halves cornus to wint fear? Did it never occur tion to-day?

The wint of halves cornus to wint fear? Did it never occur tion to-day? so that men "might be arrested and to you that if you good people maliso that men "might be arrested and tried before military tribunals and tried before military tribunals and have no shelter, they may determine that they shall be arrested and tried before military tribunals and have no shelter, they may determine members, save the State Does the eth to him who knoweth how to womankind man. And if her expensely the state of the state shot," and it was in this same year that you shall have no shelter?"that the Radical Governor declared that if he was "personally menaced W. Stanton and other members. certain leading Democrats and Couservatives, who might be named, to suspend all civil law as it was suswill be instantly put to death."

But thanks to the manhood and courage of the white people of North Carolina, the Radical Goyernor came to great grief-in fact, was driven from office in shame and disgrace.

The age of force passed away, but only to be followed by, the age of aged and partisan ends instead of being accomplished at the end of the the law, so-called. It was in therough accord with the then spirit of the age, therefore, that Indee President and the law or the suspension, by the President and apply for his license at thousand things happened then a thousand the suspension, by the President and apply for his license at thousand the suspension, by the President and apply for his license at thousand the suspension, by the President and apply for his license at thousand the suspension, by the President and apply for his license at thousand the suspension and apply for his license at thousand the suspension and apply for his license at thousand the suspension and apply for his license at thousand the suspension and apply for his license at thousand the suspension and apply for his license at thousand the suspension and apply for his license at thousand the suspension and apply for his license at the suspension and apply for his license at thousand the suspension and apply for his license at the suspension at the suspension and apply for his license at the suspension at the the age, therefore, that Judge Rus-dent, of the writ of habeas corpus sell, in his Opera House obiter dictin certain localities, and if criminals his own bacon, but his boy may go if she will only manage to maintain her to be his wife. She has gaaged them of his bunishment from office of that State. We expect to hear tum, to which he referred to in his recent letter of declination, told the military tribunals and shot, we should be arrested and tried before hups the "checkiest," of all. Docknegroes not to resort to violence, soon have peace and order through- ery studied law in 1848, or therea- as well now as she did then, for her temper, his likes and dislikes or his the capital city. He told them he Boston Post. but to the machinery of the law, to out all this country."-W. W. Hold- bouts (he graduated at Chapel Hill hold is stronger. enforce their rights to go wherever en. white men might go.

the Radical party. After that the Lindsey, who would raise a company teg he left the law to keep from go- going in different sets, meeting at Don't you know, Dollie, how the Vance, of the Radical party of those days resistance he would kill them or they than is to be had in the acts and ut | would be lost and never be heard of mons record made by the Radical party in the days that tried white personally menaced his friends will manded by the farming pepulation. love eachother? I am afraid, my ber 20th.

ens! as we look back to those days, even wounded, it is already deterwe worder how North Carolinians mined that leading Democrats and witheld their hands from punishing Conservatives, who might be named, Bab Discusses the Question, and Says marry unless according to their stasuch creatures. Perhaps, however, will be instantly put to death. The we ought not to wonder, for there Governor's mind is made up."- Ralwas not a man that had the nerve eigh Standard. now in North Carolina that can to pull a trigger, that did not have 1872. "Rally this last time and Don't fail to read a single extract: 1868. "But wherever else you women. * * * Goafter the women. your arms around their necks now people, what the provocation was.

Raleigh Standard.

they are willing to work for bread? court-martial and shot at the stake only slowly and with incredulity that My dear, this is the age of selfish-summate actor, he added three oth which is so sweet to you may be as Brooks. God bless him! Legislative Address, signed by George 1869. "The Governor has power pended in 1865." - W. W. Holden. The Spy Bill was passed in this into the Legislature. In advocating this bill Radical Senator Cook from Johnston county said it ought to passed because if it became a law men

The painting or disguise act was

But stronger proof of the villainy men arrested by him undertook any ver.

men's souls and made white women's resent it and punish the man or men cheeks pale with terror. Great heav- who may do it. If he is slain, or sometimes all of these, depending on no parior and no kitchen."--Neill work don't forget to go among the young white women of North Caro- but an impulsive affection and very * * * And don't hesitate to throw of theirs would be to-day had it not claim all that a lover would give: and then when their husbands are fight the Democrats made against could give, and a certain amount of not around and give them a good the Radicals in the days of Recon- paternal care. I think that while They all like it. * * * Our struction? We ask you to consider all the sins in the decalogue are experience with female rebs is that for a moment only and answer the committed by men, while they are marry, but I forgot to add that he for Cicero" [Rev. W. L. Collins.] with all their sins they have a vast question soberly and truthfully. It aggravating and sometimes weariamount of human nature, and only is not a question to be dodged or some beyond expression, still I must want to have it appreciated to the shirked. Do you not owe it to say that I think if women were most loving creatures imaginable, the Democrats of those days that more wives and less mothers marscalawags and carpet baggars, don't you now have a white man's govern- riage would be often a success. Now, tainly I do. But when Romeo the great actor came to the followfail, therefore as you canvass the ment in North Carolina? Do -you my dear, I do not mean by this that State to look after the women." not owe it to them that negro equal-either the joys or pains of motherity, social and otherwise, was not hood should be shearked; but I do in Verona that the houses should all emphasis, a directness, a significan-"Did it never occur to you, ye forced upon you? Especially let the know that many times, because of gentlemen of education, property young women of to-day think of the the interest in the babies, the husespecially ve women - who never re- ago. Let them think of the terror as a necessary evil. ceived anything from these colored those mothers must have suffered Women themselves are largely people but services, kindness and under threats to burn and murder, creatures of habit, and, once they protection; did it never occur to you that they themselves were happily have drifted into the dangerous sea that these same people, who are so too young to understand and appre- of thoughtlessness, they find before very bad, will not be willing to ciate. Let the young men remem- they know it that their little bark sleep in the cold when your houses berthe Kirk war and how the best marked "husband" has drifted away are denied them merely because they citizens were arrested and thrown and cannot be drawn back. Somewill not vote as you do? That they into prison under martial law and body cleverly said that when passion may not be willing to strive, while saved from being tried by drum-head and habit long lie in company it is sweet to them? Hear us, if nothing Suppose, in a word, the Radical al woman—the woman who takes State owe it no gratitude?

at Reidsville: Colonel Dockery— knowing how. It does nt mean sitone term, but when I found that by your lips parted, looking for the

UNDER DISCUSSION. "IS MARRIAGE A FAILURE?"

that it is.

(From New York Star.)

Marriage, as we know it, means a ing, a year of massderstanding and life miserable. simply horrible so horrible that of color or race, will not be toler- whether they could assimilate, other consideration under the sun stitution and the laws according to important of all, whether they could have stayed it. But see what their true intent and meaning." | wouldn't grow weary, desperately and to worry and work for their that were recited by Esop with so those people said and did in those days Judge D. L. Russell in the Wilming- weary of seeing each other 365 bread and butter! nights in the year. A man has a Now, in all candor, and in all se- right to expect in marriage all that riousness, and in all honesty, too, we friendship could give him and much ask the young white men and the more. Many times he gets nothing lina what sort of a place this home little consideration. A woman should been for the bold, manly, determined all the consideration that a brother > fled, itself alone. This is the gener-From all these evils the Democrat- comes merely from expectation. wait." is as true as the gospel; but This sweet little thing occurred there is a bit of French art in that out all this country."—W. W. Holden.

John Pool proposed to put into bouts (he graduated at Chapel Hill hold is stronger.

The man who said that the perwould be. She has gotton that defended the rights of the people, would be. She has gotton that most valuables of gens, experience, and had heard the plea of the dis zette. Wilkins?" "It was a remark-Till 1870 the military sustained the service a desperado named Mc- join the church, forty long years af- and a woman consisted in their and she is profiting by its possession. tressed and afflicted. Now Gov. able piece of work. One thing about the Radical party. After that the judiciary, "exhausted" as it was, sought to do the wicked work.

But stronger proof of the yillainy

That the law to keep from go-gold with th Wilmington Star: The Acme consfield. He never pretended to in a way, she realizes what men like, and never been recalled from his Manufacturing Company, at the have been desperately in love with and does her best to please and make lamishment by those who "drove" agined. That it was a negro party the man who is the only one then as, that it was violent, lawless. ample of Governor Clayton, of Armalignant, insulting and vengeful, kansas, "who had taken military polit stands convicted out of its own session of disaffected counties tried in the sessio t stands convicted out of its own session of disaffected counties tried and executed large numbers of men and executed large numbers of men and executed large numbers of men by military court." R. C. Radger's no white man, especially let by military court. R. C. Radger's no white woman, fail to read the sworn testimony before Congression-following extracts from the infa- al Committee.

Wance has written that he will try grew into a great love, and I think and executed large numbers of men darker extracts. The word is a suitable for each other extracts and their extracts of the word is a suitable for each other extracts and the will try be suitable for each other extracts and is a suitable for each other extracts and Dolly, that I do. We have seen very much more good than evil result from so-called love matches. I do not believe people ought to tion in life, the proper amount of money is arranged for, the unborn children looked after, and care taken rapturous six months of love-mak- that lack of money will not make disappointment, and then a somber can live happily if they have to wor- eigh in $876, on the day of the nomhence leaving loved ones to battle from resorting to a public place be, would occupy a little more time gel be believed her as persistent calls ay chat to take up the references to with the world at any time, but in whose doors are open to all but them in the two people trying to find out by a collector for her milliner's or Cicero and Esop and give it a dirdays like those that thought was and denied to them only on account whether they had tastes incommon, dressmaker's bills. It all sounds ection not probably anticipated. It very mercenary; but just think-if may serve to refresh our classical doubtless it withheld many an arm ated by any court honestly and sin- whether if one lost his temper the this were done, how few women readers and not be devoid of enterfrom righteous vengeance, when no cerely desirous of upholding the Con- other could control hers, and, most would be forced out into the world tainment to readers generally. We did not need to use the best brandy, depth of their natures. nor did he realize the cost of the "Who with a constant mind upheld the finest eigars. It is all very will to talk about poverty being glorious and elevating. It may be-but nobody likes it and nobody wants it, and after three, six or twelve months of married life the man who realizes never been propagated. Selfish? ity of genius and the art of a con-

In one of the English papers some character in the play. one said that most of the happy mar- Best of all friends in direct strait of A woman who has once been married rows before him;" his own voice womankind -man. And if her ex- wrung his heart as he thought of the perience has not taught her how to banished and wronged Cicero, his make life smoother, then she isn't pupil and friend, he exclaimedworthy of enjoying what Punch And you-you let him live a banished "I did study law at Judge Battle's ting with your hands folded and calls "the bliss of widowhood." Matone term, but when I found that by pursuing the law I would go to hell, It means watching the cherry till it can control her temper better, and replication of a passage that applied I left it Judge Fowle—"My opponent left the law and became the is ready to fall and then catching it, knows how to keep well oiled the rendering of a passage that applied his sovereignty under his own hat. most expert politician of his party, is not bruised in the tamble. First wheels of the house-hold, so that so pointedly to all, swept over the Phil Times. Some people may not think that he of all, the average married woman they run smoothly. She does not audience like electricity -they broke Yet there is something purer, brighter increased his chances for Heaven by sees too much of her husband, next, worry out the life of a man by ask- out into the wildest applause, whilst going from the law to polities. But she does not have a sufficient num- ing him if she is the first woman he tears of sympathy for the exiled Rohowever that may be, in his magnarimity, although he himself has avoided the path which he aversteads how it is that she interested him beavoided the path which he aversteads how it is that she interested him beover her unknown rivals. She takes And now, as the preachers would to hell, he has, I have been informed, fore marriage and that she does not it for granted that he has loved sev- say, a few words by way of applicain October. He thinks he has saved that she could tell him about, and, her or also he wouldn't have a ball very large and addressed the a man who makes ether for his small weaknesses, as a young girl had maintained justice, upheld and success; and this man was Lord Ba- make a good wife? It is because.

WELL APPLIED.

FOWLE.

A Classical Reference Directed to Two North Carolinians. (From Wilmington Star)

to fight with men the battle of life reproduce in translation the lines dramatic power, and the occasion There is a type of man that never Cicero, you will remember, had ought to marry. This is, the man never justly been banished. He had whose income is large for a bachelor been an exile for more than a year who enjoys the theaters, the races, when the Senate one day discussing did not want Captain Settle to govthe little suppers and dinners, his his return. On that day Æsop was clubs, his purple and fine linen, and performing the leading character in the society of women. As he is, his Andromache. He was very partial income gives him every pleasure, to the distinguished exile, for he had Once married, that income would trained him to elocution. "With have to be divided by two, and with- all the force of his consummate art in six months that marriage will be he threw into Andromache's lament a failure. I say he should never for absent father his own feeling may make matrimony a grand suc- The time, the place, the play, the cess if his bride is, as she should be, very words were highly fitting. As a rich woman. Don't I think there the auditors sat intently watching wood Juliet it was not demanded ing words he uttered them with an Colonel Dockery, had been in close have modern improvements. Lin-cy, that seized the multitude and of Reconstruction's dark days and gerie was not so costly, and Romeo stirred them to the profoundest they meant to see that at least justice

Stood on the peeple's side in perilous

Ne'er wrecked of his own life, nor spared himself." --- Collin's Translation.

He was applauded to the echo. that he has to deny himself a luxu- loud cheers went up, he was made ry because of this charming rosebud to repeat the applauded passage on begins to wish the rose trees had the instant, when, with the versatiler lines that belong to another and merciful ministrations, was not forgotten by the people, for he was CICERO AND ÆSOP, VANCE AND elected over Settle by over 13,000 majority. The people of North Carolina showed that they were not insensible to worth or ungrateful for great services so faithfully rendered. They remembered with high satisfaction what Governor Vance did Some weeks ago in our impres-Very few people sions of Judge Fowle's speech in Ral- in "perilous times" and "direst strait of war"-how he withstood the milsetting down into accepting the inev- ry about bills all the time, and ination of Gov. Vance, we made at tary when they threatened to throtitable and making the best of it. nothing will so quickly convince the close a classical reference. It the the civil authorities, how he mainthey were. It is bad enough to go person or class may be prevented Marriage, as it might be, as it should monsieur that madam is not the an- will be in order now in this litera- tained his honor and his manhood under every trial, vicisitude, temptation and assault they demanded, in a voice like that of the tempest when it will not be still, that Zebulon B. Vance be at once recalled from his enforced banishment. It was done after a very severe contest. Judge Settle showed high qualities as a debator, and with a desperate cause he made a desperate fight. Settle is game looking, good looking, a man of ability, no doubt. But the people ern. They knew his record.

all Lilran

They know he was like Colonel Dockery, indentified with the bread and butter bummers and the bungdrivers and revenue-stampers of the mountain, who so oppressed and outraged the people by their severities and abuses of law and privileges. They knew that he was the very special friend of Grant, who in turn was the devoted champion and friend of Belknap, Robeson, and some thousands of the national blood-suckers. They know how the captain, like association with the bayonet fellows was done and that Vance was recalled. They did this and North Carolina stood forth, "redeemed, regen erated and disenthrailed." The people called and Vance, like a true son, answered. In November the people will call to the high office of Chief Executive the very man who in June, 1876, before the National Hotel, pronounced that eloquent and magnetic speech on Vance's nomination. Judge Jowle will be elected, we must hope, by a larger majority even than Vance received. If the Democrats do their duty and work faithfully until the 6th of November and then all turn out and go to the polls and vote, the majority of Judge Fowle will not be less than 20,000. But to bring this desired end about you must labor and or-

ONE MINUTE OF FUN.

Dr. Tanner's theory that many persons are annually buried alive is fully shared by candidates on both sides.—Phil. Times.

There's a premium still placed on the head of the man who carries

Than all the spheres that circle through the skies, That makes my heart vibrate and sweetly thrill;

It is a pair or soft, entrancing eyes. -Louis M. Frice.

An Iowa judge has decided that

A frank criticism: "What do it I thought was peculiarly wonder-

-Greensboro Patriot: The many friends of Col. W. S. Rankin, of this city, will regret to learn that he is dangerously ill at his residence on Church street, and that very little hope is entertained for his recovery. On and after next Monday the