The Feminary Collective

is looking for lesbians to take over the magazine. We are particularly interested in a multi-cultural/racial/class group. We have grant money, a subscription list and other materials that we can pass on to help make the next issue possible. Feminary has existed as a publication since 1969. It has gone through many changes and has been able to survive them and grow. If you are interested in continuing the magazine, contact us at: Feminary, P.O. Box 11648, Durham, NC 27503. If we don't hear from you by January 21, 1984, Feminary will end. We hope to hear from you soon. (22)

Colonial Connecticut required unmarried men to obtain legal permission to live alone, without it, they were subject to a fine of one pound a week. (23)

Silently I love you Tho I don't speak it tho I don't show it I still love you. Tho I don't touch you tho I don't kiss you I still love you. Silently I love you Douglas H. Adams dedicated to Hans whom I will always love. (22)

DLR, if but once in her lifetime, she finds a mind in tune with hers, a heart that feels the same as hers, a life existing only for her, then she will have found that which I live for and with you, true and honest love. WE met here 8 months ago, from there I have seen love grow, feelings become stronger and a bonding I have never felt with another. Temptation has played its part, it failed, we won. Obstacles have led the way, but they fell, we still stand. Through all, I have laid my foundation with you, let me build a home with our love. I love you and am hoping to spend the rest of my life loving you. FCB (22)

Isn't it funny, how a bear likes honey? Buzz, buzz, buzz. I wonder why he does! Remember that night? I like it in my ear too. Dancing Bears forever, Curt. (22)

Please Respond

We met in the game room at Tags, Saturday, November 4. You said you were from Greensboro, and you would come back. I was with someone else, and could not respond then, much as I would have liked to. Too many have passed by, and I thought you could be very special. Maybe you were just being cordial, and especially nice. Please call if you recognize the occasion, and are interested. 704-372-8564 (22)

To all the girls of the Triangle Area: It has been brought to my attention that there has been a rumor running rampant in this area as to the state of my physical health. I would like to thank each and every one of you for your concern about my well being. Happily, I am pleased to inform all of you that the rumors of my imminent demise were very much exaggerated. If you have any questions concerning my health, feel free to come and discuss it with me, rather than with your neighbor. Leon, Chapel Hill. (23)

To my prince, Turkey wasn't the only thing to be thankful for at Thanksgiving. Thanks for all the love and understanding that it takes to put up with me. I'm impatiently awaiting our first Christmas together and our special New Year's celebration. Until then... Love always, Greg (23)

Don't see your ad? Did you remember to enclose a release form? No ad will be printed without a signed release. You'll find the form on the first page of this section. Did you include a phone number in your ad, but forget to enclose the $1 phone verification charge? That may be why you don't see your ad. Did you request a box number & forwarding, but forget to enclose the $5 charged for this service? That would explain your ad's absence. If you didn't get a reply from the Front Page boxholder you wrote to, you may have forgotten to enclose an extra envelope and stamp. Enclose your letter in an envelope containing a 20¢ stamp and the TFP box number. Put the envelope in a second one addressed to The Front Page, P.O. Box 25642, Raleigh, N.C. 27611. (23)

If the ad you're answering has a town and a zip code listed after the box number, then you can send it directly, and not to us for forwarding. It's not a Front Page box number unless it says "Box _____ Front Page." Non-commercial personal ads are free, with the exception of telephone verification or box number service, and each ad appears for two issues. (23)
