

by parting what is left just above the ear and pulling twenty significant (and unbelievably long) strands over the top of our head. If we buy a rug, we will buy one that does not differ from the color of the rest of our hair and one that does not take on a purple glow in the lights of a disco.

We are to ad-ers as the child in the crowd is to the emperor with no clothes. With that in mind... We've answered a few ads; we've placed a few ads. In our ad-life infancy, we were almost always disappointed. We attributed this to our inability to merge the ad-er's self-image, writing style, and presentation with our perceptions and needs. We have compared what these people said they were like with how we perceived them. We can now pick 'em and skip 'em with ease.

What we are about to chisel in stone, therefore, is based totally on our experience. Heaven forbid that we might come off as the critical bitch that we are.

First, and most important, what did they leave out? Hair color? Gray, or none. Weight? Laurel or Hardy. Height? De plane, de plane, boss. Age? 40 plus or jail bait.

Professional in the health field? Tricky devils. Never a doctor, dentist or psychiatrist. Try health claims processor or someone who wheels patients to and from rooms. (We swear on a stack of Calvin Klein underwear package inserts.)

Enjoys a quiet evening at home? Ashamed to be seen with another man in public. They live in one pair of jeans with flannel shirts and/or T-shirts. The closest they come to eating in a restaurant is take-out food, which must be home deliverable. VCR ownership and cable TV with premium channels are de rigueur.

Well-hung? Isn't everyone? We'll decide. We insist on four readings using a metal tape (warmed to body temperature) and always measuring from the base of the pubic bone: 1) flaccid, resting and unexcited (this indicates general visual appeal); 2) immediately upon rising in the morning and before urinating (this indicates general physiological functionality); 3&4) excited with and without prostate stimulation (this indicates whether we use our hands to hold on or if we are going to have to use them elsewhere).

Likes to travel? If we arrange it and pay for it. These people have no need for travel agents. They have the capacity to store enormous amounts of numeric data. They can quote, on demand, prices and schedules from airline data banks. They live for Sundays so they can spend the day memorizing information in the travel section of the newspaper. They are waiting for the orgasmic travel deal of a life time which never seems to come until we whip out our gold card.

Scintillating conversationalist? We will not get a word in edgewise. They like the sound of their own voices. They don't believe anything unless they saw it on Entertainment Tonight or read it in People.

Likes sports, sports-minded? Never a participant, always the enthusiast and couch potato. They keep up with all the scores and rankings. Eyes are red from sitting close to the TV, glued to the 24 hour sports channel. These people can never go anywhere because there is always "the game of all time" coming on TV.

Athletic (yet over 35)? Oh, they left out "used to be." These people are almost always suffering from trick knees, bad backs, old shoulder injuries. These ailments almost always impact pelvic thrust and creative positioning. We darken these ads with heavy black markers so that in a moment of weakness we cannot answer them conveniently.

Straight-acting and -appearing? Well, we don't see those anymore, do we? That's because it only meant the person did not cross-dress (in public) and was not on pre-operative hormones. Enjoy!

FORTUNES BY TYCHO

ARIES (March 21 — April 20) The battle with any real and imaginary demons can be won quite simply. Let them go. Wave goodbye. Arrivederci. Farewell. It's as easy as get attached to negative forces as it is to positive ones. Get it over with.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 20) When someone says "jump" don't ask how far. Tell them to jump along with you. Doing it together is the name of the June song. And a rather dominating partner will enjoy this new melody of love.

GEMINI (May 21 — June 21) You've got the whole world in your hands. Consider the possibilities. Your present, thoughtful, intuitive, expansive, loving nature makes you the man or woman of the month. Learn from this special, positive phase. Let it alter the direction of your life.

CANCER (June 22 — July 22) Listen. Don't judge, or appraise, or recommend. Just listen. Someone close to you needs to tell you something. You may have to hear between the lines to learn what it is that they're trying to tell you.

LEO (July 23 — August 22) See what tomorrow brings. An event in your present, daily life forces you to take a close and careful look at what the future offers and how you can affect that offering. The third through the sixth of the month bring great emotional satisfaction.

VIRGO (August 23 — September 22) No matter how shy and retiring you may be (and few Virgoes are, to any great degree), you're going to have to be very aggressive. This situation involving your proper place in the scheme of things cries out for action.

LIBRA (September 23 — October 22) "Get your coat and grab your hat. Leave your worries on the doorstep." Get out of town. See what some previously unseen part of the world has to offer. Take time out from the rat race. "on the sunny side of the street."

SCORPIO (October 23 — November 21) Many Scorpios are now experiencing a genuinely profound change in their lives. The future is elsewhere. What rings various Scorpios into the present varies, but here is where you are. You're too much, in a wonderful way.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 — December 21) Decisions, decisions. Aren't you truly glad and thankful that one close to you is right there to help with both the essentials and the details. Any ambivalence about asking for what you need should be squelched.

CAPRICORN (December 22 — January 19) A Taurus could tell you what you want to hear, a Cancer challenge you in an interesting way, and a Scorpio could move you, really move you. All sorts of people are affecting your life in all sorts of ways. Fascination.

AQUARIUS (January 20 — February 18) Be playful. Be sporting. BE young, no matter what age you are. It's in the sign of the water bearer that June is really busting out all over. Your games could be mental or physical, or better yet, both.

PISCES (February 19 — March 20) Your private, personal, and inner life is quite different from your public, out in the world life. Bringing the two you's together in a new kind of way could prove to be one of the best things you do all year. Take a chance.

Tired of head games and being emotionally toyed with. Interested include sports, dancing, reading, writing poetry, romantic dinners, and quiet times. Social drinker, no drugs. If interested, write: Miss S., 2216 Panola St., Tarboro, NC 27886. All letters with photo answered. (1375)
