Wartime Activities Stressed At Sparta School This Year

80 TO GRADUATE IN ALLEGHANY CO.

Glade Valley High School will tonight present a musical recital, continuing the commencement exercises which began last Saturday night with the presentation of the school play. Mrs. John Guarrant will direct the recital which begins at 8:30.

The baccalaureate sermon was delivered last Sunday morning by Rev. Dan D. Rhodes, former instructor in the school, now a student of Louisville Presbyterian Seminary, of Louisville, Ky. He also addressed the Young People's League, Sunday night.

Friday morning at 11:00, graduation exercises will be held, at which time 16 seniors will receive their diplomas. The literary address will be made at this time by Rev. J. W. Witherspoon, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Lexington, N. C.

Piney Creek high school will hold its graduation exercises Friday night at eight o'clock, with Prof. S. J. Wood, of the English department of A. S. T. C., delivering the literary address. The senior play was given last Saturday night, and the baccalaureate sermon delivered on Sunday morning by Rev. W. M. Smith, of Elkin.

NEW HOPE CLUB HELD MEETING

The New Hope demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. Dan Jones, last Wednesday, April 14.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Jones. After a brief business session, a very interesting demonstration on house cleaning was given by Miss Rose E. Bryan.

There were five members present, with three visitors. They were Mrs. R. D. Richardson, Mrs. Arol Choate and Mrs. Champ Duncan.

Mrs. Mary Anderson Hagerman, 75, died at her home at Mouth of Wilson, April 20, and will be buried at Potato Creek, Friday morning. Mrs. Hagerman had been ill for some time. Her daughters, Mrs. Ira Hagerman and Mrs. Virgie Myers, were with their mother at the time of her death.

WAR BOND DRIVE HAS FINE RESPONSE IN CO.

(Continued from Page One) The war effort is cited by Mr. Thompson, who points out that a $500 bond will serve to buy 12,000 yards of barbed wire, 25,000 cartridges of .45 calibre, 100 aeronautic first aid kits, three parachutes, 50 tents, one motor trailer, 24,000 bandages, 500 entrenching shovels, or 100 life rings.

An $18.75 war bond will supply a Navy fier with a fur-lined flying jacket; a $75 Series E bond will purchase a .30 calibre semi-automatic rifle for a Marine, and supply him with a gas mask.

Four series E bonds, costing a total of $300, will supply the Navy with a balsa wood life boat, capable of sustaining 60 persons.

POINTS LOWERED ON SOUP, FROZEN FOODS

4. Frozen fruit juices in containers of less than two pounds are four points and frozen fruits and vegetables in such containers are six points. Again, OPA did not make clear whether this constituted a reduction.

5. All canned and bottled soups were cut from eight to six points, except tomato soup, which was cut to four points a pound. The values are the same for both household and commercial container sizes.

6. The value of dried and dehydrated soups was cut in half. In addition, OPA reduced the number of weight classifications
