OUR SOLDIER BOYS

Our soldiers are fighting with all their might,

To help win a big fight. It was on a starry night, When this war came in sight.

If we Americans do our part, It will give us glory in our heart.

Then if we shouldn't win, It might be on account of sin.

Then how the Japs and Germans grin,

And have rule over all therein. But if we do lose, There is a place we can choose.

A home in Heaven where we can have peace, Where joy there never more will cease.

By Neva Stewart.

Obituary

MRS. K. M. ESTEP

A sweet, useful life terminated its earthly career on the morning of June the fifteenth, when Mrs. K. M. Estep passed to her heavenly reward from the home at 1123 East Tenth Avenue, Hickory. Her going was as peaceful and quiet as the calm of her life. For more than a year she had been in declining health, and her condition had been critical for several months. Beautiful in her patience, dauntless in her courage, and never wavering in her faith, she, unmindful of her own affliction, kept an abiding interest of her neighbors and friends till the end.

On December 26, 1926, Kemp M. Estep and Miss Ferol Wagoner were happily married, and never were there a more congenial couple. To this union were born three children: Eldon, Roger and Jerry Estep. Mrs. Estep is survived by the husband; these three sons; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wagoner, of Sparta; five sisters, Mrs. D. P. Kellon, of Gap, Pa.; Mrs. G. R. Smith, of Farmville, N. C.; Mrs. Vera Edwards, of Sparta; Miss Doris Wagoner, of Sparta; and Mrs. W. B. Edwards, of Parkesburg, Pa.; seven brothers, Frank Wagoner, of Hockessin, Del.; Sgt. E. B. Wagoner, of the U. S. Army; John E. Wagoner, of Winston-Salem; Orrin Wagoner, and Bennie Wagoner, of Watsonville, Cal.; Howard Wagoner, of Sparta; and Bruce Wagoner, of Glade Valley, N. C.

Mrs. Estep was born in Alleghany county, North Carolina, March 10, 1908. She was baptized in 1925 into the fellowship of the Baptist church of Sparta, N. C. The family has lived in several North Carolina towns, following the directions of the company which employed the husband. Everywhere they have lived, Mrs. Estep has been interested in her church. She was especially active in the First Baptist church of Lenoir, and more recently in the Highland Baptist church of Hickory, where her husband is an honored deacon. Mrs. Estep was capable, consecrated and withal so cheerful and willing. Her role as housekeeper, wife and mother was unsurpassed.

A brief funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. F. Sullivan, at the Highland Baptist church. This was followed by a further service at the Sparta Baptist church, in which Rev. Mr. Sullivan was assisted by Rev. G. R. Blackburn, of Whitehead, N. C. Surrounded by a great host of relatives and friends, the remains were finally laid away in the Estep plot in the beautiful cemetery of Liberty Baptist Church, a few miles out of Sparta. There, under a bank of gorgeous flowers, her body was left to await the summons of the resurrection.

United States life insurance policyholders are this year putting about $3,200,000,000 more into life insurance premiums than they did in 1917, an indication of the greater force exerted by life insurance in this war in the fight on inflation.

If Hitler wins, the issue for you will be living itself and not just the cost of living. Think that over and figure it out for yourself how much beyond 10 percent of your family income you should put into War Bonds every payday.
