Japanese airfields on Kyushu on Tuesday and Wednesday as the air war against Japan swung into a climatic phase after a month of unceasing blows which have destroyed or damaged more than 2,813 enemy planes.

The Superforts struck at the source of enemy suicide planes attacking fleet units off Okinawa, following two fire raids on Tokyo within 72 hours. Those fire assaults burned out 8.1 square miles of Tokyo and Kawasaki—raising to more than 52 square miles the total area wiped out in four of Japan's greatest cities

Slaves Freed From Bondage

A long line of liberated civilians, who were used as slave laborers in Germany, are shown as they wait for food at a displaced persons center, shortly after their arrival. Among them are Poles, Frenchmen, Russians, Belgians and Czechs. They were freed by the advancing Allied forces.

Doughton Happy His District Is To Get Hospital

Washington — The $4,500,000 neuropsychiatric veterans hospital at Salisbury, N. C., will be "the beginning of a tremendous hospital development in that area," predicts John Slear, secretary to Representative R. L. Doughton.

Slear disclosed the hospital building of the 900-bed institution will be on one side of the Southern railway tracks and farming facilities for recuperating patients on the other.

The 411-acre site is partially within the city limits, Doughton's secretary said, and include the 73-acre park golf course and swimming pool donated by the American Legion to the veterans administration.

Doughton, dean of North Carolina congressmen, is in the state. He telephoned his office here he was "very pleased to have this hospital in my district."

Doughton's aides stated that all communities of the vicinity worked to get the hospital placed in Salisbury.

Veterans' administration officials said it would be at least six months before plans for the hospital are completed and specifications approved to let contracts for building.

A Gold Star Is Added to our list of noble dead

Franklin Delano Roosevelt

Our Great Commander in Chief, has joined the ranks of those who have given their lives so that the Four Freedoms shall not perish from the earth. With his passing America has lost a great leader, a great statesman and a good and true friend.

The President Is Dead - - but his spirit will live forever in the hearts of his fellowmen.

Economic Bill of Rights

We have accepted, so to speak, a second bill of rights under which a new basis of security and prosperity can be established for all, regardless of station, race or creed. Among these are:

The right to a useful and remunerative job in the industries or shops or farms or mines of the nation.

The right of every farmer to raise and sell his products at a return which will give him and his family a decent living.

The right of every business man, large and small, to trade in an atmosphere of freedom from unfair competition and domination by monopolies at home or abroad.

The right of every family to a decent home.

The right to adequate medical care and the opportunity to achieve and enjoy good health.

The right to adequate protection from the economic fears of old age, sickness, accident and unemployment.

The right to a good education. — Message to Congress, Jan. 11, 1944.

Liberty's Meaning

I am not for a return to that definition of liberty under which for many years a free people were being gradually regimented into the service of the privileged few. I prefer and I am sure you prefer that broader definition of liberty under which we are moving forward to greater freedom, to greater security for the average man than he has ever known before in the history of America — Fireside Chat, Sept. 30, 1943.
