For Victory and Peace We Give Humble Thanks

Japan, and all the evil for which it has stood, has fallen.

Once again the Dove of Peace hovers over the war-torn fields of Asia.

It is a day in which we should give humble thanks to an all-wise God who has upheld the arms of our fighting men and guided them to Victory over evil and oppression.

It is a day in which to honor the living, and to forever enshrine in the heart of the nation, the memory of those men who have died that we might be free.
