Miss Bryan, Mr. Edwards Are Wed

Popular Young Couple Exchange Vows At West Jefferson, Sunday Night

Miss Georgia Mabel Bryan, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt T. Bryan, of Glade Valley, became the bride of Ernest E. Edwards, Alleghany county Register of Deeds, in a ceremony performed at the Methodist parsonage at West Jefferson, last Sunday night, with the Rev. John Jordan, pastor, officiating, using the ring ceremony.

For her nuptials, the bride chose a dress of powder blue wool fashioned with a peplum featuring blue rhinestone buttons, long sleeves and a high neckline. She wore black accessories.

Mrs. Edwards was graduated from Glade Valley high school with the class of '40, and attended ASTC, Boone, and Geyer's Business College, Charlotte. For the past two years she has been employed by the FBI in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Edwards, of Sparta, is a graduate of Sparta high school with the class of '37, and Droughon's Business College in Winston-Salem. Before his entrance into the army in 1942, he served as Register of Deeds, filling the unexpired term of Tom Gambill. He spent three years in military service overseas and was recently discharged.

The couple plan to make their home with the groom's parents for the present.

Estep - Conway

Mrs. Irene Spencer Conway and Kemp Maurice Estep were married Saturday, November 3, at high noon in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Spencer, of Lenoir, with the Rev. Dr. O. R. Mangum, pastor of the bride, officiating.

Mr. Estep, son of Mrs. Bess C. Estep, of Sparta, and the late Wilborn B. Estep, is employed by the Standard Oil Company at Hickory. He formerly made his home in Sparta.

Following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was given by the bride's parents, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. They will make their home at Lenoir.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's mother; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Richardson, of Whitehead; Mr. and Mrs. William Nebel, of Charlotte; and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crawford, of Boone.

The Glade Valley high school faculty gave a review on the book, "These Moving Times," which took the place of the regular program.

Mrs. Edwards served a salad course and coffee to twelve members and visitors.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Rush Thompson when the program theme will be, "Behold The Hand Maid of the Lord."

Crouse - Delp Vows Exchanged

Miss Laura Delp, daughter of F. S. Delp and the late Mrs. Delp, of Piney Creek, became the bride of Ray Crouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Crouse, of Elkton, Md., and formerly of Alleghany county, on Saturday afternoon, November 10, at three o'clock, in a ceremony at the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. E. B. Barton, officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The bride was dressed in royal blue with white and black accessories. Mrs. Edith Trimble, of Wilmington, Delaware, who served as bridesmaid, wore yellow with brown accessories.

Hoke Crouse served as his brother's best man.

Mrs. Crouse is a graduate of Piney Creek high school and for the past three years has been employed in a defense plant in Maryland. The groom is a graduate of Calvert high school, Calvert, Md.

Following a brief stay with relatives and friends here, the couple returned to Elkton, Md., where they plan to make their home.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hammer, Delmar Farmer and Hoke Crouse, all of Elkton, Md.

Rector - Whitaker

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mary Lou Whitaker, Winston-Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eck Whitaker, of Sparta, to Ray Rector, son of Mr. and Mrs. Letcher Rector, of Sparta, on Friday, November 9, at the Methodist parsonage here with the Rev. C. R. Allison, pastor, officiating.

The bride has made her home in Winston-Salem for the past several years where she has been employed.

Mr. Rector, who recently received his discharge from military service, spent 16 months overseas in the European theater of operations, where he was a member of an ordnance company. He wears four battle stars. He attended Sparta high school.

The couple left immediately after their wedding for Akron, Ohio, where they will make their home. Mr. Rector is employed there by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company.

WAR BONDS will guard against a post-war depression.
