Bride Of Recent Date

MRS. DOUGHTON L. PERRY, who before her recent marriage was Miss Jessie Gwyn Woodruff, daughter of Mrs. Guy Woodruff, of Sparta.

Woodruff-Perry Wedding Told

An announcement of interest this week is that of the marriage of Miss Jessie Gwyn Woodruff to Doughton L. Perry, both of Sparta. The ceremony was performed at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. C. B. Kilby, pastor of the Sparta Primitive Baptist church, on Saturday, October 12. Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Duncan and Miss Lucile Perry and Clayton Edwards were the only witnesses.

The bride was attired in a dress of white wool jersey with which she wore black accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of red rosebuds.

Mrs. Perry is the daughter of Mrs. Guy Woodruff. She received her high school education at the Sparta high school and after her graduation there attended Draughons Business college in Winston-Salem. For the past three years she has been connected with the Northwestern Bank, of Sparta.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Perry. Like his bride, he attended Sparta high school and was recently released from the United States army with which he had served for almost four years. Three of those years were spent in overseas duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry will make their home in Blowing Rock where Mr. Perry is manager of the Smithey's Store.

Carico-Choate Wedding Event Of October 19

Miss Edith Irene Carico, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett M. Carico, of Galax, became the bride of Harold Leslie Choate, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Choate, of Baywood, in a double ring ceremony which took place Saturday, October 19, at 7 o'clock in the First Methodist church at Galax. The Rev. W. Kyle Cregger officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street dress of bridal blue jersey with black accessories. She carried a white prayer book, topped with gardenias.

Miss Mabel Davis, of Winston-Salem, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a two-piece pink dress with black accessories and carried a colonial bouquet.

Charles Choate served as best man for his brother and ushers were Richard Carico and Paul Stewart.

The altar was decorated with tall baskets of white chrysanthemums with candelabra in graduated effect.

Preceding the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Frances Truitt, also a cousin of the bride, with Miss Judy Taylor as soloist. Miss Taylor sang "Tell Me Why" and "I Love You Truly."

Relatives and close friends were present for the ceremony which was followed immediately by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home in Roanoke, Va., where the bridegroom is attending National Business college.

Miss Petty Weds Mr. B. Crouse

In a quiet but impressive ceremony, Miss Grace Petty, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Petty, of Laurel Springs, became the bride of Bradie Crouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Crouse, of Sparta, at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday afternoon, October 19. The ceremony was performed at six o'clock with the Elder Mack Dowell officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

Attending the wedding were

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brooks, Mrs. Glenn Brinegar, and Elder John Tolliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Crouse plan to make their home near Sparta where the bridegroom has been a successful farmer for the past few years.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Parma Wilmoth announce the birth of a daughter on October 12 at the Martin Memorial hospital at Mt. Airy. Young Miss Wilmoth has been given the name of Janet Ann.

Mrs. Wilmoth is the former Miss Alfogene Carpenter.
