Book Week

For Book Week, our library sported an added feature. The display included synopses of books by Gertrude Atherton and Frances Perkins. Attractively covered books carried out the theme of Book Week, "Books and Bridges." Also a scrapbook entitled "Men Who Served in the Armed Forces" was featured.

This and That

Well folks! We are back and truly happy to be here. Some of these items you will read in this column may not be true, some may be exaggerated, but mark my words, many of them are facts.

Since I never have time to eat breakfast at home before the "break of dawn bus" comes down West Bledsoe Blvd., I would like for someone to bring me a boiled egg each morning. Billie Rich.

We have proof that something is about to happen. Here it is: an ex-sailor is making an ironing board in the shop. It is the exact height for her. W. A. T. iron his clothes sick!

G. G., the gal's sweetheart, surely caught their eyes in that little red hockey cap he was wearing the other day.

Wanted: five good referees who can take everlasting beating and tongue-slashing to call girl's basketball. Main restriction—must have at least four good pairs of eyes.

Chilluns, if you haven't you must look on A. B. P.'s ring finger of the left hand.

We understand that M. C. can surely draw J.B.E.'s pictures well from memory. Wonder when he poses for her.

Please let us know if you have a fire extinguisher Clarice M. and Juanita C. can borrow when they check some more papers.

Benefits Office Now In St. Louis

All dependents of servicemen in West Jefferson will be interested to learn that the office of dependency benefits is being moved from Newark, N. J. to St. Louis, Mo., where it will be located with other finance department activities at 4300 Goodfellow Boulevard, it was announced this week by army officials.

The transfer began on October 20 and is being carried on in stages with the final move to be completed in February, 1947. The government insurance allotment division will be addressed at St. Louis, which was effective on October 25.

gum.

Did you know we really have a cultured teacher in our school? She won't allow blue jeans in her class, just because she came from a cultured school.

Notice boys: If you need a house cleaner, choose her from the sophomore class. They surely can sweep.

Wonder if that dignified young senior has had that specially wanted date with that sophomore gentleman yet????

This year of school started out with a boom, but as usual when there are so many sheep in a flock an epidemic begins. Mrs. Warren has discovered the cause in a germ from overseas—ex-soldiers! It attacks the voluntary muscles of only girls eyes. First symptom is a strange look, as if seeing a stranger. Then the eye muscles begin working in a peculiar way. E. M. and B. A. say the movement is involuntary and they can do nothing about it, but J. M. S., H. C. and L. R. think it is fully voluntary.

F. F. A. News

These officers have been elected: president, Mack Jones; vice president, Jimmy Reeves; secretary, Bobby Black; treasurer, Kenneth Fender; watch dog, Dan Taylor; reporter, Lewis Fender.

The agriculture class is carrying out a hog fattening project. Three hogs have been bought and put in a lot by the shop. They are fed scraps from the school lunch room. We plan to sell the hogs when they weigh about 200 pounds. The money will go to the chapter treasury.

The 1946 production of the Fayetteville Fish Hatchery of the N. C. Division of Game and Inland Fisheries included 57,500 fingering bass ranging in length from two to four inches; of which 51,250 were placed in waters open to public fishing.

About 95 per cent of the Burley growers in North Carolina voted in favor of three-year quotas on tobacco.

Continue to follow this wire rub on "the two most important cases to you."

SPARTA NORTH CAROLINA

Mr. G. Glenn Nichols

CHAIRMAN

ALLEGHANY COUNTY SPARTA, N. C.

Dear Mr. Nichols:

I received this morning 12, enclosing original protest record of your Board's action not received any notice of action but will advise you

With the facts now before Board acted entirely proper somewhat similar case grow mary. We there said that could not be the basis of there must be specific charges and it must appear the time. As a general proposition votes should do so who do for a candidate to wait to find out how close is the election before he decides whether he will challenge votes.

I note the inquiry in the last paragraph of your letter. Where a voter writes in the name of a candidate the ballot should be counted for that candidate if the intent of the voter can be reasonably ascertained from the form of the ballot. The mere misspelling of a name or giving the wrong initials or giving a title such as Reverend, Colonel, Major, etc. will not invalidate the ballot provided the person for whom the voter intended to vote can be identified from his designation.

Very truly yours,

William T. Joyner

A SCOUT IS BRAVE

He Has The Courage To Face Danger In Spite Of Fear ---

In the fear stricken world of today, the words of the Scout Law stand as a challenge to all Americans. Not merely empty words, this is the Boy Scout Law that older, "wiser" men could adopt and be better for adopting. There is a lesson in courage to all of us who must face the coming months and years and the problems of living in a post-war world. In good faith, take this lesson from your Boy Scout sons and neighbors.

You can help advance Scouting in Sparta. On Monday, November 25, a drive to raise funds to promote Scouting here and in the county will begin. You will be called upon to make a contribution. Give as generously as you can, so that your sons may have a chance to be part of the finest youth movement in America.
