WMU Hears Mrs. Lillian Bott

A real treat was enjoyed by members of Circle No. 1 of the Baptist W. M. U. on Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Lillian Bott spoke on "How Christmas is Celebrated in Other Countries."

She gave a most interesting description of her personal experiences at Christmas time in a London boarding house, a castle in Scotland, in Berlin and with the Army of Occupation in Coblenz.

Mrs. Bott spent four years in Europe, before the first world war as a student and singer, and was with the Y. M. C. A. during the first war. She was with the army of occupation in Coblenz in 1923 when our soldiers entertained 10,000 German children. Her description of the four holidays was a vivid study in contrasts.

Mrs. C. A. Reeves read the Christmas story from Luke and following this a short business session was held. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Bott and Mrs. Reeves.

Vows Are Spoken In Double Ring Ceremony At Sparta Baptist Church

In a wedding of beauty and simplicity, Miss Madge Wyatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wyatt, became the bride of Wade Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Irwin, on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. F. G. Walker, pastor of the Sparta Baptist church, performed the double ring ceremony at the church at 5:30 o'clock in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Irwin entertained at a reception at their home honoring the bridal couple and members of the wedding party. Mrs. Glenn Wyatt, mother of the bride, attired in black, with a shoulder corsage of red roses, and Mrs. Carl Irwin, mother of the bridegroom, attired in brown, with a shoulder corsage of talisman roses, assisted Mrs. Gene Irwin in entertaining.

The bride is a member of the senior class of the Sparta high school and will continue her studies there. The bridegroom is on active duty with the U. S. Navy and is stationed in Norfolk.

roses completed her outfit. The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Cecil Murray. An improvised altar, with a background of pines, and two seven-branched candelabra, formed the setting for the impressive ceremony. Tall baskets of white gladioli and white asters stood on either side of the altar.

The lovely bride wore a street dress of white wool, trimmed in gold sequins. Her accessories were brown and she wore a shoulder corsage of white rosebuds.

USDA Council To Endorse Projects

At a meeting of the Alleghany USDA council last week, a motion was made and carried that the group urge the county commissioners to appoint a tax collector for the county, who would go from house to house and collect the taxes.

In the present set-up, each individual pays his taxes directly to the sheriff. The group also went on record as approving a new site for the Sparta school and pledged cooperation with other civic groups in the project. Plans to move the school site to another section of town have been under discussion for some time and civic groups, generally, are in favor of it.
