Miss Crites Weds Mr. Goodman In Church Ceremony, May 3

In an impressive ceremony Saturday afternoon, May 3 at four-thirty o'clock at Catawba Valley Baptist church Miss Marjorie Louise Crites became the bride of Clyde Ray Goodman. Rev. Carl DeVine, the pastor, officiated.

The altar of the church was banked with a profusion of native greenery to form a background for the vows. Seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers and floor baskets of white gladioli and spiraea were arranged to complete the very effective setting.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mabe of Galax, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Sexton, Twin Oaks, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mabe, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mabe and children Christine and Edwin, enjoyed a picnic at Bluff Park, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Sanders and children of North Wilkesboro, attended services at Shiloh and visited relatives here Sunday.

Roscoe Williams who holds a position in West Virginia, spent the week end with homefolks.

Robert Delp and Edgar Mabe were business visitors in North Wilkesboro, Friday.

for the nuptial event. Bows of marquisette marked the seats for members of the families and special guests.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Hattie Lingerfelt gave a program of piano music. She played "Because," "I Love You Truly," "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "Always." She used the wedding march from "Lohengrin" for the processional and Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the recessional.

There were no attendants and the couple entered the church together. Serving as ushers were William Crites, brother of the bride, and Ernest Williams, Jr. The bride was lovely in a white Palm Beach suit fashioned with a peplum at the back of the short jacket. She had white accessories and to complete her costume she wore a purple orchid corsage.

Mrs. Crites, mother of the bride, wore an aqua dress with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of red roses. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Goodman, wore a light blue wool crepe suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Goodman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling V. Crites, Jr., of Morganton. She was graduated from Morganton High School and received business training at Lenoir Rhyne College, Hickory. For the past four years she has been employed in the office of Huffman Mills here and now holds the position of bookkeeper.

Mr. Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard A. Goodman, Sr., of Morganton, is a graduate of Sparta High School. He is a veteran of the United States Navy and is now connected with his father in the lumber business here.

For the present the couple will reside with Mr. Goodman's parents on Evans street.

Following the wedding rehearsal Friday evening, Mrs. Fred Price entertained the bride and bridegroom-elect, members of the families and friends at a cake cutting at her home in Lenoir.

Mrs. Price is a cousin of the bride.
