Miss Edwards, Mr. Hoppers, Married In Winston-Salem

In a beautiful and impressive ceremony Miss Frances Eva Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Edwards of Whitehead, and Thomas Hassell Hoppers, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoppers also of Whitehead, were wedded on Saturday, May 31, at 9 o'clock at the First Methodist church in Winston-Salem.

Reverend J. Clyde Auman, pastor of the church officiated.

The vows were spoken before an altar of red roses and other spring flowers against a blanket background of ferns, and candles in large silver candelabra lighted the scene.

Miss Jean Hoppers, of Jefferson, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a gray suit with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. Bryan Eldridge, of Glade Valley, attended the bridegroom as best man.

The bride, who entered with the groom, wore a street length dress of bridal blue and white accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Edwards, mother of the bride, wore a grey dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations, and Mrs. Hoppers, mother of the groom, wore an aqua suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride and groom were entertained prior to their wedding at a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoppers at Whitehead, on Friday night, May 30, at which time the groom and W. E. Hoppers, his father, celebrated their birthdays.

The bride is a graduate of Sparta high school and was graduated last year from Mars Hill College where she was a member of the Nonpariel Literary Society and the M. H. C. B. C. She is now employed as a stenographer in R. F. Crouse's law office.

The groom attended both Sparta and Glade Valley high schools. He served two years over seas in the South Pacific and Japan while in the U. S. Army. Since receiving his discharge he has resumed his education at Glade Valley.

The couple spent their honeymoon touring the state and visiting Lake Lure near Asheville. They are making their home at Whitehead.
