

SPARTA

SPECTACLES

By Mrs. Ed M. Anderson

How good is your eyesight? We have been doing without these spectacles for some time, but some of our readers, the B. & T. Drug Store gang, Ruth, J. M. and Ernest ganged up on us so to speak, and said, "Let's have some more specs," so here we go again!

Getting The Limit!

Some one told us that they believed that the squirrels read this paper. Perhaps they are not really smart enough to read, but somehow, they must have gotten the word that some several experts would be gunning for them Monday so they stayed in. Even such successful hunters as Amos Wagoner, failed to bag one! Dr. C. A. Thompson and Wayne Waddell, seemed to have been slightly more successful, but as far as we could learn, no hunters had to worry about exceeding the limit of five!

Chinquapin Time.

We received our first chinquapins of the season from Mickey Randolph the other day and since then, more and more have been coming our way. Incidentally Mickey and Gail are frequent visitors in this office. If you want any errands run they are good at that too!

In The Harness Again

C. R. Roe, who is principal at Piney Creek this year, says it seems natural to be in school work again. After having served as principal of Sparta high school for so many years, he tried to get away from the work and did for a time, but finally found there was no escape.

And in his case it is well that he could not. What a pity it would be to let such a good school man out of the profession, when many more like him are needed.

On The Fence.

Little Ben Reeves came visiting over to West Jefferson the other day and climbed over and under the yard fence. He did not always know just where he was going, but with the guiding hand of his grandfather, J. W. Gambill, he usually arrived there in the end. He is one young man about town who has little to say, but is as active as the day is long.

There is no connection between these statistics, here but we heard of another young man a-

Twin Oaks News

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Faulkes, left Saturday for their home in Newman Grove, Nebr., after spending three weeks with relatives and friends in this county. Mr. Faulkes was born and raised in this county, but has made his home in Nebr. for the past 39 years.

Curtis Horton, Galax, Va., is here doing some excavating with his heavy dirt moving machinery. Walter Wyatt returned to his job at Gloucester, Va., Saturday after spending two weeks vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Wyatt, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Collins visited Mr. and Mrs. Judy Womble Sunday.

Mrs. Cecil Murray and Mrs. Carl Irwin visited Mrs. Dick Doughton, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sexton have recently moved to their new residence on Independence road near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Buren Farmer have moved into their new home on Piney Creek road near Johnson Wyatt's.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Petty, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Irwin.

Miss Sue McGrady will enter A. S. T. C. at Boone, Thursday. Jr. Gentry made a business trip to Raleigh, Monday.

Bower Watson, who is employ-round town, who by nature is rather bashful and usually has little to say, but really made a quick connection. He thought he was talking to an Elkin telephone operator and was telling her how big, bold and handsome he was, when suddenly he discovered that the party on the other end of the line was none other than the party he had been calling, a sedate married business woman!

Punts and Passes.

Football is in the spotlight again and so are Sparta's own Yellow Jackets. They played their first game of the season under lights at North Wilkesboro last Friday. After getting over the jitters in the early stages of the game our boys really outplayed their opponents. While the Mountain Lions from Wilkes defeated the Yellow Jackets 26-18, it was a close game. "What our boys lacked in pounds they made up in spirit and spunk," Dr. T. R. Burgess said.

There was a good crowd of people as well as insects, attracted by the lights. And while they were rather bold to attempt it, the gnats swarmed over both the Lions and Yellow Jackets. One player remarked that everytime he opened his mouth he got a taste of them. "That only made me spitting mad, tho," he declared. The cool weather, which is on the way, should soon take care of such minor handicaps.

Sees North Carolina In Holiday

Governor R. Gregg Cherry looks over a copy of the October issue of Holiday, which features North Carolina as one of the Nation's outstanding vacation areas. The magazine's cover, a 10,000-word story, and more than 100 photographs, most of them in color, depict the State's attractions for visitors.

LIBERTY HILL IS NOW HAVING REVIVAL

A revival is now in progress at the Liberty Hill Baptist church and services are being held each evening at 7:30 o'clock, it was pointed out by the pastor, Rev. L. H. Black.

Rev. Paul Morrow, of Lenoir, is preaching. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Men Arrested On Parkway, Friday

Three Ashe county men, Leonard, Robert and Ira Miller, of Glendale Springs, were arrested by Park Ranger A. E. Stark Friday on the Blue Ridge Parkway on the charges of reckless driving and refusal to report an accident.

Leonard, who was driving, was fined $100.00 before U. S. Commissioner Ralph Davis, in North Wilkesboro at a hearing. Robert and Ira were both fined $25. Robert Cox, of Laurel Springs, also charged with reckless driving, was fined $100.
