

One Of The State's Safety Inspection Lanes Soon To Be Activated

Early in January motorists will have an opportunity to drive in a vehicle safety inspection lane, like the one above, to have their cars checked under the regulation set up in highway safety measure passed by the last legislature.

Will Open Lanes For Inspection Around Jan. 15

Employment of 40 men as supervisors of inspection lanes and 18 others as inspectors under the mechanical inspection program which will go into effect during January was announced today by the department of motor vehicles.

The 58 men graduated Saturday from a three weeks' training course at Casper Hill.

The inspection law, which is effective Jan. 1, requires the inspection of all motor vehicles once during 1940 and twice a year thereafter.

The motor vehicles department has announced that inspection lanes will be opened on Jan. 15 at Raleigh, Durham, Elizabeth City, Greenville, and Wilmington, and on Jan. 19 at Greensboro, High Point, Charlotte, Winston-Salem, Fayetteville, and Gastonia.

The supervisors include: William M. Cass, Brevard; Joseph B. Coates, Webster; Junius A. Davaes, Asheville; Harry B. Kendrick, Hendersonville; Grover R. Kiser, Forest City; Roy R. Phillips, West Jefferson; Clinton P. Sawyer, Robbinsville; Hal Murphy Walton, Morganton; Homer W. Jarrett, Burnsville.

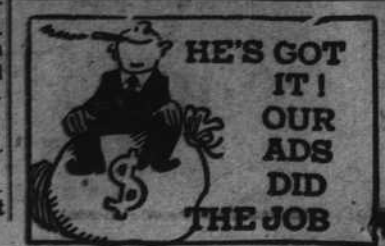

The inspectors include: L. E. Bartlett, Asheville.
