COUNTYWIDE FESTIVAL OF

Held In May.

The county-wide music festival for all schools of the Burke county school system will be held in Valdese again this year, some time in the month of May. The date will be set later.

Valdese was selected for the festival because the steps of the elementary school form an ideal stage for the program.

Having profited by the experience of putting on the first festival, members of the committee say that this year's festival will be even better than last year's, which was attended by more than

The greatest single improvement will be in the seating. Plans are being made to move bleachers to the schoolhouse lawn and it is hoped that all spectators can be seated.

The program will include numbers by a combined primary chorus, star forward for her team, was rhythm band and a combined colcrowned tournament queen of the ored school chorus. NORTH BROOK GIRLS CHAMPS OF TOURNEY

Hickory Girl Is Selected Queen of 11th Gold Medal Event.

With last week's girls' tournament just a memory—and a very pleasant one for the championship North Brook girls—the boys have taken over the spotlight this week as the 11th Annual Gold Medal tournament heads down the home

In the finals of the girls' tourney Saturday night, the smooth-playing North Brook sextet from Lincoln county carried home the bulk of the handsome awards. The champions finally stopped a surprising Gamewell team from Oaldwell county with a 37-26 victory. Banoak defeated Waco 38-29 for Favored to cop the boys' title is Fallston's Flying Five of Cleveland county, winner of 22 straight games and champions in their own county. Coach Blaine Baxter's boys were impressive in dumping Taylorsville 50-15 in the opener Saturday. Other teams given a good chance to cop high honors are Maiden, Morganton and Hickory. Cleveland county appears to have the strongest entries from LaFevers, Valdese elementary at the Valdese Community Center Brook; guards, White of Casar, any one county.
