White-Verreault Vows Pledged In Waldensian Church Saturday

Miss Malvina May Verreault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Verreault of Valdese, became the bride of Thomas Irvin White, son of Mrs. C. R. Claywell of Morganton, in a ceremony of charming simplicity Saturday afternoon, August 20, at four o'clock in the Waldensian Presbyterian church. Rev. A. B. McClure, pastor of the church, officiated in the single ring ceremony, in which the bride received the ring that had belonged to her husband's great-grandmother.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Parks Sherrill, Jr., organist, played "Romance" by Liszt, "Evening Star" by Wagner, "Poem" by Fibich, and "O Peas" by Barnby. "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar was used for the recessional and the "Fest March" from "Tannhauser" by Wagner was used for the recessional. "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell was played softly during the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding, she had chosen a navy afternoon dress with a white hat and white accessories. Her corsage was a white purple-throated orchid.

Miss Louise Ann Vereault served as her sister's maid of honor. She wore a street dress of taupe luster satin with a matching bandeau hat and a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Claywell, was attired in a two-piece dress of black and wine printed taffeta, with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Montreat Presbyterian School and attended the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, last year. The bridegroom, who is now a student at the University of North Carolina, was graduated from Oak Ridge Military Institute.

Immediately after the wedding, the bride's parents entertained at a small reception for those attending the wedding. Yellow roses surrounded the bride and groom.
