STATE NEWS

Condensed Items of Interest Happening Throughout the State.

On Sunday morning Prof. W. H. Hagdale, who has for several years been the efficient superintendent of Memorial Baptist Sunday School, tendered his resignation. The reason for this was that the Philaetha class of the school needed a teacher, and Prof. Hagdale being the most capable person connected with the school for this position, and a request coming from the class for him to take charge of it, he resigned the superintendency that he might do so. Prof. C. W. Wilson was unanimously elected to succeed Prof. Hagdale, and the school is to be congratulated upon having so excellent a man for the new superintendent. The school is flourishing and growing larger all the time.—Greenville Reflector.

Fall term of Pasquotank county Superior court convened this morning at 10 o'clock, with Judge Ward presiding. The morning session was spent in selecting the jurists. The first case on the calendar is the case of M. G. Wright against C. C. Spires, alderman from the Seventh ward. This suit is to recover the alderman's seat for M. G. Wright. M. G. Wright and C. C. Spires were candidates last fall before the Democratic party for alderman in the Seventh ward. Spires won the nomination in the primary, in the regular election, Wright was an independent candidate and won the election over Spires. Wright's ballots were challenged because they were not the prescribed size. The board of canvassers counted out Wright and seated Spires.—Elizabeth City Independent.

The woman with the extended name who appeared before Judge Eure some time ago on a charge of vagrancy and who was dismissed at the time upon her promise to leave the city within 48 hours, was found by the police yesterday sitting on the railroad track near the East Washington street crossing. Upon investigation, it being found that the woman was too sick to travel farther, the patrol was called out and she was conveyed to the city calaboose. The woman, when arrested before, gave her name as Ala Vjola Leona Mattie Van Buren Shea, and she was first sent to the workhouse, but when her sentence expired she returned to the city and started her old habits and was again arrested, when sentence was deferred upon her promise to leave the city. When arrested yesterday she seemed in a critical condition, but later in the day she improved greatly and she will likely again take up her residence at the workhouse.—Greensboro News.

Perhaps the most important D. A. R. Congress ever held in North Carolina will be that in Charlotte early next month, when representatives from all the subordinate chapters throughout the State will gather here in annual session. Among the prominent visitors expected are the State regents from South Carolina and Virginia and perhaps several other States, as well as distinguished delegates from either more remote Mrs. Gregory of Salisbury, vice president, several will certainly be in attendance, and Mrs. Matthew T. Scott of Illinois, president general of the National Congress, has been invited and will probably accept. Numerous social functions are being planned for the entertainment of the guests who will sojourn in the city several days. The Congress is scheduled for October 5 and 6. Mrs. John Vandlingham, of this city, is State regent.—Charlotte Observer.

Dr. Caldwell, president of the Atlantic Christian College, stated this morning that the institution had a good opening this session. He said that the number of young lady boarders was about the same and that there was an increase both in the number of young men and town patronage as compared with last year and that the outlook is very encouraging.—Wilson News.

Mr. Roswell E. Flack, late secretary to former Congressman Crawford, received the appointment as oil inspector for the Tenth Congressional district last spring, but lately decides that he will resign the position and complete his course in medicine. His resignation becomes effective October 1, and Mr. T. C. Mills, of Tryon, has been designated as Mr. Flack's successor. Mr. Mills was very strongly endorsed for the place when the appointment went to the young Rutherford Democrat, and had considerable support in the recent contest provoked by the approaching vacancy. Mr. Mills is a good man and a fighting Democrat. He has long been on the firing line in Polk county.—News and Observer.

WELL-KNOWN PREACHER DEAD.

Rev. W. S. Rone, presiding elder of the Warrenton district, M. E. Church, aged 62, died in Richmond, Va., hospital, Monday. Mr. Rone was widely known in this section of North Carolina.

ILLEGIBLE

Miss De Borde (at 11 p. m.)—Are you aware that I am a mind reader, Mr. Stayonne?
Mr. Stayonne—No, indeed. Tell me what I am thinking of?
Miss De Borde—You are thinking of starting for home.

CIRCUIT BROKEN.

Gibbs—I wonder what became of those "Swiss Bell-Ringers" who used to be so popular?
Jibbs—Oh, I guess they rang off.

HIS PREFERENCE.

Jinks—Who was it said he'd rather make the songs than the laws of the country?
Binks—I don't know; but I'd rather make the laws for the people who make the songs nowadays.

TO THE AMATEUR.

Mr. Stone (a little hard of hearing)—What's that you say? You paint only for your own amusement, well, you make good, I guess.

FORT HILL NEWS.

We are having some nice showers now, which are much needed. A number of our people were visitors at Broad Creek Sunday. Mr. Arthur Yates, who has been working for Wynwood Lumber Co. at Wananish, S. C., returned home last Sunday. Mr. Augustus Edwards was a visitor of this place Sunday. Miss Lucy Buck, who has been visiting friends at Vanceboro, returned home last week. Messrs. B. H. Whitford and J. G. Wall, of your city, were visitors of this place Sunday. BIG JIM.

SINGLETON NEWS.

The long needed rain came Saturday, and we all were glad to see it. It was needed very much. Quite a lot of Singleton people attended the services at the home of Mr. McMillan Ball Sunday. Everybody seemed to be well pleased with Elder Pent's sermon. Little Miss Gladys Woolard, of Old Ford, is spending a week or two with little Misses Lillie and Minnie Perry. Miss Caddie Willard spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Martha Chesson. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Woolard, of Swainland, have moved into this neighborhood. We extend to them a cordial welcome. The many friends of Miss Mattie Perry will be sorry to learn of her illness. It is hoped she will soon be well again. Cotton picking is the chief industry with our farmers now. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Willard and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hood, of Singleton. Mr. Chester Swanner was in our midst Sunday evening. Don't forget that Friday night, October 1, is the time for the revival at Singleton's to commence. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Lucretia Jackson, of Washington, is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Jackson. KIDDO.

DEATH AT OLD FORD.

Sweet little Ethel, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenchin Robertson, went to heaven last night about 9 o'clock. She suffered only a short time. She was taken ill on Thursday and Saturday Dr. J. L. Nicholson took her to the Powel Memorial Hospital, Washington, where she died Sunday night at 9 o'clock. Everything was done in trying to save her by both parents and physicians, but God knows best and we feel sure He doeth all things well. So let us rejoice, for dear Ethel is with the angels above. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. A. Davis, of Washington. This little girl leaves behind mother and father, and a sister and brother, three grandparents and a host of friends to mourn over their loss. The grave was beautifully adorned with flowers, showing the tender love everyone had for her. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved parents. A FRIEND. Sept. 20, 1909.
