STATE NEWS
Condensed Items of Interest Happening Throughout the State.

Those who are interested in celestial bodies, will no doubt be glad to learn that Halley's comet is approaching the earth at a very rapid pace, and will be in full view by the latter part of November. The comet is situated in the northeast, and if you notice closely you can see the radiance that it sheds in advance of its approach. Halley's comet will not be an apparition of a moment, like a meteor, nor of a week or two like the moon, but will remain in full view for several months. —New Bern Journal.

After a trip of over thirty-three hundred miles extending from North Carolina to Canada, Mr. H. C. Bridgers, of Tarboro, passed through Raleigh on his way home yesterday in a Buick touring car, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Jno. L. Bridgers, and his sisters, Misses Roba and Irwin Bridgers. The tourists appeared very well pleased with their long and interesting journey, which lasted about seven weeks, and included the States of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, the province of Ontario and the Georgian Bay country. The Appalachian mountain range was crossed eleven times on the way home. —News and Observer.

Mr. John W. Harrelson, an honor graduate of '08-'09 from the A. and M. College, is to be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the United States Army, and is to be assigned to the coast artillery corps. The announcement was made by General F. C. Alnworth, Adjutant General United States Army, Washington, last Saturday. Mr. Harrelson was captain of Company A, at the A. and M., during his last scholastic year and was well recommended for the commission on account of his having special aptitude for military work. Mr. Harrelson comes from Cleveland county. —News and Observer.

The good government association, which brought about such changes in Raleigh, is to be continued and on Thursday of next week it will meet. It will consider among other things the matter of near-beer. There is a strong sentiment for high license, if such beverages are to be licensed. The town of Sanford imposed a license of $1,000 and ran out these places. Just before midnight last night two white girls, one notorious, the other apparently 13 or 14 years old, and in smart skirts, were seen by the police to go to one of these places near the station house and they did not come out until about 9 o'clock this morning. Their names were taken and prosecution will follow.

Mitchel Charvallas, a Greek restaurant keeper, in 121 South Water street, in the rear of the Front street market, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable W. B. Savage on a warrant from the Recorder charging him with assault with a deadly weapon upon William Cromidy, colored, who, it is alleged, ordered a meal at the restaurant but as it did not please him refused to accept it. This angered the Greek who, it is alleged, picked up a heavy cup and a vinegar jar and struck the negro several terrific blows on the side of the head, making ugly wounds. When he was carried before the Recorder the negro was in the office. Charvallas asked for a warrant for Cromidy charging assault. While the warrant was being issued Cromidy disappeared and had not been located last night. Charvallas gave a $25 cash bond for appearance before the Recorder. —Wilmington Star.

Until 5 o'clock this morning the body of Luther Heaton, a white man, about 30 years of age, who was probably killed by a seaborne train between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning lay beside the railroad track at Wake Forest within a half mile of the station awaiting the arrival of Coroner Separk from Raleigh, who after investigating stated that as the man was killed within the corporate limits it was not within his jurisdiction. However, he stated, it was apparent that he was killed by a train. The man, who was an employe of the Royal cotton mills, was last seen about 1 o'clock this morning and was in a drunken condition. The body was discovered by a negro about 5 o'clock this morning. There was a cut in the back of the head about six inches long and two inches wide, and his brains were scattered 10 feet on the cross-ties. In his coat pocket was a broken whiskey bottle. The dead man is survived by a wife and two children. —Raleigh Times.

Few "want ad" campaigns cost more than a few dollars—and when the cost runs beyond that it shows that spirit of persistence which always wins.

WEST ORIENTAL NEWS.
There is a great change in the atmosphere since last week.
Capt. J. N. Jones returned from New Bern after a ten days' vacation. His many friends were glad to welcome him back.
Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Perry, of Kershaw, N. C., spent several days in Oriental with Mr. R. D. Hodges, and returned home Saturday.
Mr. Charlie Griffin was in our vicinity last week.

Fishing seems to be the only sport now, as the bathing time has passed.
Master Branch Hodges has been sick, but we are glad to see him out again.
There will be a show here this week, and everyone is looking forward to an enjoyable time.
Misses Lizzie, Laura, Sallie and Ludia Hodges made us a pleasant call Wednesday.
Mrs. Jim Hodges is on the sick list this week.
Mr. Alex. Hodges spent Friday night and Saturday at Arapahoe.

The Norfolk and Southern railroad have commenced a new depot here. It is very much needed.
School opened here last Monday, with a large attendance.
Our dear little girl who has been writing the West Oriental news is sick. She went to school three days and came home with a chill, but we are glad to know she is better today. It is too bad she was taken sick, she will get behind in her class. She is a bright girl.
