ITALY AND SPAIN HIT BY STORM

Streets on Water Front of Naples Destroyed—Safety of Ships Endangered.

Naples, Jan. 26.—Driven by the hurricane the sea at several points has destroyed the streets along the harbor front.

Reports from the country around Naples describe violent hail and rainstorms with a considerable fall of snow.

The river Arno, in Tuscany, a depot from Florence says, is rising at an alarming rate and a number of villages have been flooded.

Genoa, Jan. 26.—The storm here took on such proportions as to threaten the safety of the steamers in the harbor. The residents of several of the suburb quarters have left their homes, fearing that they would be swept away. At places the sea wall has been broken down by the high waves.

Bilbao, Jan. 26.—A fishing boat has been wrecked off the coast in the storm, eleven men being drowned.

Attend the Gaety this evening and see the first-class performance announced in another place in the Daily News to be given. Such well known pictures as In Little Italy, Biograph; The Spanish Marriage, showing Spain in all its splendor; Bunch of Lilacs, hand-colored; Up the Mountains of Hong Kong, panoramic, should appeal to every lover of good pictures. The management promises all who attend their money's worth and more too. They have presented no program to surpass the one billed for tonight. Remember the orchestra nightly and this feature alone is well worth the price of admission. Remember the drawing takes place also tonight at 9 o'clock.

Investigation Is National

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 26.—That the government's investigation into the affairs of the so-called beef trust, is to be national, was shown today, following the questioning before the Federal grand jury of Charles C. Snow, secretary and treasurer of the National Packing Company.

It was learned that the books and other documents of the following concerns have been laid before the jury: G. H. Hammond & Company of Michigan; G. H. Hammond & Company of Illinois; Hammond Beef Packing Company of Colorado; Hammond Packing Company of Philadelphia; Hammond Packing Company of Toledo; Hammond Company of New York; Anglo-American Refrigerator Car Company of Illinois; Fowler

Packing Company of Kansas, Kansas City Refrigerator Car Company of Kansas, United Dressed Beef Company of New York, St. Louis Dressed Beef & Provision Company of Missouri, Hutchinson Packing Company of Kansas, National Car Line Company of New Jersey and the Provision Dealers Dispatch of Illinois.

It was learned that subpoenas had been issued for employees and officers of Armour & Company, Swift & Company and Morris & Company.

Besides Mr. Snow, those examined today were Henry F. Mye, department manager for Armour & Company, and Everett Wilson, superintendent of branch houses of Armour & Company.

No information as to the line of inquiry into the alleged price-fixing methods was given out.

It was learned that District Attorney Sims had arranged to carry on the probe for at least six weeks.

A QUESTION.

(Charlotte Observer.)

Who would have thought that an old North Carolinian living in a lonely farm house would at his death leave several millions of dollars worth of property to his heirs? But such seems to have been the case with the late Louis Hinton of Pasquotank county, who died a few days ago under such circumstances. It is said he owned valuable real estate in nearly every State of the Union. Besides his real estate title deeds there were found in his house a large number of personal securities, such as stocks and bonds of every kind, the value of which cannot be readily ascertained, but which are supposed to aggregate two million dollars or more. Here the question arises: What real pleasure did this old man derive from his labors in amassing such a fortune? He posed as a comparatively poor man, and the many whom he could have aided derived no benefit from the accumulated wealth which did him no good. It comes to his heirs now, but he would much better have used some of it in conferring benefits upon mankind.
