

PARTY IS AT BAY STEAMER WRECKED

The Republicans Fighting For Their Life.

TEDDY THEIR SAVIOR

Nothing Can Save the Republican Party But Theodore Roosevelt—He Will Try to Rescue and Restore the Present Administration—Republican Party Has Hard Fight.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Nothing in the heavens above or in the earth beneath or in the waters under the earth can save the Republican party now, except it be Theodore Roosevelt.

This is the consensus of opinion among that limited number of American statesmen who are willing to talk, and even this impression, absolutely unanimous and evidently sincere, is imparted in confidence and under the strict injunction that no names are to be used.

This is the period in our country's history when every man is afraid of his shadow or of the sound of his voice.

After all the great game at Washington is politics rather than business of the country.

Interest in economic measures is in eclipse. The federal incorporation law is practically abandoned. The publicity of corporation returns excites only a languid interest.

From the torret to foundation stone this capital of our country is alive and astir to the Presidential politics of 1912, and the center of national interest is for a time transferred from Washington to an indefinite point in Egypt where the correspondents of the world's newspapers are to meet.

If any man doubts that there is a political revolution afoot in this country, he has only to stand here at the center and catch the stores that are aloft in the winds and burning the wires of the country.

Nearly every Republican in the Sixty-first congress is exhausting his political influence in the endeavor to be put on the committee to welcome a distinguished American on his return to New York.

And the average Republican in both houses is in the attitude of being flat on his belly with his hand on his ear and his ear to the ground listening to the echoes of public opinion from home, and for the first tread of the lion hunter returning from Africa by the way of the courts and capitals of the Old World.

It is a condition without a parallel in the history of politics in this or any other country.

For the long dominant the Republican party is at bay and fighting for its life.

Roosevelt will try to rescue and restore the Taft administration.

The Arroyo Grounds Off Ocracoke Beach.

SEVEN FEET IN SAND

An English ship, the Arroyo, Totally Destroyed on the Beach at Ocracoke—Loaded With 10,000 Tons of Ore—She Carried a Crew of 22—Crew at Life Saving Station.

Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 25.—Captain W. A. Saunders, master of the tug Alexander Jones, returned to port today and reported the total destruction on Ocracoke Beach of the large steamer Arroyo.

The tug Jones was summoned from Wilmington and arrived at the scene yesterday morning. The Arroyo was found deserted and Captain Saunders assumed charge.

A short time thereafter the captain and members of the Arroyo's crew approached from a neighboring life station and ordered Captain Saunders and his men to leave the steamer.

This was done by the local navigator and the steamer was left to its fate. The large vessel was buried seven feet on the sands and was lying broadside on the beach.

The ship had six feet of water in the hold and was filling fast when the tug Jones left the vicinity to return to this city.

A strong northeast gale has prevailed on the coast today. It is certain that the Arroyo is now nothing but wreckage as the ship was fast disintegrating when the tug left the scene.

The Arroyo was loaded with a cargo of 10,000 tons of iron ore consigned from Santiago, Cuba, to Philadelphia. The ship was owned by Harrison & Company, of Glasgow, Scotland, and was built in that city ten years ago.

THE CONDUCTOR'S REVENGE.

A well dressed man entered an Orange street car the other day, according to a story that is going around of the street car men, and asked the conductor a ten-dollar bill.

The conductor was unable to find the bill and he let the man ride to the next stop.

The man took the conductor's name and address and then he came back and asked the conductor for the bill.

The conductor was pleased with his "coup" and when he learned that the man was worthless—Newark Star.

THE VANCE LETTERS RIOTS STILL RAGE

Historical Commission to Preserve Them.

MRS. VANCE SANCTIONS

Anyone Having Letters Communicate With Secretary R. D. W. Connor—The Commission Wants to Publish the Letters.

To the People of North Carolina: The North Carolina Historical Commission is making a collection of the letters and papers of Gov. Z. B. Vance, with a view to their preservation and publication.

But, unfortunately, this collection contains but few of Governor Vance's own letters, most of those in the collection being letters received by him. It is most important that the publication should contain as many of his own letters as possible.

The Historical Commission, therefore, takes this means of requesting those who possess letters of Governor Vance to turn them over to the commission, either for permanent preservation or for copying.

Nor is the publication a private enterprise undertaken for the purpose of making money. It will be issued by the State as other State printing, and its purpose is to perpetuate the fame of North Carolina's best beloved son, to extend the reputation of the State, and to make available for the historian the material for studying her history during its greatest epoch.

Any person, therefore, who possesses a letter or other document of Governor Vance will render a service to his memory and to the good name of the State by cooperating with the Historical Commission in this work.

The North Carolina Historical Commission. J. Bryn Grimes, Chairman. R. D. W. Connor, Secretary.

Cars Are Wrecked And Many People Hurt.

POLICEMEN ARE DYING

General Strike Has Been Ordered And the Time For Coming Out is Said to be Sunday—The Rioters Seemed to be Cowed by the State Police—Many Assaults.

Philadelphia, Feb. 25.—Despite the presence of the "Black Hussars" rioting broke out in the street car strike again today.

The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company sent out more cars than expected, causing a mix-up in the police plans. The riots were generally incited by boys today.

Later in the day the company began the running cars without guards. Early riots during the morning had caused fear of a recurrence of the hard battles of the last few days, but as the crowds scattered to their work the excitement died down.

Three hundred police in the northeast section were given time to rest, the first opportunity in 36 hours. The transit company claim they have engaged enough competent men to operate almost the regular schedule of cars.

With the rioters of the city apparently completely cowed by the "Black Hussars," the shoot-to-kill men of labor troubles in the State of Pennsylvania, the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company today began its campaign to crush absolutely without hope of recovery the street car employes union.

The Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes recognizes the aim of the corporation, and is straining every effort for a fight to the finish.

As a result a general strike of union labor in Philadelphia has been called.
