WASHINGTON, N. C., MARCH 15.

LET THE NEWS FOLLOW.

Parties leaving town should not fail to let The News follow them daily with the news of Washington fresh and crisp. It will prove a valuable companion, reading to you like a letter from home.

MUST BE SIGNED. All articles sent to The News for publication must be signed by the writer, otherwise they will not be published.

HOW TO START A PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Any town, however small, can maintain some sort of a library, provided there are a few people in the town who really want one and are willing to work for one. The best way to start a library is to start one. Leave the education of the community up to the library idea to be a matter of growth.

After public sentiment has been aroused in favor of a library and after all the clubs, lodges, churches, schools and other organizations have been invited to join in the movement, a public meeting should be held and a library association formed, composed of both men and women.

Anything that may be called a library will serve as a beginning. At first it may seem out of the question to attempt to maintain a reading room for light, fuel and furniture. But a reading room, open two or three times a week, can be of so much benefit to even a small town that it is worth much to have one.

These are the essentials of a public library: books; a reading room fitted up with tables, chairs, shelving, and a few magazines, if possible; and a librarian. The success of the library now depends upon the librarian and the support, both moral and financial, which you are able to give her.

Remember the starting of a library is genuine missionary work. Much of it will be unappreciated, some of it opposed, and methods are likely to be criticized and motives maligned. But the thought that the influence of your work will go on broadening, strengthening and cheering the lives of hundreds of people ought to be compensation sufficient for almost anything.

FROM OTHER SANCTUARY.

Make Room. Of the Great Trio which adorned the United States Senate two generations ago Calhoun and Webster are now represented in Statuary Hall. Clay is unrepresented.

Contracts For Advertising.

There are two words that we reporters, headline writers and editorial writers have to use that gets as monotonous as a tom-tom after a few years, but there seems no escape from them. They are "interesting" and "important."

No More Hanging. There is satisfaction in knowing that the last man has been legally hanged in North Carolina. Resolve the question as to the right of the State to impose capital punishment in the affirmative, and there remains about hanging an old world crudeness and barbarity. Its methods were uncertain and speculative.

CHILDREN WHO ARE SICKLY

Mothers who value their own comfort and the welfare of their children, should never be without a box of Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children, for use throughout the season.

Farming and Farming.

What this country needs is not more but better farmers. The Kansas City Star prints the following news item: George Logan farms 15 acres near Crane. He farms it so well that last year he received $5,400 for his vegetables and fruit.

tables and fruit. These 15 acres are part of the 640 acres his father tried to farm with the aid of a family of boys, and the 640 acres never produced as much in one year under the old method as the 15 acres yield under the new.

The Washington Post, taking cognizance of it, comments as follows: Crane is in Montgomery county, that contains the town of Independence, where the town is ready sale for fruits and vegetables, and other equally good markets are in easy reach.

There is no doubt that there is land enough in the United States planted to crops to feed the Caucasian races of the entire world, if the same skill, industry and care were brought to the work that is devoted to it in England or France or Germany or Belgium.

On the average American farm lands are impoverished, weeds are allowed to run riot, impotent seeds are planted, tillage is either totally neglected or slovenly done, manure is wasted, orchards are handed over to the incursions of noxious insects, live stock of every description is set adrift to forage as best it may, poultry is its own keeper, and other thriftless practices are indulged—and that is called farming.

These strictures did not cease to apply when the law made the hanging a private play instead of a public spectacle. We have seen the hills enclosing a noble valley as the benches of an amphitheater packed with a black mass of eager humanity, standing motionless against the sky line while a nervous sheriff did one poor and lonely brute to death.

TEN ENTOMBED.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 12.—An explosion of gas occurred tonight in No. 5 mine of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Company, which caused a large fall of the roof. Ten men are reported to be entombed behind the fall.

FARMERS ATTENTION

The Washington Chamber of Commerce wants every farmer in Beaufort county to take some farm paper. The price of the Progressive Farmer, which is the best paper in the South, and is published in North Carolina, is only $1.00 per year, and is issued weekly.

The Washington Chamber of Commerce is going to help the first 100. Send us 50 cents and we will do the rest towards your getting this paper for one year.

If any boy or girl in Beaufort county wants to make their parents a present of a year's subscription to this valuable farm paper, get up a club of 20, and the Chamber of Commerce will give you a year's subscription free.

Now bear in mind, the price of this paper is one dollar, and you cannot get it for a penny less, but the Chamber of Commerce wants 200 more people to read this paper and is helping them out, so bring in four 50 cents before too late.
