iffs John Lucas and Frank Flynn. From all the facts gathered it seems that the parties above had struck a difference is this city over some matters only known to them-selves and they decided to go over to Chocowinity to settle the dispute, thinking that the town, authorities had no authority over them here. They carried out their determination Paterday and selected a place near 7.000 cc the past house to fight it out. The at point sequence was that a free-for-all fight was the outcome. Skirts ware torn, hair pulled, eyes injured, faces bat-tered, to boll it down the participants looked as if they had been uspered gh a cyclone.
