

EX-GOV. GLENN CHARMS HIS HEARERS

Delivered a Great Address on Home Missions at the First Presbyterian Church Last Night.

One of the most thrilling and interesting addresses ever delivered in Washington was that by Ex-Governor Robert H. Glenn last evening at the First Presbyterian Church, on "Home Missions" before the Albemarle Presbytery, now in session here. The auditorium was well filled with people in all walks of life, eager to hear this distinguished son of the Old North State discuss this vital theme. On the hustings, in political campaigns, his worth was long ago established and our people were yearning to hear him in another role. It is needless for the Daily News to state he was perfectly at home and handled his great subject in a way to attract interest and enthusiasm.

Rev. Dr. Morton, of Rocky Mount, presided and conducted the devotional part of the program. Before Governor Glenn was introduced to the audience Dr. Morton read the ninth annual report of the mission board which proved to be interesting and instructive. The paper gave an insight into the workings of Albemarle Presbytery for the past year—what had been accomplished, etc. The work of the church has greatly prospered since the last meeting of the Presbytery and the outlook is more than bright for the ensuing year.

The music rendered by the choir of the First Presbyterian Church last night was worthy of commendation. One of the selections was a vocal duet "Rock of Ages," by Miss Sterling, soprano, and Mr. John Smith, tenor. The other selections by the choir, especially the male quartet, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," by Messrs. Lyndon Shaw, Edward Stewart, R. Lee Stewart and John Smith, captivated the large audience.

Governor Glenn spoke on "Home Missions." From the very first he seemed to steal his way into the hearts of his hearers and for one hour held them spellbound with his matchless eloquence and convincing argument. The distinguished speaker was so to speak, thoroughly imbued with his subject, and presented it in a way that so one could not say he had been strengthened and encouraged for better things. He spoke from experience and did not fail to let the people know what he had seen and heard. It was a great speech, delivered by a great man. Governor Glenn is now employed by the Southern Presbyterian Church as lecturer on the subject of "Home Missions." The church made no mistake in their selection. He knows the conditions and states what they are with gloves off. No address has been delivered in Washington in years more enjoyed.

Tonight at 8 o'clock Rev. Mr. Deal, the moderator of the Presbytery, will preach a special sermon on "Foreign Missions." The public is cordially invited to be present.

Tonight will probably be the last session of the Presbytery.

FINE SERMON

Large Audience Hear Rev. Geo. B. Thompson, of Oxford, at First Presbyterian Church.

This morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. George B. Thompson, of Oxford, delivered a sermon on "Family Religion" at the First Presbyterian Church before the Albemarle Presbytery. The discourse was a most admirable presentation of the subject. Rev. Mr. Thompson is a speaker of magnetism and thought and those present this morning had an opportunity of feasting at the table of good things. The sermon was a master piece of logic and thought.

HAS RETURNED.

Dr. Henderson Snell has returned from Suffolk where he went to be at the bedside of his sister, Mrs. L. Woodley. Mrs. Woodley died last Sunday and was taken to Groveland, in Washington county, her old home, Monday by special train for interment. She was a woman widely known in her section, and her death is a keen loss to the community where she was best known and loved most.

WORK NEARLY COMPLETED.

The work of making the survey for the proposed street paving is practically completed. The work in earnest is expected to begin now very shortly.

SERVE DINNER.

Mr. W. D. Gaikins and wife, of Occochee, N. C., were hosts yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock on the yacht Hahn, moored at the buoy yard. Capt. C. P. Smith, custodian of the yard, and Mrs. Smith and Capt. W. W. Tolson, of Belhaven, were the guests. The occasion was a most enjoyable one.

START TOMORROW.

The census enumerators for the City of Washington begin their work tomorrow. Mr. T. E. Outler has the territory east of Market street and Mr. W. A. Scott that west of Market street. They will take the census of the city by wards and hope to complete same in the time stipulated by the census department.

ARM BROKEN.

Master Roosevelt Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nosh Jackson, while playing about his parents' yard Sunday, fell and broke his arm.

DISGRACES STATE

Governer Pardons Col. Cooper, the Carmack Slayer.

SHOULD BE IMPEACHED

The Tennessee Supreme Court Affirms Verdict of Lower Court But the Chief Executive Comes to the Rescue and Writes Pardon for the Defendants.

Nashville, Tenn., April 14.—The State Supreme court on yesterday affirmed the sentences of twenty years each passed upon Colonel Duncan Cooper and his son, Robin, for the murder of Ex-Senator Edward Carmack, refusing to grant a new trial.

While the Supreme court was confirming the conviction of the defendants for the killing in November, 1903, Governor Patterson was writing a full pardon, declaring that it was his belief Colonel Cooper was not guilty. The situation is said to be tense. It is surmised that politics entered the case.

Colonel Cooper is the close personal and political friend of the governor who is the leader of the anti-prohibition forces in Tennessee. Carmack was the chief of the prohibition movement. The outcome has not yet been solved.

SUCCESS

The Democratic Leaders See Light Ahead This Fall.

Washington, D. C., April 13.—Vigorous attacks on the Republican policy of high protection, condemnation of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, which, it was claimed, was one of the principal causes of the present high prices, strong defense of the Democratic principles of Thomas Jefferson and loudly applauded predictions of Democratic victory at the coming Congressional elections were made by the speakers at the banquet here tonight in honor of the birthday anniversary of Thomas Jefferson. Those declarations were greeted with cheers which made the big banquet hall ring and re-echo with their vigor.

With members of both Houses of Congress among the speakers, and with representatives of Democracy from all parts of the country present the banquet was an enthusiastic approval of the principles of Jefferson. His "reverence for the individual love of liberty was praised by Representative Clayton, of Alabama, toastmaster of the banquet.

Jefferson Extolled.

"He loved the uses of government, but abhorred its abuses," he declared. His writings and teachings in favor of "individualism under highly developed civilization as the antithesis of communismism" was praised by the speaker, who spoke of Jefferson's belief in the State's rights and the separation of the different branches of government.

"The certainty of Democratic harmony and the restoration of government to the rule of Democratic party," were declared to be due to the "sins of omission and commission by the Republican party."

"Vigorous sacrifices of certain members of the Republican party, he said, would not be accepted by the people of the country as a sufficient apology for the faults of the party. The Democratic party, he claimed, will remain harmonious.

HERRING FISHING.

Quite a number of our local fishermen are having no little fun nights catching herring. One of our well known citizens last night bagged over 600 at one haul and he states it was not a good night for fishing, either.

IMPROVING.

The many friends of Mr. E. B. Moore will be pleased to learn that he is on the road towards recovery. He is now able to sit in a chair and be rolled to the front porch. It is to be hoped he will soon be able to resume his business duties. Mr. Moore is one of Washington's most popular citizens.

MOST PLEASANT SESSION.

The meeting of the Albemarle Presbytery in this city since Tuesday has done much to strengthen the cause of religion in this section. The sessions of the Presbytery have been pleasant as well as profitable. Rev. Dr. Beairight, the pastor of the church here, has proven to be a model host, and the visitors are warm in their praise of him. All the visitors to the city during the Presbytery are highly pleased with their entertainment. Washington never does things half way. The latest string will ever be on the outside for the members of this religious body, whenever they choose to remain.

COUNTY JAIL BURNS

Three Hundred Prisoners Panicked, Stricken.

THE MILITIA CALLED OUT

Flames Originated in Structure Next to the Jail and Was Finally Communicated to It—The Militia Had to be Called to Assist in Removing Prisoners—Firemen are Hurt.

New Haven, Conn., April 13.—Three hundred prisoners, seventy-five of whom are women, were saved from being roasted in their cells in a fire which gutted the big general jail structure here today, only through the heroic exertions of keepers, policemen, firemen, and finally, members of the New Haven Grays, the city's crack national guard organization. Frenzied with fright, many of the prisoners, particularly the women, were taken through the blazing corridors to safety with the greatest difficulty and during the trips fifty of them are believed to have escaped.

Falling timbers and flames injured Fire Captain O'Neill and Firemen Husey and Wilcox. However, none is believed to be fatally hurt.

Three hundred prisoners, seventy-five of them women, were panicked today when the county jail here was threatened by flames which completely destroyed a four-story brick building adjoining the jail.

The flames had swept through the entire building before the firemen arrived and the prisoners screamed in their cells and attempted to break the bars.

Fearing that, in the confusion, a jail delivery would be attempted, a hurry call was sent throughout the county for deputy sheriffs. A crowd of more than 20,000 quickly gathered and the jail keepers asked assistance in preventing the escape of any of the prisoners.

When the fire was discovered the workshop of the jail was filled with inflammable materials, such as oil, varnish and paint, and the dry wood with which the upper floors were stored aided the spread of the flames. Explosion after explosion occurred as the fire reached the varnish and paints and each one was the signal for a renewed outbreak among the frenzied prisoners.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning the fire had spread to the main building of the jail. One fireman had been injured and was taken to a hospital. Several firemen were in danger on an upper floor. Rapid progress was made in the work of removing the prisoners, beginning shortly before 11 o'clock. An enclosure was roped off into which the prisoners were hurried from the building, while guards patrolled it.

At 11:05 several firemen had been taken to the hospital. It was then declared that the jail would be a total loss.

CLAIM DAMAGE.

Raleigh, N. C., April 13.—An attorney from Roanoke Island was here today on his way to Washington, D. C. He says that after the occupation of the island by the Federal troops, very early in the war, a large number of negroes, who were then known as "contrabands," were quartered there. There were in fact thousands of these ex-slaves, who came from regions round about, and they cut down the lawyer says, a great deal of the timber on the island. The claim for such damages amount to about $15,000.

ALLEYS MOVED.

The bowling alleys and fixtures have been moved to the building on Market street in front of the county jail, where they are now stored. Whether they will be installed in another building is not known.

MORE FAVORABLE.

The condition of Mrs. C. N. Francis is thought by her physician, Dr. John C. Rodman, to be more favorable today.

RETURNS FROM RICHMOND.

Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who has been to Richmond for the past several days to see his brother who met with the unfortunate loss of his hand by getting caught in a piece of machinery, returned home last night. It will be welcome news to Mr. Sullivan's friends to know his brother has so far recovered as to be able to leave the hospital.

STRAWBERRIES.

Strawberries have begun to make their appearance in this market in earnest. The News learns that there is an extra large crop this season.

The kind of conversation that waits always to begin is entirely too cautious.

ROME IS EXCITED

Vatican Makes Statement Attacking Roosevelt.

INCENSED AT THE FLING

Accuses Mr. Roosevelt of Having Hunted Royal Personages in Europe—The Foes of the Clerical Party Seize the Occasion For a Denunciation of the Church.

Rome, April 13.—Rome is once more excited over the relations between Theodore Roosevelt and the Vatican, and the sensation caused by the first news of the breach between them is overtaken by that aroused by the Vatican's latest statement attacking the former president.

The foes of the clerical party today seized the occasion for scathing denunciation of the church and the visit of Mr. Roosevelt to Italy promises to prove one of the country's leading political issues.

The text of the authorized statement from the Vatican today was widely circulated and discussed. Its condemnation of Abbot Lawrence Janssens, of the Benedictines, secretary of the congregation of the affairs of religious orders, is exceedingly strong. It was he who left a card at Mr. Roosevelt's apartments, having failed to see the former president, commending him for his attitude toward Catholics while in the White House.

Most ardent supporters of the monarchy are incensed at the fling which, they declare, the Vatican takes at King Victor Emmanuel, as well as other rulers who plan the entertainment of Mr. Roosevelt in Europe, in the statement by the Vatican that it "did not wish Mr. Roosevelt to bracket the pope with other more or less royal personages he will boast of having hunted in Europe after his African hunt."

The statement, first, however, censures Father Janssens thus:

"The Holy Father has highly disapproved of Father Janssens' initiative toward Mr. Roosevelt, as the act of his evidently lends itself to an interpretation offensive to the Holy Father. Father Janssens acted through his own impulse, without any authorization from anyone whatever."

The publication of the statement has torn the whole situation open again when it was believed that the incident would be allowed to be forgotten. Supporters and enemies of the church today rallied under their respective colors. Bitter feeling is shown in all references to the affair.

MOVE OPERATIONS

The Tuberculosis Exhibition at Raleigh.

ESTABLISH HEADQUARTERS

Cooperation is to be Asked For in Every City and County in North Carolina—Parties Interested Are Requested to Communicate With Tuberculosis Exhibition at Raleigh

Greensboro, N. C., April 14.—A car load of exhibits and office equipment shipped from Greensboro to Raleigh transfers the active operations of the Tuberculosis Exhibition to the central portion of the State. Early this week headquarters will be established in Raleigh and for five weeks a vigorous campaign of education will be conducted. Cooperating committees will be invited in every town and every county within a hundred miles or so of the capital city. Several state-wide conferences will be held, having interest to groups of people throughout the entire commonwealth, and in general, the exhibition in Raleigh will mean much more than merely a local affair. Correspondence relative to the exhibition from any part of the State may be addressed simply to the Tuberculosis Exhibition at Raleigh.

COMING DEBATE

A Most Interesting Occasion is Promised Here on the Evening of April 27.

The students of the Washington Public Schools are to have a joint debate in the school auditorium of this city on the evening of April 27, with the students from the public schools of Greenville. They are to discuss the Humphray bill. The debaters for the Washington school have already been selected, and they are now preparing to give their competitors a "warm time" so far as argument is concerned. The occasion promises to be a most interesting one.

TRUST IS EXPOSED

Big Thieves' Syndicate Has Been Ferreted Out

HAD A PERFECT SYSTEM

More Than $1,000,000 Has Been Obtained From American Travelers in Europe by the Trust—A Dividend Was Declared Annually—Most of the Loot Went to the Chief.

Berlin, April 12.—After months of investigation in collaboration with the police of every big European city, the authorities here, aided by the secret police, have uncovered a thieves' trust, which, in a few years, has obtained more than $1,000,000 from travelers.

Many of the victims are Americans. From one victim alone the gang secured $120,000 in jewels. He was M. Peyrouse, a French jeweler, and was robbed in the Grand Hotel, Geneva, in July, 1908. A number of arrests were made today.

The disclosures show that the organization had a perfect system, was run on business principles and paid a yearly dividend. Every hotel in Europe was watched carefully, the gang operating on scientific lines. Oriental tourists points were also worked, even Cairo being included.

The leader was formerly a chimney sweep, who for several years has operated the organization from Berlin headquarters. Tiring of the dullness of his provincial birthplace, in central Germany, the sweep turned burglar. He secured several recruits, and finally formed the thieves' trust, heading a staff of thirty men and women.

From the central office in Berlin the members of the gang told off to various districts, each being held responsible for a good showing in his territory. A permanent agent was maintained in Paris, who telegraphed in core information, particularly in reference to the movements of jewelers. It was in this way that the Peyrouse robbery was planned.

Once a year the gang met at Nice, where a dividend was declared, the year's work renewed, and that of the next twelve months mapped out. Most of the loot went to the chief, the ex-sweep.

FIRST SERVICE

The New Rooms of the Young Men's Christian League Are Nearing Completion.

It is the hope of the committee in charge that the new rooms of the Young Men's Christian League will be ready for occupancy next Sunday. Announcement will be made through the columns of the Daily News Saturday. The rooms will be very attractive when finished, containing all the latest furniture and fixtures usually installed. Several other improvements are contemplated by the committee in charge. If the league does meet in its new quarters no doubt a large number will attend.

GAILEY TONIGHT.

"The Gailey" has the following pictures for tonight, the first being entitled "The Wayside Shrine," a dramatic picture of intense interest. The second one is a popular fairy story, "The Little Old Men of the Woods," and is one of the best of this kind of pictures ever shown in Washington.

Mr. Whitten was called out of town last evening on business and consequently did not sing as was advertised, but tonight he will be in attendance and will sing "In Oklahoma," a very pretty and catchy song. Come out tonight and see good pictures and hear good music.

MOVING.

Mr. Powell and family are moving to the residence of Mr. W. E. Swanner on West Second street, next to the First Methodist Church, occupying the house vacated by Mr. J. M. Silverthorn and wife.

TO HONOR FOUNDER

INVITATIONS ARE ISSUED

To Commemorate Birth of Rev. Albert Smedes, D. D., Founder and the First Rector—Interesting Exercises to Take Place on April 20—Bishop Strange to Speak.

Raleigh, April 14.—Wednesday, April 20, will be a day of unusual importance at St. Mary's school and will be observed in a most interesting manner. As the centennial anniversary of the birth of the Rev. Albert Smedes, D. D., the founder and first rector of St. Mary's school, all former St. Mary's students and friends of the school will feel interested in the celebration of the day.

The exercises will extend throughout the day and will no doubt be largely attended with probably a large number of the members of the alumnae from out of town present. Everything will be done to make this occasion a fitting commemoration of the birth of the school's founder.

The following invitations have been issued:

"The rector of St. Mary's School, for himself, for the trustees, teachers and pupils of the school, and for the general officers and special committee of the Alumnae Association, extends a cordial invitation to the alumnae of St. Mary's, individually and collectively, to be present at the school on Wednesday, April 20th, 1910, to unite in the exercises of that day, commemorative of the centennial anniversary of the birth of the Rev. Albert Smedes, D. D., founder and first president of St. Mary's School."

The exercises will extend throughout the day. A general program enclosed with this invitation is as follows:

8:00 a. m. Celebration of the Holy Communion in the chapel.
11:00 a. m. Service in the chapel, followed by commemorative exercises in the auditorium. Address by Bishop Strange and Miss McVea.
1:00 p. m. Luncheon in Clement Hall for members of the school, visiting alumnae and invited guests, followed by brief speeches.
3:00 p. m. Meeting of the alumnae in the studio, with action upon very important business.
8:00 p. m. Student musical and dramatic recital in honor of the alumnae in the auditorium.

SMALL IN RHODE ISLAND.

North Carolina Congressman Talks For Inland Waterway.

Providence, R. I., April 13.—Congressman J. Hampton Moore, president of the Atlantic Deepwater Waterways Association, and Congressman John H. Small, of North Carolina, were received at a joint convention of the Senate and House at the State House today. All of the privileges of the floor were extended to the guests. In the party were Governor Pothier, of Rhode Island; Congressman William S. Greene, of the Thirteenth Massachusetts district, and Lieutenant Colonel J. C. Sanford, of the United States Engineers, of New Port.

Representatives Small, of North Carolina, and Greene, of Massachusetts, pleaded that everything possible be done to hasten the completion of the Cape Cod canal, so that transportation between New England and the South could be made quicker and safer.
