Thirteen-year-old Helen mond, daughter of a neighbor, called at the Cannon house at 2:39 and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon with a bunch of flowers for Miss Julia Freeborn, a school teacher, who, with sister of the physician, was the only occupants of the house. Miss Freeborn and Miss Can on, allio A er, were both absent at the time of the double crime. The first time the child called she heard a door inside the house shut, but no one anawered her ring. The second time she went to the basement, According to the story she told the police she heard a scuffe upstairs and a mo ment later a gruff voice which was not the butler's commanded. "Ge away from that door and stop ringing; there's nobody home."

Frightened the child ran away When Dr. Cannon returned home soon afterward, he found the bodies of his housekeeper who had been in his employ 25 years, and the Hindu lying within a few feet of each other

WHOLESALE ARREST

Sensation Occurs in the Town of Kinston.

BLIND TIGERS ARE RAIDED

The Detective Was Ostensibly Organizing a Secret Society - Sweep Caught the Chief Offenders and Some Promient Merchants are Included in the Haul.

Kinston, May 9.-Quite a sense tion was created here this afternoon when a detective made a wholesale arrest of alleged blind tigers, getting about all of the most prominent alleged offenders and among them ome prominent merchants.

For about two weeks the detective has been here with a companion ostensibly organizing a secret society. Today, having got his ducks in a row, he went before Justice of the Peace Peebles and swore out warrants for Mab Laroque, Jr., W. W. Tuten, Charlie Wailer, Henry Williams, Walter Fields, Paul Bond and two women of the Sugar Hill district, Mabel Paige and Hattle Johnson.

The first three named waived examination and were bound over to court under bond. Williams, Fields and Bond will be tried by Justice Peebles tomorrow and the two women have their trial tonight. All of the men were running neareer saloons. The first named is a brother of the mayer of the town. This sweep gets the chief offenders, and it is certain that tiger hunting will be very poor for a time, at least from now.
