NO FREE SPEECH IN WASHINGTON.

The above is the heading of an editorial in the issue of the Independent, of the 19th inst. There is also a lengthy communication on the front page of this paper, in which is given a distorted writeup of Washington and allusions to a recent tragedy which was a subject of the criminal court just ended.

What is known as the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is composed of England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland and some off-coast islands, in all an area of 120,079 square miles, and with a population a little more than one-half that of the United States.

But the United Kingdom has the largest foreign trade of any nation on the globe. Last year her imports were measured by the stupendous sum of $3,120,000,000 and her exports were $1,890,000,000.

With a navy stronger than any other two navies, and with a merchant marine computed at nearly 60 per cent. of the aggregate merchant marines of the entire globe, Great Britain is mistress of the seas for the purposes of war or for purposes of trade.

Since our big war our people have been too busy making railroads and building manufacturing to pay much attention to ocean carriage. Maybe we will look into it after we have devoted some $30,000,000,000 more to internal development.

OVERCOMING DISEASES. The discovery of the cause and probably the remedy of infantile paralysis not only indicates the steady progress of science in fighting disease, but also furnishes an example of the way in which this progress is made by means that have been denounced as inhumane and cruel.

It is no wonder of 1910 and 1911, the cultivation of the moral and intellectual senses of its readers. If it cannot 'burnish' the skin, it will not 'drag' the soul down.

Its news gatherers and its editor have fed fat on these articles of literary food. We think it deeply unfortunate that it persists in this policy, and we implore its managers if it will not relieve the people of the Christian community of its home town of this bad influence, to give us relief.

MEDDLING IN STATE POLITICS

At Washington and in Iowa there is considerable criticism of Senators Dooliver and Cummins because they left the National Capital to take a hand in the political campaign in Iowa. It is contended by their critics that they violated the proprieties.

There is no use to hold up any code of political ethics to Senators and Congressmen when the President of the United States himself, not only takes a hand in the politics of his own State but interferes in the politics of other States.

CANAL EXPOSITION.

The battle between the cities which seek to have an exposition held in their midst along about 1915, when it is anticipated the Panama Canal shall be finished, grows warm and entertaining.

The fight seems to have settled down to one between San Francisco and Washington, D. C., but San Diego, California, a fierce rival of San Francisco, came forward with claims and acridulous remarks and now comes New Orleans with a hot blast.

That was after President Taft said that of an exposition should be held to celebrate the opening of the ditch San Francisco was in his belief the best place to hold it.

WITH THE SHARP-SHOOTERS.

It seems very odd to see in the newspapers a big headline reading: "Colonel Roosevelt denies that he endorsed Taft." It is only two years since things were so different.

John D. Rockefeller wears paper automobile vests. In one way or another John D. is always in the paper.

The river Jordan is to be harnessed by electric light companies and put to commercial use. The Styx, however, is still immune.

Buffalo Bill did not take his Wild West to Europe this year. In the first place, he is too shrewd to overcross the business; and next, he couldn't have made much competing against a free exhibition.

Does the White House need whitewashing? Or will some one step forth to do a little whitewashing for the man in Washington who has so gladly done the same for his friends?

NOTICE.

There will be a called meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Washington, N. C., Tuesday, May 24, 1910, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of voting upon an increase of the capital stock of said bank.

If you're sick and depressed, and all "out of sorts," there's nothing that will so quickly set you right as Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. One package makes over one hundred cups tea.
