

CAPTAIN M. S. MAYO DIES SUDDENLY

News a Shock to the City—Was Pilot in Confederate Navy and Well-Known in Maritime Circles.

The news of the death of Capt. M. S. Mayo was heralded on the streets this morning and it was a shock to the city...

ton to Nassau. At the close of the war he came to Washington and became master of one of the river steamers...

AT THE CHURCHES

First Methodist Church. Morning service 11 o'clock. Evening service 8 o'clock. Presbyterian Church. Morning service 11 o'clock...

OUR MOTHERS BEST

Dr. Kerley Defends—Better One Child, Carefully Bred, Than a Dozen, Ignorant. St. Louis, June 10.—"I deny that the high-strung, thin-grained young American mother is other than the finest specimen of mother in the world..."

SATISFACTORY BILL

Aldrich and Elkins Assure President Taft.

Washington, June 10.—President Taft was assured today by Senators Aldrich and Elkins that a satisfactory railroad bill will come out of conference without any application of the party lash...

IMMIGRATION

And Education the Crying Need of the Old North State Today, Says Editor Clarence Poe.

The following extracts from an address by Clarence Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer and Gazette, before the North Carolina Press Association, Wrightsville, N. C., June 9, 1910, are timely and to the point...

SUPERIOR COURT PROCEEDINGS

State vs. J. Silmen, false pretense. Defendant enters plea of No Lo Contendo, whereupon it is ordered by the court that he pay a fine of 1 penny and costs...

FEELING BETTER

Business Outlook Shows Much Improvement.

Settlement of Railroad Rate Matter Had a Satisfactory Influence Upon Trade Condition of Country—New Business Comes Forward and Better Feeling Exists.

PROGRAMME

Children's Day Exercises at Presbyterian Church Tomorrow. Hymn, "Hosanna Be the Children's Prayer." Scriptural, Responsive reading...

CHADLE ROLL DAY

Tomorrow will be Chadle Roll Day at the Methodist Sunday School. Every member is earnestly requested to be present...

RESERVED SEATS ON SALE MONDAY

Reserved seats will go on sale Monday for the second presentation of "Sylvia" at Brown's opera house Tuesday, June 14.

AT THE GEM TONIGHT, BIOGRAPH ONLY 22 DAYS OLD

An "Auss" of Hestia, Biograph only 22 days old, will be shown at the Gem tonight. In this Biograph comedy is shown the experience of two impulsive-hearted Frenchmen...

RESULTS YESTERDAY

National League. Chicago 6, New York 5. St. Louis-Brooklyn game postponed; wet grounds and cold weather. Cincinnati-Boston game postponed; wet grounds.

LOUISIANA MEMBER WOULD SUPPRESS BRIDGE PLAYING

Baton Rouge, La., June 10.—Representative Derouen has given notice of a bill in the lower house for the "Absolute suppression of bridge whist..."

CONVENTION CALLED

The Democratic Congressional Convention of the First Congressional District of North Carolina is hereby called to meet in Edenton, N. C., on Wednesday, July 6, 1910, at 3 o'clock p. m.

CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Children's day exercises will be held at the First Baptist Church Sunday night, June 12. A very attractive program is being arranged. The music is especially attractive.

A WORTHY CAUSE

To the Members of the Woman's Betterment Association: Remember the Wesson Oil Company has generously promised all the proceeds of the demonstrations next week to our Betterment Association...

IS AMERICA A CHRISTIAN NATION?

Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will preach on the above subject tomorrow night. The sermon will be illustrated by five charts and will be very instructive to those who attend.

WILL SURRENDER NO REFORMS

The President doubtless will have his wish in regard to shortening the period of suspending increased rates. The sixty days of grace before the bill becomes effective will be eliminated either in conference or by joint resolution.

WEDNESDAY

Morehead City, N. C., June 10.—Mr. W. H. Scott and party from Graham, N. C., had very good luck their first day out. They left the hotel in the morning, returning about noon, bringing over 100 trout and blue fish.

GREAT SPORT AT THE ATLANTIC

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clark, of Wilkes, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moorman, of Lynchburg, Va., arrived yesterday to spend some time here fishing. Mr. Clark's reputation as a successful fisherman is acknowledged, and he expects his usual run of luck...

RAT FIGHTS TWO SPARROWS

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 10.—A half-grown rat, evidently escaped from one of the handsome dwellings on Montague street, started yesterday to visit Court street. For a block it ran along the curbing until it reached the Mechanics' Bank Building. There two sparrows saw it, and to the amazement of persons passing, promptly pounced upon it.

WILL HOLD REVIVAL

Rev. J. A. Sullivan will leave for Rocky Mount Monday morning to hold a revival meeting at the Calvary Baptist Church. His family will accompany him.

CALL AGAIN

The editor of the News is indebted to Mr. H. E. Hodges for a box of nice peaches and desires to express appreciation.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Gem Theater. Safety Theater. Mother Gray Powders. Doak's Kidney Pills. Cardui. Rhodium.

TUB SUIT SALE Now On. James E. Clark Co. THE HIGH-ART CLOTHIERS