Hall this morning. The two cases field brought meriment and amuse-ment to the brainners. The first case was State vs. Wilbert Pencock for assaulting Eatelle Moore and Mamie Jones. Jeslousy assessed to play no little part in the disturbance. After bearing all the evidence ine Mayor said $5 and coss. The next case was State vs. Hettle Murphy and Grace Jackson. They were charged with assaulting each other. The trouble grew out of one of the women's husband having a pri-vate talk with one of the participants. The result was that the case, Asts, hair pulling, etc., eccupied no small part. Their evidence, given in before his Honor, was laughable and amus-ing. After being admonished by the Mayor they were fined each $3 and costs.
