

PLEASANT DAY

Will Not Sump Tennessee For the Ticket

HIS ADVICE IS REJECTED

Washington, July 10.—Saying that he sees with dismay that the Democracy of Tennessee is rushing madly to destruction through the bitter discussions, Sen. Robert Taylor yesterday gave out a statement withdrawing his promise to stump the state in the interest of Gov. M. H. Patterson's regular organization judicial ticket. The senator says his action is taken because he cannot inflict his advice where it is rejected in advance.

Raised Storm of Protest. Senator Taylor had agreed to speak in behalf of Patterson and his judicial ticket. This announcement aroused a storm of protest from the friends of the senator, who said they did not care to hear him on that subject. Governor Patterson's pardon of Col. Duncan P. Cooper, who was convicted with his son, Robin Cooper, of the murder of former Sen. E. W. Carmack, is one of the subjects of the emotional differences in the Democracy of the state. Senator Taylor made his statement upon the eve of leaving Washington for a Western lecture. It follows:

Mr. Taylor's Statement. "I have seen with dismay and sorrow that the Democracy of Tennessee is rushing madly to destruction through its bitter discussions, and my impulse was to try to rescue and by persuasion and friendly advice to persuade, if I could, to waive their passions and differences and reunite against their old-time enemy, but I have been convinced by most overwhelming evidence from hundreds of men of all persuasions, all over Tennessee, that my services in that role are not wanted and that instead of accomplishing good, I would add fuel to the flame and widen the breach.

Would Do Harm. "I am, therefore, constrained to withdraw my promise to canvass the State, for I cannot inflict my advice where it is rejected in advance, and when I am assured it will do harm instead of good.

"I am singled out of all Democrats in Tennessee and threatened with political destruction whatever I do or do not do, and now I am ready for the sacrifice, for if my tenure of the high office the people have bestowed upon me depends upon and requires that I shall join either faction of Democrats to fight the other, I will lay it down gladly and retire with at least a conscience void of offense against my party or my people.

"This must not be taken as receding in any respect from the position I have announced; for there can be no safety except in organization and obedience to constituted authority." (Signed) "ROBT. L. TAYLOR."

QUICK WORK

Church Built and Dedicated at Pine-town in Three Weeks as Result of a Meeting.

Rev. Mr. Tingle has just closed a most successful meeting at Pine-town, three weeks ago Mr. Tingle, of the Christian Church, began a revival at Pine-town, and when the meeting closed there had been 55 additions to the church. During the meeting a church was erected and dedicated. The new church organization has started work under the most auspicious circumstances.

PLEASANT DAY

Co. G Had 24 Hours' Encampment at Tranter's Creek.

The local military command spent Saturday night and Sunday in camp on Tranter's Creek, returning yesterday at 6:30 p. m. The trip was a success. It is reported from a viewpoint of beneficial instruction and practice, and the men displayed great willingness, doing guard work all night and drill all day yesterday. Some hardships were experienced, the men being troubled with mosquitoes and snakes, and one of the latter was killed while in the act of crawling over a sleeping man's leg. The reptile was a popular-heat of about a foot and a half in length. A necklace was made of captured ticks of some inches in length, the accomplishment of one of the men skilled with the needle, and to which everyone furnished his quota of insects. The creek was used by the men freely for bathing, and heroism was displayed by one of the non-commissioned men in the rescue of an inefficient swimmer who had gone under the water twice when he was reached. Maj. W. G. Rodman and O. B. Wynne (retired) and Capt. Ross (retired) visited the camp yesterday, and they, with several civilian guests, were dined by the company officers.

VOTE OF THANKS

The Woman's Betterment Association Appreciate Interest of Citizens.

At the recent meeting of the Woman's Betterment Association a vote of thanks was given to the following who so kindly lent us their assistance during the week of demonstration, given under auspices of Mrs. Baughman, for use of room; the band, for furnishing music; the Southern Furniture Company, for use of tables and glassware; the Jefferson Furniture Company, for chinaware; the Masonic Lodge, for their silver; the Klks, for use of tables and chairs; the Washington Daily News, for advertisements, notices, etc.; Mr. E. R. Nixon, for carriage placed at disposal of committee and the various courtesies shown us by him; Mr. Rhodes, for window decorations and arranged by him; Mr. Joe Taylor, for use of coffee urn; the young ladies who waited so ably in serving and furnishing music; the Southern Oil Company, for their liberality and courtesies to us, and the people of Washington who patronized us so liberally. All these we thank most heartily.

A WARNING

Keeper of the Buoy Yard Warns Parents to Keep Children Off Dock.

Unless the parents of young boys keep them away from the dock at the government yard, some accident is bound to happen to them, according to the views of the custodian. Only last week several young swimmers came near being drowned. The parents should instruct their boys to keep away from this dock. The water there is deep and treacherous.

MAYOR'S COURT

There was only one case before the mayor this morning at the City Hall for trial. Veda Cherry was indicted for being drunk. He was fined $2 and costs.

FINE TOMATOES.

Mr. J. B. Latham is proving to be the champion tomato raiser in this section. He had on exhibition at the News office this morning tomatoes that would average a pound a piece.

PREACHED AT WILLIAMSTON

Rev. Mr. Crowell, pastor of the Payne Memorial Presbyterian Church in Nicholsonville, filled the pulpit at Williamston Sunday morning and evening to the delight of that congregation.

RECITAL

Will Take Place at the First Methodist Church Next Friday Evening.

Rev. M. T. Pyle, pastor of the First Methodist Church, announced to the congregation Sunday morning that the organ recital would be given next Friday evening. Professor Freeman, organist of St. John's Episcopal Church, Washington, D. C., will give the recital. Professor Freeman drew plans and specifications of the instrument being installed here, and the committee of the church will not receive the organ from Mr. Moler, the builder, until Mr. Freeman says it is alright. Some of Washington's local musical talent is expected to assist in the recital. The recital will be free; that is to say, there will be no admission fee taken at the door, but it is expected that everyone will contribute towards the recital, as an offering will be taken. The occasion is being looked forward to with pleasure by the entire city. All who have seen the new instrument pronounce it a beauty in appearance. Mr. Eugene Bonner, an expert organist, says it is one of the latest in appointment he has seen.

INSTALLATION

Officers Will Be Installed at Wigwam of Tau Tribe This Evening.

The following officers will be installed by the Improved Order of Red Men this evening at their wigwam, after which refreshments will be served: J. J. Johnston, prophet; A. C. Harrison, sachem; N. L. Holton, junior, senior sagamore; E. F. Butler, junior sagamore; T. W. Phillips, keeper of wigwam; W. H. McDevett, chief of records; Tau Tribe now has on its roster 174 members and is the largest tribe in North Carolina.

TONIGHT AT THE GAIETY

Another Feature Picture Program—A Genuine Biography.

"A Victim of Jealousy" (showing it to be the worst of human weaknesses). This subject shows the unreasonableness of a person possessed with this, what might be termed disease. The young husband's irrational jealousy makes him suspicious of every attention bestowed upon his young wife, making her life as well as his own almost unbearable. There are many incidents shown to impress him what a fool he is until finally when his wife's patience has been tried to the extreme, and she threatens to leave him, he is awakened and realizes his weakness.

"All on Account of a Laundry Mark" is a genuinely funny farce. The comic scenes of this picture cannot be described. They are simply great.

"Fortune's Fool" is another good comedy.

"Her Sister's Sin," which is a beautiful and pathetic story, has a "way down deep in the heart" emotional interest.

This is an all around good program, and you should be with the crowd at the Gaiety tonight.

THE GEM.

The Gem opens this week with a strong bill. "The Miner and Camille" is a humorous film, having as its theme the vigorous action of a halber who sees Camille for the first time and jumps upon the stage and throws Armond off bodily when he is upbraiding Camille. The picture is humorous in its action, and the excellent work of the Edison players and the clear photography make it an attractive picture. "Ready in a Minute" is a novel comedy based upon the declaration of a pretty girl in a pretty gown that she must change it for a prettier gown before going to the theater, but she will be ready in a minute. The picture is one of those subtly humorous productions which prove how well adapted the motion picture is to express anything really funny. "A Case of Identity" is a detective story of considerable strength, well staged and well acted. The story is well told and sufficiently strong to hold great interest, like many of the Edison dramas. There is a quality difficult to define yet plainly apparent to every one who sees it. Other good pictures will be shown. On Wednesday evening a benefit will be given for the Washington Concert Band. Children wishing to sell tickets for same may call at Bell's Jewelry store. Prizes will be given each child selling $2 worth of tickets. Music will be rendered by the band. Duets are on the program by Miss Anco Bright and Miss Ada Rhodes, well-known vocalists who made such a decided hit in the opera Sylvia rendered here recently.

DOES ADVERTISING PAY?

Those doubting this query should have visited the store of J. K. Hoyt Saturday and seen the rush at his Economy-day sale. It was almost impossible for patrons to be waited on. Mr. Hoyt used the columns of The Daily News in making announcements and the result to him was more than satisfactory. As an advertising medium this paper stands unsurpassed.

RIOT AFTERMATH

Ohio Mob Sought to Kill Two Men

ITALIAN INTENDED VICTIM

Governor Harmon is returning to the State to investigate the trouble. It is believed the Mayor and Sheriff will be removed—Several Have Left.

Newark, Ohio, July 10.—With the town quieted from its frenzy, that ended in the lynching of Carl Etherington, "dry" detective, the city authorities tonight are making preparations for the aftermath.

Mayor Herbert Atherton announced that if the Anti-Saloon League sent another raiding party here he would declare martial law and call upon Governor Harmon for troops.

"If Harmon attempts to remove me I will fight him to the last ditch," declared Mayor Atherton.

Judge C. M. Seward of the common pleas court, stated tonight that he might call a special grand jury Monday to investigate the lynching.

The mayor tonight ordered $2 "soft drink" places closed until after order is restored.

It is declared now that three negroes led the lynching party. The three colored men have left town, it is said. Others implicated but when it became known that Governor Harmon is returning to investigate.

It is declared today that last night's mob was after two prisoners instead of one. Frank Ame, an Italian, who was charged with assaulting an iron moulder, was the other intended victim. While the mob was searching the jail for him he hid under his cot. The lynchers left, the second rope intended for him lying on the floor of his cell.

The body of young Etherington will be sent to his old home in Kentucky Sunday morning.

Columbus, O., July 10.—Although Governor Harmon has sent word that he will arrive in Columbus at noon tomorrow from Charlevoix, Mich., he has not given his secretary, Geo. S. Long, any intimation of what action he will take with reference to Friday night's lynching at Newark. Among prophecies made here today is one that he would seek to remove both Sheriff Linke and Mayor Atherton.

Prosecutor Smythe said today at Newark that he would use every means at his disposal to bring those guilty of mob violence to justice. The commissioners of Lincoln county have offered a reward of $1,000 for the detection and conviction of persons connected with the lynching.

ANNIVERSARY

Rev. J. A. Sullivan Celebrates His Third Natal Day Yesterday.

Yesterday was a fine day with the Baptists in Washington. At the hour of morning worship Dr. J. Hen. Highsmith, of Wake Forest College, who is here to conduct an institute for the teachers of Beaufort county, preached a splendid sermon. His subject was, "The Higher Life." Those who were fortunate enough to hear Dr. Highsmith were charmed with his discourse. The speaker showed that the first step toward the higher life was the realization of our fitness, physically, intellectually and morally for the vocation we may choose. By many apt illustrations, he showed the necessity of launching out upon the voyage of discovery to find self, and in finding self to find our life-work.

A second step toward the higher life was a full and complete surrender of ourselves to God. Without this step we cannot realize the higher ideals which have marked the success of most of our greatest men.

The third step toward the higher life was the realization of the presence of God in all our efforts. No life will succeed that supposes all the successes in life the result of mere chance. No life happens to succeed, but is the result of careful preparation, assisted by the beneficent presence of God.

The sermon made a profound impression, and the congregation is very fortunate in having Dr. Highsmith to preach at both services next Sunday in the absence of the pastor.

The evening service was in the nature of an anniversary. The pastor, Rev. J. A. Sullivan, has completed three years' work. During this time the church has made splendid progress along many lines. The membership is larger than it has ever been. The church raises considerably more money than ever before for its various objects. The congregations are usually very large considering the size of the membership.

A feature of the service last night was the roll call of members. Nearly every member of the church was accounted for.

One of the most pleasing incidents was a paper presented by the efficient clerk of the church, Mr. Thos. J. Latham. He has been clerk of the church for about 16 years, and it is safe to say that no more faithful church recorder can be found anywhere. His paper was a series of reminiscences during and preceding his connection with the church. There was a vein of humor running through the paper, and at the same time a note of pathos, in the hard and checked career of the church. Statistics presented by Mr. Latham showed that the church had been steadily growing from the time of its reorganization in 1869 from 11 members to its present strength of 186 members. Many expressed themselves as highly pleased with the historical value of the paper.

After the paper by Mr. Latham, Dr. Highsmith thrilled the congregation with a solo, "Do You See the Hebrew Captive?" The simplicity and ease with which he impresses the audience and his earnestness removes every indication of affectation. After the service he remained and at the request of those present, sang several more selections.

By no means was the least number on the program a brief address by Rev. G. W. Coppedge, of Henderson. He is father to our esteemed young citizen, Mr. C. C. Coppedge, whom he is visiting. Mr. Coppedge began by showing the exceeding love of God, which should call forth our most grateful service. His remarks were very much enjoyed. It was evident the speaker was trying to speak briefly, and did not have time to develop fully the thoughts which he could merely suggest. The pastor invited Mr. Coppedge to visit Washington again soon, and speak again on the subject which he so beautifully introduced.

After the regular service, the Lord's Supper was celebrated, and the largest number of communicants in the present pastorate participated in the celebration. The service closed by singing "Blest be the Tie."

WEEK-END SALE.

The Week-End Sale at the store of James E. Clark Co. Saturday was a great success. Mr. Clark, the proprietor, states that the sale proved more successful than he anticipated. This is another instance where a liberal use of printer's ink in The Daily News pays.

BINGHAM SCHOOL. The Bingham School, whose area of patronage during its 117th year extended from New York, Canada, Montana, and California, to Florida, Texas and Mexico, refuses pupils every year for want of room. Its safety against fire and exclusion of hazing and drinking, through its inviolable pledge of honor enforced by the boys themselves, attract both parents and pupils. Its climate, sanitation, ventilation and fare secure an average gain of 19 pounds a year. Address Col. R. Bingham, Asheville.

CHAMPION WILLING

Johnson Will Give Jeffries Another Go.

WILL FIGHT LABOR DAY

Thinks Jeffries Was Not at His Best on July 4, and Does Not Want His Superiority Questioned—No Quarrel Over the Purse—Would Give Jeff Another Chance.

Chicago, July 10.—Jack Johnson, the pugilist, Saturday to a report that the great rival was seeking to give Jeffries another chance for the championship if he wants it. "I'll meet him at Reno on Labor day if that suits him."

"I don't believe that Jeffries was in as good condition on July 4 as he was two weeks before that, and for that reason I am willing to give him a chance," said the champion. "I don't want any dispute about my superiority. If they want to fix a fight for Labor day at Reno I will do my part, and there won't be any quarrel about the division of the purse, either."

Johnson took occasion to reiterate his charge that a former manager of Jeffries to "fix" the fight for the sum of $200,000 providing I would bet half of it that Jeffries would win in the eighth round. He knew he could not get that sum back by betting on the outcome, and so wanted it fixed for a certain round. And there were a lot of people led to believe that I had been "fixed." One Chicago theater manager, I have been told, lost many thousands of dollars. He should have known better. I don't want to be president of the United States because I couldn't hold the job, but I did wish to be champion. There isn't money enough to compensate for the loss of that."

IS RATE EXCESSIVE? Washington, N. C., July 4th, 1910. Mr. B. H. Thompson, Aurora, N. C.

Dear Sir:—I am informed by the Corporation Commission that you have complained at our passenger rate of 3c. per mile, and also at the car afforded colored passengers. I presume that your complaint as to the rate does not proceed from any ill will toward us, but doubtless you were under the impression that all railroads were only allowed to charge 2 1/2c. two years after construction. The law is that independently owned and operated companies may charge not to exceed 3c. per mile where the mileage does not exceed one hundred miles in this State. I think you will agree with me that we are entitled to continue charging this rate for the reason that during the first year of our operations we earned only 50 per cent. of operating expenses and during the last year, which ended June 30, we have earned operating expenses, but have been unable to pay one penny on our bonded indebtedness, on the contrary we have had to borrow the money to pay the interest on our bonds, so that the stockholders, who are the owners of the property, have received nothing and will receive nothing for a long time to come. If you will not accept this statement as correct, I will be glad to show you the monthly statements for the past two years of our receipts and expenditures, and I think you will then be satisfied that the rate is not excessive. The rate ought to be reduced as soon as the road begins to earn anything, but you will agree that the stockholders ought to be entitled to six per cent. on their money, when as a matter of fact they have received nothing, but on the contrary have had to borrow money to pay interest on the bonds. With this explanation, I hope you will withdraw your complaint as to the rate, and the colored passenger car will be improved.

Yours very truly, A. D. MACLEAN
