

POLITICAL FREEDOM AND INDEPENDENCE

An Omen of Good Times When so Many Good Men are Aspiring for Office in County, Says Writer.

Not in years have I seen the names of so many aspirants to the various county offices in our county papers. This is very gratifying to me. It looks like freedom and independence. In support of my two-term theory I give some of my reasons why I think it best for the people and individuals.

ISSUE STATEMENT PLEASANT EVENING

Roosevelt Will Set at Rest all Doubt as to His Position.

THE NEW YORK SITUATION

Teddy, Although He Intimated He Was Out of Politics, Seems to Have Forgotten His Statement.

OLD OFFICERS

Not Favorable to the Two-Term Policy.

Mr. Editor:—Will you publish the following?

Politics, politics. New candidates galore. Asking for two terms in office. And positively nothing more.

But put them on a salary. Pay them certain cash. Give them two terms in office. Then settle up their hash.

But there is Gilbert Rumley. A man that's hard to beat. And if Mayo goes up against him He will surely meet defeat.

Brother Nixon is a good one. And he is doing about; But he'll have to be up and doing To beat old Joste out.

Then give us Gaylord for commissioner. George A. Paul for clerk. J. F. Latham to represent us. And their duty they'll never shirk.

PROFESSOR FREEMAN GIVES OPENING RECITAL ON NEW ORGAN.

Large Number Attend the Opening of the New Organ at the First M. E. Church—The Recital Charms Everyone—The New Instrument is Much Praised.

A SPLENDID INSTRUMENT

The much talked-of organ recital took place at the First Methodist Church last evening, being conducted by Mr. Henry H. Freeman, organist and choirmaster of St. John's Episcopal Church and instructor in church organ playing in the University of Music and Dramatic Art, Washington, D. C.

The opening of the new organ, which was built by M. P. Moler, of Hagerstown, Md., the plans and specifications of which were drawn by Mr. Freeman, was an event of unusual interest for music lovers of the city.

Mr. Roosevelt today accepted an invitation to attend the Appalachian Exposition to be held in Knoxville, Tenn., from September 15 to October 13 of this year.

Mr. Roosevelt today accepted an invitation to attend the Appalachian Exposition to be held in Knoxville, Tenn., from September 15 to October 13 of this year.

In a statement issued by the Outlook today it is declared that the trip of Colonel Roosevelt to Cheyenne, Wyo., for the Frontier Day celebration will be made under the auspices of "The Outlook" in a private car provided by that publication.

Two of Mr. Roosevelt's calls today were Herbert Parsons, formerly chairman of the New York republican county committee, and Sen. J. Mayhew Wainwright, of Chester, both of whom afterwards declared their talks were informal and of no political significance.

AN ECCENTRIC WILL. Young Boy Begins to Carry Out Its Provisions.

Chicago, July 15.—Robert St. George Dyrnforth, heir to $500,000 under the freak will of his grandfather, Col. Robert Dyrnforth, began today his actual training to meet the conditions so far as possible made by the eccentric old soldier.

IN PREPARATION FOR THE COURSE OF sprouts the boy was taken to the country for a long rest. Then he is to enter a military training school, probably the Culver Military Academy, at Culver, Ind.

THE GEM. The Gem offers its patrons tonight a program of great interest: "Called to Sea"—a picture that will make a profound impression, since it illustrates at once the grandeur of the sea, when it is dashed in tempests by the violent winds, and the bravery of rescuers who go out to save the crew of a sinking vessel.

GAIETY THEATER. There will be three full reels of pictures shown at the Gaiety tonight, all of which are out of the ordinary good. The first, "The Princess and The Peacock" is a drama filled with thrilling situations, beautiful scenery, and picturesque costuming, which teems with all the atmosphere and romance of the past.

DOUBLE YOUR BUSINESS—LET IN THE SUNLIGHT. Suppose you knew a man who kept his shades drawn tight all day and burned kerosene instead of letting in the sunlight?

GENERAL SMASHUP. A collision between two runaway horses on Market street this morning played havoc with eggs, butter, flour, meat, etc. The debris was a sight to behold.

PROSPECTS GOOD. Through a private source the Daily News learns that the series of meetings now being held at Fairfield by Rev. J. A. Sullivan of this city bids fair to be a success.

TO ERECT RESIDENCES. Several residences are to be erected at an early day in Nicholsville on the property sold at auction some weeks back.

SOME FACTS

How the Nomination Was Made for Solicitor in Edenton.

The Judicial convention held in Edenton last week developed some facts which were not generally known.

The north side of the sound was lined up against the south side, and against Beaufort county especially.

The vote on the first ballot was: Ehringhaus, 57; McMullan, 42; Simmons, 36; Daniels, 28.

After this ballot was taken Hyde county cast its solid vote for Simmons and until the 23d ballot the vote stood, Ehringhaus, 54; McMullan, 42; Simmons, 41; Daniels, 26.

Mr. Daniels then in a most appropriate speech withdrew, by so doing he made many new friends.

On the 23d ballot the vote was: Ehringhaus, 56; McMullan, 43; Simmons, 64. Each ballot showed practically the same results until Thursday night about 12 o'clock, when Chowan gave Simmons seven votes and the ballot taken showed Ehringhaus, 54; McMullan, 36; Simmons, 72. Simmons was within 9-2 votes of the nomination.

The Ehringhaus forces, anticipating the nomination of Simmons, made a motion to adjourn. The motion failed, and it was made a second time and failed.

About 50 of the delegates residing in Elizabeth City and Hertford left for their homes, thereby forcing the chairman to adjourn.

It seemed to be the consensus of opinion among the Simmons and McMullan delegates that Simmons would have been nominated had the convention remained in session a short time longer.

Friday morning when the change in the vote and it remained about the same until 7 p. m. Friday, when McMullan in a very orate speech, in keeping with his ability as an orator, withdrew and his forces cast their vote for Ehringhaus, nominating him with a vote of 97-1-2 against Simmons' 66-1-2.

It was strictly a locality fight against Beaufort county.

After the convention had adjourned congratulations were extended to the successful candidate, and all promised true allegiance to the party and that they would enter into the campaign with renewed courage and would win a victory of which the First District would be proud.

TO LEAVE MONDAY NIGHT. Company G, under the command of Capt. R. B. Cowell, will leave for the annual encampment of the Second North Carolina Infantry at Morehead City, Tuesday morning, where they will remain in camp a week. Col. H. Churchhill Bragaw and Maj. Wiley C. Rodman will leave at the same time.

CHILD DEAD. Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dudley today and took sweet little Ina May, their 3-year-old daughter. For several weeks she has been ill with typhoid fever, and at one time it was thought she would be spared, but the angel came and she has gone to sweet heaven. She was a bright and interesting little girl and was popular among her many playmates. The entire city sympathizes with the broken-hearted parents in their sad hour. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon from the residence on Harrey street.

WHEAT CROP IS A SPLENDID ONE

The yield of the mountain orchards is phenomenal—Ears of corn not filling out properly—Peach crop good.

WHEAT CROP IS A SPLENDID ONE

The state department of agriculture that reports from various sections of the North Carolina cotton belt indicate a stand of cotton that is especially responsive to good weather conditions, although the plants are two to three weeks late. And that with fair weather conditions for the remainder of the season, helped up with a reasonably late fall, will enable the farmers to get an average yield. Advice to the department as to the corn crop indicate prospects for rather poor yield owing to the fact that the ears are not filling out as they should.

The wheat crop just harvested is reported to be unusually fine as to both the yield and the quality of the grain. The yield of what are known as summer apples in the semi-mountain section of the State is reported to be phenomenal. An unfortunate condition is that there seem to be no adequate markets for the fruit, the growers being cut off even from the erstwhile resort to selling them to distillers or making brandy of them for themselves. Greater quantities than usual are being dried and otherwise prepared for preservation. But the great bulk of the crop goes to waste. Blight is exceptionally widespread among apple orchards in the central and eastern farms in the State. The peach crop is generally good, with exceptional yields in this immediate section.

ROBBER HOLDS UP AND ROBS BANK

Chicago, July 15.—A daring robber held up Jesse Binga, as he opened the door of his private bank this morning and at the point of a revolver compelled Binga to give him $2,000. He fled to State street, where a mob of citizens took up the chase. The man was captured and stabbed several times and was about to be lynched at a lamp post when the police interfered.

THREATENED WITH FAMINE

Campbellton, N. J., July 15.—Three thousand homeless persons are now threatened with famine here, as the result of the town's destruction by fire. Temporary shacks are insufficient; the militia tents promised are anxiously awaited.

GOVERNMENT WANTS A DUMMY

Colonel Mosby's offense seems to simmer down to the fact that when he was ordered to get evidence against certain sharks that sought to exploit government lands in the West he proceeded to obey orders, and in obeying them unearthed facts that made it ugly for certain people of a certain kind of influence and prominence.
