BEAUFORT FARMERS' EDUCATIONAL DAY

Farmers from all Sections of the County were Here Yesterday to Hear Experts—Good Roads, the Soil, Tobacco, Drainage, Cotton, etc., were Ably Discussed—The Farmers Aroused.

Yesterday was a great occasion for the farmers of Beaufort county. They were here from all sections of the county to attend the Farmers' Educational and Good Roads Meeting.

Some amount of vetch. The best method of inoculation is to take soil from a plot of ground where crimson clover has been grown and distribute it over the land where it is desired to grow crimson clover.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. John H. Small, who explained its meaning and purpose.

Mr. Boykin is a speaker of magnetism and charmed his hearers from the beginning. He had a great subject— one that is claiming the attention of every county in North Carolina today.

Mr. J. R. Campbell, general agent of the Farmers' Co-operative Demonstration Work, U. S. Department of Agriculture, was the first speaker.

Mr. L. E. Boykin, of the Bureau of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture, was the next speaker.

Mr. Campbell said that crimson clover is the best cover crop for Eastern North Carolina. It would pay better to buy crimson clover seed at $15 per bushel than to purchase guano.

Mr. B. H. Thompson, one of Beaufort county's best farmers, had on exhibition at the meeting two stalks of corn that measured 12 feet in height.

The Second Regiment Association, a sub-division of the National Guard Association, composed of about 50 officers of the Second North Carolina Infantry, will meet in Washington in October in annual session.

It might be "Is kissing dangerous?" "Well, I wouldn't try it on an athletic girl without her consent."

It is again figuring in Ohio politics. By noticing the side that he gets on it should be easy for other Ohio people to get on the right side.

Senator Aldrich wants to know "who are the people?" He has lived so long under the wings of protection interests that he can't see the people for the trusts.

To our shame we admit that there are times when party solidarity does not seem so paramount to us as a second piece of huckleberry pie.
