WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24, 1910.

Parties leaving town should not fail to let the News follow them daily with the news of Washington fresh and crisp. It will prove a valuable companion, reading to you like a letter from home.

All articles sent to The News for publication must be signed by the writer, otherwise they will not be published.

Snakes.

Of all kind provisions of nature perhaps the manner in which snakes are brought into the world is the most remarkable. As a rule, all harmless snakes are hatched from eggs, arriving in batches of from thirty to eighty.

A Question of Ownership.

"Are you the man who advertises 'Own your own home'?" said the dejected looking caller. "I am," answered the real estate dealer.

Russia Leather.

When Marshall Jewell was minister to Russia he discovered the secret of making Russia leather by his sense of smell. The Russians use birch bark tar in dressing skins instead of tallow and grease.

Animals and Climbing.

Bears can climb well if little, but the grizzly and other large species stay mainly on the ground. A bear always climbs a tree backward, as does the domestic cat until she has nearly reached the ground, when she turns and jumps.

Hugo and His Disciple.

A youth, once an admirer of the great poet, attended one of Victor Hugo's recitations, became engaged in argument and lost his temper. Hugo solemnly rebuked him, and he subsided. Presently the guests retired.

People Who Used to Eat Spiders.

The enjoyment of particular kinds of food is, after all, a matter of custom, and the African who revels in white ants is no more peculiar in his tastes than the European who eats cheese mites.

A Hopeless Case.

Winks—Jinks never sees the point of a joke. Blinks—No; he is usually the butt of it.—New York Herald.

A NOBLE WORK.

It is beautiful to model a statue and give it life. To mold an intelligence and mold with therein is still more beautiful.—Victor Hugo.

But They Didn't.

Mrs. Nagitt—I don't feel like myself tonight. Mr. Nagitt—Then we ought to have a very pleasant evening.

SUPPORT THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

and help advertise, and we will increase the population of our town and county, making better business. Join the Chamber of Commerce.

It is Important TO THE MERCHANT

That He Should Be A GOOD ADVERTISER

Good ADVERTISER

But it is also Very Important to His Patrons

THAT HE SHOULD BE

The buying public has a distinct interest in whether or not a merchant advertises.

For it's an economic truth that only the merchant who advertises can afford to offer actual values--to make concessions that are really competitive--to do business on the smallest possible per sale profit.

The buying public has come to know this, to know that the buyer has a direct interest in the question of whether the seller advertises.

The buying public has come to know that the buyer pays the penalty of patronizing the non-progressive store, where a small volume of sales makes large per sale profits inevitable.

It has come, therefore, to be a matter of personal interest to a prospective buyer as to whether he or she is dealing with a progressive or with a non-progressive merchant.

This personal interest is a purse-interest, no we didn't say "personal" interest, and therefore comes nearer home than the mere matter of pride in preferring to buy at a LIVE STORE.

Although that sort of pride somewhat generally held by the people of a city, is what makes the town worth living in--worth doing business in--worth believing in.
