Ladies' Misses and Children's Sweaters

The best values ever offered in these lines bought direct from the mills. Prices 49c, to $7.98.

Fine Attraction

Washington's Favorite Playhouse

As heretofore the Galety has stood out for all that is pure and wholeto the gants of the people, and met with the approval of all In holding up their standards they have achieved their reputation above all expertations,

Besides the "Blind Quartette," which has gladdened the hearts of both old and young for the past few weeks, the management has put forth every effort to give the public the best pictures possible and have summer would above did expectations.

program for tenight, not un-be splendid one of last night, deals in the soul touching plight of a

1. "A Hunting Story"-A palata- plause. ble Comedy, and, as the name signifles, is a worthy success to the timeof program will be made. A traves-

"A trip Through Brazil" (Urbnn) - A scenic production of merit, presenting numerous pictorial features of Brazil, well worth seeing.

3 "The Gum Shoe Kid." (Urban) 3 "The Gum Shoe Kid." (Urban) motion picture acreen. The long A detective story, representing a boy story is well itold. Month as performing remarkable Western Drama. in his Tree Sheriff -- Tom Lawton Citting. the two men rendered their fronti-impossible. When votes from he and estond the law.

awyon becomes involved in trou-and a warrant for his arrest is tire change of program for tomorplaced in the hinds of his political row night enemy for service. Thus we see the stalmart Mason standing between Pa love and duty; for the sake of the gud he loves he permits Lawton to escape, but not without its attending mishaps.

"HUMAN HEARTS

The powerful and impressive melisma "Haman Hearts," presented an exceptionally strong company players will be offered to the noand wholesome in melodrama on the of the opera house one nigh orly on Friday Sept. 16 "Human Hearts" has been firmly established as one of the riginal and interesting of modern

The author has long been famous as a playwright, but in the present twice, he has surpassed all his incomplity, or nath and well-

Muslin Corset

Covers 10c.

Sc. Mercerized Suitings suitable for Lad-its' and Children's Dresses

One lot of it mants, red and white Cal-

12 1-2c, C. T. N. Curtain Swiss large small white dots beautiful quality...

He has produced a work of magnifi-He has produced a work of magnifi-cent possibilities for a melodramatic "A HUNTIN STORY" — A Lively public The characters are finely drawn, "THE SHERIFF" - An exciting the dialogue is crisp, the human interest is all absorbing, the comedy . charming and the pathos is sincere.

Taken on its entirety, "Humigated A TRIP THROUGH BRAZIL" Hearts' is probably one of the strongest plays of its kind ever shown on the American stage.

THE GEM THEATRE

Last Chance to See Four Musical Republican rule again. Woods in "Night Before Christmas"-Entire Change Tomorrow

Tonight the Four Musical Woods present for the last time their catchy novelty musicul sketch. "The Night Before Christmas ' This on. Shoriff, who does his duty, regard-act has made a tremendous hit and less of the love he bears for his is said by a great many to be the reetheart.

The program for tonight is as folwas:

best comedy sketch over seen in Washington. Each and every musical number has received great ap-honored "Fish Story" told at every ty in which entirely new instruments fireside. The following pictures will be shown tonight:

'Mid the Cannons' Roar-One of Mid the Cannons' Roar—One of depressed, suffers backachs, head-the best war pictures ever put on a ache, dizzy spells and urinary disor-

One Can't Believe One's Own stinuts in the way of tracking crim-locals. Eyes—A few hirs of diever acting locals. Trailed to the Hills"-An ex- ous Colonel that he was mistaken

Mason were rival canti-office of County Sheriff, the court of Portugal during the fourteenth contury. The costuming, staging and acting are excepconfig attractive.

Homember tonight will be the last impossible. When votes themender tonight will be the last claime to see the "Night Before Christmas, and parents should let all children who have not seen this sestion the law on becomes involved in trou-

Pamlico Convention.

The Democratic county conven tion for Pamilico county met at Baycents. Foster-Milburn. Co., Buffalo, boro yesterday and nominated the
New Tork, sole agents for the Unit-

For Representative-Z. V. Raw-

For Clerk of Court F. C. Bris-For Register of Deeds-C. S

For Sheriff-Alex H. Stephens

For Coroner—G. W. Bristoe. For Surveyor—J. T. Taylor. For Commissioners—A. B. (en. Carl Woolard and James Pot-

The starm of five was sounded this morning about noon. The derement responded promptly. loved to be a small dwelling on Vashington itself belonging to EH of stage rad denotes a mater of the radical part of stage rad denotes a mater of stage rad denotes a mater of in radical pass. The such stage rad denotes a mater of the radical pass. The such stage radical pass are such stages as the such stages are such stages. Yery little damage was

The Biggest Bargain Opportunity

Ever Heard of For

Friday and Saturday

Come! Consider and Compare These Prices!

Oc. pockets....

6c. Special Pillow Cases 42x36

4c. 59c. Bleached Sheets full size, made of 39c.

10c. Dress Ginghams and Chambreys in

15c. White Lawn Tea Aprons with

SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM BY THE BLIND BOYS

TRAILED TO THE HILLS" -

Western druma "THE GUM SHOE KID"-A Good

scenic educational picture. Prices the same, 5 and 10 cents

One district in Vermont went Democratic last Tuesday for the first time in 50 years. Better late than We hope another half cenmry will pass before its relapse to

If rumor is to be believed the Republicans will seen have in operation the newspaper which they have o long wished for.

When it is disguised as lemonade

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Trouble. May Be Sapping Your Life Away. Washington People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or wans begins to rua down without appar ent cause, becomes weak languid ders, kidney weakness may be to cause of it all. Keep the kidneys we! and they will keep you well. Doan'. Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keen them well. Can Washington readers demand further proof that the following statement:

J. Frank Powell, West Tarboro, N C., says: "Last spring I had an at-tack of La Grippe and after that, suffered from backache and pains across my lains. If I stooped or liftbody, causing me great misery. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and I procured a box. I can say that they gave me more relief than any other remedy I had ever tried. The use of one box removed all symptoms of my trouble and I have not had a return of them Doan's Kidney Pills have certainly done me a great deal of good and consequently (am pleaced to recommend them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn. Co., Buffalo, ed States.

Remember the name-Donn's

Gem Theatre

See The 4 Woods

the Gem Tonight

The subjects carefully selected and including the work of the leading American and European producers Visit the Gem tonight, Washington's old reliable play house

25c. Fancy Pillow

Tops 10c.

Her Auto Ride

The Best Laid Plans Go AWIY.

By CLARISSA MACKIE. Copyright, 1930, by American Press

Annabelle Dayton in her smart little motorear paused at the summit of the hill and drew a sharp breath of appreciation. A line of distant thue indicated the sen. In the Freground were green clad slopes running down to snowy beaches. The roofs of the village pointed up among the trees, and a church spire gleamed like fire. There were white sails beyond and There were white sails beyond and the black drift of smoke from a passing steamer.

"This is lots better than going to Aunt Edith's poky musicale," sighed Annabelle mutinously. "Just fancy spending this giorious afternoon in a spending this glorious afternoon in a lighted drawing room liatening to the great Alvan Eldred. 'master of the violin,' and being distilusioned by long hair, greasy coat collar and a pervad-ing presence of gurite!" Annabelle's dainty nose anifted scornfully at her imaginary portrait of the great violin-lat of whom her aunt had raved for weeks.

weeks.
"I'm going down, down to the very

"I'm going down, down to the xery edge of the sea."
As the machine sped downward Annabelle was suddenly conscious that something was wrong. The brakes did not respond to her frantic pressure, the levers grated harshly without effect, and there was an unfamiliar crunting sound from beneath her feet. She had been down this same hill many times before, slowly, cautiously. She knew that from the foot of the hill the street ran down/to the water's exign at the broad dock where edge, ending at the broad dock where dge, ending at the broad dock wher boats landed.

Nothing could stop her speed unles

Annobelle turned the steering wheel and a sigh of relief fluttered from her lips as the machine responded, but there was no lessening of the mad speed. Wildly it tore through the open gateway, ground into the hard packed earth of the drive, skidded along a muddy spot under the trees, left the drive and pounded along soft green turf, miraculously avoiding tree trunks, making straight for the large brown house set in the midst of the grounds.

Another twist of the wheel and the Another twist of the wheel and the house seemed to gillde past. Before fire was a distant blur of gorgeous colors—a flower garden in the midst of which was a summer house. To the left was a turfy bank. Her head dropped on her hands that clutched the wheel, and she closed her eyes and prayed.

the wheel, and she closed her eyes and prayed.

There was a low shout beside her; the machine joited under additional weight; a pair of strong hands gripped the wheel from hers; there was the pressure of brakes; the motor slowed suddenly, bumped into some obstruc-tion and then bounded back to a stand-attil. still.

"It's all over now," said a kindly house still creaking from the force of encounter, on the crushed flowers she had mowed down and lastly into the countenance of a mnn who sat beside was then that Annahelle realized

It was then that Annabelle realized that she was holding the stranger in a fraintic embrace, her hands tightly classed about his neck, her fair haad perilously near his broad shoulder.

"I had your pardon." Annabelle's face around to deepest rose as the hastle, if drew from him, but her half had exight in a button of his can, holding it firmly by one long radion strange.

one like off now." He spoke ther of fact tone as if he was able of ensauring lovely maid cont buttons every day of "I'm affaild you are pretty lien up with your relief." I shaken up with your ride. You a narrow escape." He had alighted lelped Annabelle to the ground. leaned weakly against the sum ther holes. "You must have saved my life. Did you -did you really leap on the step as I passed?" She was he-standing to recitive what had happened. He nodded carelessly. "It was easy enough. You see, one gets practice in that sort of thing chasing the street cars." Then, observing her with concern in his gray eyes, he went ou: "Come and sit down in the summer house; you must be pretty well kinecked under with the strain. After you have had a cordial perhaps you may feel able to tell how it happened that you invaded my flower garden."

He smiled pleasantly down on her as "You must have saved in

He smiled pleasantly down on her as he led the way into the rose covered arbor and drew forward a deep wicker chair for this unexpected guest, who

(To be Continued.)

We have plenty of old newspapers for sale cheap. THE DAILY NEWS.

Fools, as a rule, attract more had done a great deal for her sines she waited on the railroad men her mother fod in their days of poverty. Nothing that money could buy was now denied her. But she knew Bart Keith well. He had loved her in culteo, and to love her in costly fabrics must erelfe an entirely new sensation. Besides, he was in the swim at Newport, where he would meet the finest costumes in America, to say nothing of the women they incased. To make matters worse she had cut him.

"Mother," she said, "I believe Th write him a line saying I've heard of his being in Newport and telling him we're bere. That'il look as if we hadn't seen him on the avenue."

"Do you think he'd tumble to it?"

The girl pondered awhile, then admitted that she knew very well he would; their eyes had met and there had been a mutual recognition. She dare not write the note.

But one morning she received a note from Keith. He told her that having from Keith. He told her that having dare not write the note.

But one morning she received a note from Keith. He told her that, having heard she was at Newport, he had come on from the west to find hen. But times had made great changes for both of them and he did not doubt she was following a course which seemed hotling to her in her new sphere. He shrank from parting with her without letting her know that he had kept the boy'sh promises made years ago. He ietting her know that he had kept the boylsh promises made years ago. He refrained from mentioning the cut she had given him, but it was evident it was this that had turned him from her. He closed his epistle with the word "farewell," and she knew that he had passed beyond recall.

For a time the Murphys heard that Keith was being introduced under the wing of the Forbes. Then they began to hear his name meutioned among the people and in the society notes independently of his introducers, and it was not long before they learned that which travels on the wings of the wind. Keith was rich. He had become interested in certain western speculations with Mr. Forbes and the two had made money together. Then came a rumor that Keith was to marry Miss Alice Forbes.

Southing could stop her speed unless—the color left her cheeks as she realized the almost certain death that confronted her. Her lips set in a straight line, and her eyes shone stendily. If one had to meet death at the close of a lovely August day when—why, one might as well meet it bravely.

Faster she went, her eyes, dark with dread, fixed on a wide opening on the right. Flanked by stone pillars, it seemed to mark the entrance to some estate. The few pedestrians turned and watched her flight with disapproval; a constable held up a warning hand; a wagon scuttled into the side walk to avoid her coming.

Annabelle turned the steering wheel and a sigh of relief fluttered from her tips as the machine responded, but there was no lessening of the mad speed. Wildly it tore through the open gateway, ground into the hard packed earth of the drive, skidded along a muddy spot under the trees, left the drive and pounded along soft.

slety columns of a New York news-paper a story concerning the contractpaper a story concerning the contract-ing parties that gave them the key to the situation. It told how Mr. and Mrs. Forbes and their daughter were traveling in the Rocky mountains, how a stage driver fell asleep, how a young man who had been formerly a handler of the ribbons saved the passengers from death, how Mr. Forbes had taken him up and enabled him to make a fortune. But the story did not tell the most important feature that had led to most important feature that had led to the union-a young girl seeing an act of cool bravery on the part of a young

The weeding of Barton Keith and Alice Forbes was not celebrated with that spiendor usual to nuptials in the fashionable world. It was saids that this was in deference to the washes of the groom, who bore the reputation of being an extremely modest man. He devoted himself to business, his only recreation being driving four-in hands, and this was supposed to be in memory of experiences of former days. "Mother." said Mary Murphy on day. "I have a plan."
"What is it, Mame?"

"We can't break through the shell of this Newport egg. We must go else where."
"Where shall we go?"

Good gracious, daughter! If w.

"Good gracious, daughter! If we can't succeed here, how can we do so among the British nobility?"
"Others who have falled here have succeeded there. Leave it to me. Money, dear mother, is the power that opens doors wherever money is needful. These British nobles are getting poor. Our people are petting rich. Many here have always been rich, and some care nothing about becoming a some care nothing about becoming richer. In England commoners have been getting rich, while the nobles have been getting poor. Noblemen have would prefer to marry an american to a commoner of their own country, there being no titles here. I shall go to London, marry a ritle and come back here for just long enough to snuh those who have snubbed us."

Two years later Mary Murphy returned to Newport as the countess of Munkennon. Her advent was hefalded, and when she arrived invitations were titled on her table. Before hosts were proper or the same proper to the same pr were piled on her table. Before look ing for those sie intended to accep she picked out those from certain per ple who had snubbed her as Miss Mur phy and sent immediate "regreta with the trust company?" "Fine."

"They accepted your offer, did they? "What kind of a job did they give

"What kind of a job the law you?"
"Didn't give me any."
"Then how did they accept your proposition?"
"I offered them the refusal of my services, and they accepted it—refused em right of the handle."—Herper's Weekly.

The Women's Tonic

Women's pains are relieved or prevented and women's atrength is quickly restored, by Cardui, the woman's fonic. You yourself know best if you need it, or not. If you do need it, do not delay, but commence to use it at once. Every day of delay, only lets you alide further down the hill.

Don't walt, then, but begin to take Cardui today, for its use, no matter how prolonged, cannot harm you and will surely do you good.

FREE TO YOU MY SISTER Free to You and Every Stater Su

WE HAVE

Our First Class Grocery. THE BEST GOODS
THE BEST SERVICE
THE LOWEST PRICES

Let us please you. Send or phone us your orders.

R. H. HUDSON

Cool Kitchen Perfect Cooking

The housewife with years of experience—the woman who knows how to cook—finds after practical test and hard trials, the gas stove is her idea of what a cook stove ought to be.

It requires less aftersion, c osts less to operate, and cooks all food bester than any store s he has tried. ONLY $15.00 WILL INSTALL ONE IN YOUR KITCHEN.

Washington Light & Water Co.

There is Only One

" Brome Culmine"

Laxativa Bromo Quinine USED THE WORLD OVER TO COME A COLD IN OHE DAY.

Always remember the full name. Look or this signature on every box. 25c. 6 Believe

If you have anything to sell try "Well, Bill, how did you come out an ad. in our want column.

There opened up a stall in the city market where you will find western and native meats constantily on hand. Strick attention will be given to sanitary conditions and you can be assured of points and prompt service. I respectfully solicit your patronage. 'Phone your orders to No. 384.

HAIR GOODS The largest assortment ever displayed in the city, the lowest.

Washington's Best Department Store SPENCER BROS..

INCORPORATED Corner Main and Market Streets. BELTS

New line of Patent Leather Belts for Ladies and Children 10, 25 and 50c.