

FREE SCHOLARSHIP OFFERED BY DURHAM BUSINESS COLLEGE

Great Enthusiasm and Interest Aroused in Daily News Offer of Four European Tour Memberships

TO THE PUBLIC: To the person nominating the young woman who secures the greatest number of votes in the competition between young women for the four tours of Europe offered free by THE DAILY NEWS...

The American shorthand and business college has shown substantial appreciation of the enterprise of THE NEWS in making this offer.

An unparalleled offer: An offer unparalleled in magnitude and liberality by anything in the newspaper history of the United States...

The Daily News will send four women on a six weeks' tour of Europe and will pay all expenses for transportation, hotel bills, omnibus hire, transportation of baggage, etc.

The party will sail from Montreal on July 17, 1911, and will be brought back to Boston 36 days later.

The party will sail direct from Montreal to Paris, France, where they will be met by an experienced guide who will conduct them around to the places of interest provided for in the itinerary...

The conductor of the tour has been selected for his knowledge and experience of conditions of travel and for other business and social qualifications.

The Public Will Decide: The question of determining who will go on tour is left up squarely to the people of Washington and vicinity...

The utmost fairness and impartiality will govern the contest from beginning to end, and every assurance of consideration is extended those who participate in the contest.

The tour of Europe contest is public in its spirit. Every one in this vicinity is cordially invited to take part in the balloting...

Who the women are who will go on the personally conducted tour of Europe for almost six weeks will be decided by popular vote by the people of this section.

At the close of the contest, one membership in the tour will be awarded in each district to the woman who has received the highest number of votes in her district...

How to Nominate a Friend for Membership: In order to be a candidate it is necessary that you be a subscriber to the Daily News.

Naval Reserves: An effort is being made to organize a company of naval reserves in Washington. Quite a number of young men are interested in the scheme...

SHOES comprises all the to-date footwear. Suede shoes are strong favorites.

AND COMFORT: Our line of FALL new things in uppers and Gun Metal buttons.

Resolutions

On the evening of September 3, 1910, the tired spirit of Mr. Lewis Elliott left its tenement of clay and went to the God who gave it.

Resolved, that we, the officers and members of Tan Tribe No. 15, I. O. R. M. tender to Bro. Elliott and family our sincere sympathy and point them to Him, who is too good to err and too wise to be mistaken...

Resolved, that these resolutions be placed upon the minutes, a copy sent to Bro. S. F. Allgood and a copy sent to the press with request to publish.

W. J. PIPPIN, K. J. RESSESS, H. G. WINFIELD, Committee.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, The Great Spirit of the Universe has deemed it wise to remove from our midst our chief's brother, Major John Wright...

Resolved, that these resolutions be inscribed on our records to the memory of our chief's brother.

H. G. WINFIELD, W. J. PIPPIN, K. J. RESSESS, Committee.

WHICH TWIN A SUICIDE?

Relatives Unable to Identify Man Whose Counterpart is Missing from the Philadelphia North American

So closely did Frank and George Elliott, twins, resemble each other that the body of one of them, a suicide is lying at the morgue, with relatives unable to say which of the brothers it is.

Elliott killed himself on Wednesday by jumping in front of a train at the Noble street wharf on the Delaware river.

She identified it as that of her brother, but said that she could not say positively whether it was Frank or George.

Other relatives were also unsuccessful in making positive identification.

Last night a message was sent to Mrs. Boyle's father at Atlantic City and he will arrive today to try to determine which of his sons is dead.

The Elliott family drifted apart, and the whereabouts of Frank Elliott is not known to other members of the family.

Remember this in the Blind Boys last week in our city and if you haven't heard them you have missed out a rare treat.

CEM THEATRE

Complete Change of Act Tonight: New Motion Pictures—Burlesque—Magic Act Tonight.

Zarelli and De Aman, grotesque flexible clowns, pleased another large crowd at the Gem last night by their clever acting.

As real genuine fun producers Zarelli and De Aman rank among the top notchers.

Tonight the following pictures will be shown: Our New Minister—Dramatic, United States Life Saving Drill, Educational.

At the Gaiety Theatre Tonight: Blind Boys Orchestra, All New Music and Popular Songs—Good Picture Program.

In addition to the regular program of the Gaiety High Standard the management has secured the services of the popular and well known baritone singer, Mr. Frederic Lacane.

There will also be a change made in the musical program. The Blind Boys playing and singing all new songs will be sure to please.

"The Stars and Stripes"—Here is a picture that will set every nerve tingling.

Other pictures will also be shown that are equally as good.

Tomorrow an unusually strong program will be presented: "How Championships Are Won and Lost" by James J. Corbett (Vivograph).

Remember this in the Blind Boys last week in our city and if you haven't heard them you have missed out a rare treat.

When Mr. E. Hask, proprietor of the Mighty Hask Shows which exhibits at Washington on October 6, decided to inaugurate his 16th season as a successful purveyor of all that is good in circuses to the public...

Home Wedding: Mr. E. H. Ricks and Miss Mamie Hardison were married at the home of Mr. E. B. Ricks, brother of the groom, on Fleming street last night at 8:30 o'clock.

Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of the First Baptist church performed the ceremony.

The bride is an esteemed young lady of this city. The groom has business interests near Fayetteville, N. C.

Have Moved: Rev. M. T. Plyler and family removed from the Methodist parsonage to the residence formerly occupied by Mr. Thomas Howard on East Main street.

This is to be a white glove season. Both long and short white gloves will be very much worn.

Has Returned

Mr. Millard Filmore Wright, Jr., has returned from Plymouth where he went with Mr. Henry Gaylord to take the gas boat "Bettie C."

That they arrived safe and sound at their destination has caused much rejoicing among their friends.

After several days delay they finally reached Plymouth without mishap.

There will be an ice cream party at Pinefield school house Saturday night September 24, for the benefit of the church at that place.

A pleasant evening was spent on the placid Pamlico last night by a rowing party.

Quite ill: Mr. J. B. Jones, the contractor, has been indisposed for the past several days.

Consortial Parlor: First J. J. Brown has opened a first class consortial parlor on Market street near the Frank Gregory Company's store.

Fishing Tournaments: The fishing tournaments are well under way.

Place secured for Holding Agricultural Exhibit in November: The Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of a letter from Hon. J. H. Small which explains itself in this letter Mr. Small states:

This morning I have a communication stating that E. A. LaFarge very courteously consents to give the Chamber of Commerce and the appropriate committee the use of the freight shed and wharf for one day the latter part of November for the purpose of an agricultural exhibit.

This is another step toward our great agricultural exhibit to be held in Washington.

Now let every farmer look over his fields, go through his corn, cotton and select the best and bring to Washington for a prize.

Get a premium list and see how many prizes you can win. You don't know what you can do unless you try.

Long gloves are no longer worn loose and wrinkled, but are pulled up tightly. Twelve-button lengths, therefore are to be preferred to 16 button.

Baste shades will be chiefly worn for evening, but soft mode will be much in favor for street dress wear.

Lamskin is much in favor, also capes, mochas and chamolis, the last in mousetaire. There is always a demand for silk and Hefe for wear with mulls, but not much glace kid will be seen except for evening wear.

The short and three-quarter length sleeves call for long gloves, and since this style prevails in dress gowns most of these long gloves will be of kid and silk.

WHEN O'BRIEN WAS SHOT

From Mobile Register: M. O'Rourke, himself a former soldier in the cause of the South, tells the Register the following story of the late Frank P. O'Brien, mayor of Birmingham, who died last week:

"It was at Washington, N. C., and we were under the fire of the Yankee gunboats, Frank P. O'Brien, who was standing by my side, was struck and fell in a heap. I stopped to see what I could do for him. There was apparently a serious wound directly over his heart, where his coat was cut to pieces. I opened the coat and felt inside, finding first a note book, that was washed into pulp. Underneath, however, there was no break of the skin, the book having taken the force of the piece of shell that had hit him. Frank was clean knocked out. After a little he revived.

"Mike I am dying," he said. "No, Frank," said I, "you are not hurt."

"Yes, I am," replied Frank. "I'm dying. Tell them that I died like a true Irishman."

"But he got up, pretty soon, and lived to fight another day—a good many other days."

Some time later Mr. O'Rourke was struck on the shin by a spent missile and tainted from the pain. Frank O'Brien was inclined to laugh at him, saying that he, too, appeared ready to die like a true Irishman.

any rate, I did not give out anything speech about it," answered Mr. O'Rourke.

The New Farmer Now Buying Bank: According to a special dispatch from Minnesota, the farmers of that state have succeeded still another step in their progress toward substantial prosperity.

It is even rumored that so many farmers bought automobiles that there was organized a society in New York to work against automobile manufacturers, on the ground that they were getting more than their share of the hard money being around.

It is even rumored that so many farmers bought automobiles that there was organized a society in New York to work against automobile manufacturers, on the ground that they were getting more than their share of the hard money being around.

From St. Paul comes an account of how scores of small banks are taking root in the towns which are not much more than centers from which a group of farms radiate and the deposits in these are said to run well up into the hundreds of thousands.

They bring returns on their capital from 6 to 20 per cent, and the story is made further interesting by the statement that 50 per cent of stock in these banks is owned by farmers.

Verily, the ancient story, founded upon bucolic woes and heavy mortgages on the farms has lived its day.

Glove Fashion: Owing to the dark colors of even dress costumes this fall, matched gloves will not be much in demand, but black will be worn instead.

The short and three-quarter length sleeves call for long gloves, and since this style prevails in dress gowns most of these long gloves will be of kid and silk.

Lamskin is much in favor, also capes, mochas and chamolis, the last in mousetaire. There is always a demand for silk and Hefe for wear with mulls, but not much glace kid will be seen except for evening wear.
