THE CHOICE OF MURPHY

IT IS SAID THAT JOHN A. MURPHY WOULD BE FAVORABLE TO THE NOMINATION OF CHARLES F. TAMMAMORE FOR GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 29.—For governor, "John A. Tam." This was the tenor of the "talk" which Chief Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall proposed to have through the convention, it was declared after the final conference of leaders this forenoon.

Thomas M. Osborne, ex-Mayor of Auburn, had been eliminated from the race, it was stated, and his followers had promised Murphy to show their support to him.

It is said that John A. Tam. has been working all night on a list of twelve or fourteen names for the first place on the ticket but have not been able to settle on any one. After a brief rest we will get together again at 11 o'clock and try to reach a decision.

State Chairman John A. Dix made this statement this morning as he came out of an all night conference with Norman E. Mack, Charles F. Murphy, William J. Chivers, John H. Benschmidt, Alton B. Parker, and several other Tammany and up-state leaders.

The democratic chairman had been thrashing out the list of names of eligibles for the gubernatorial nomination since 11 o'clock last night and all throughout consulted Chairman Dix's statement. They were tired but still hopeful that they would get together on the right man before the convention resumed deliberations at 1 o'clock.

The situation was wide open with only one of a half dozen of the names apparently standing first as good chance as any of the rivals and with the rank and file of the delegates predicting that the decisive fight would have to be made in the open on the convention floor.

A report which struck it close to the mark this morning, setting the delegates to wagging and wrinkling with anxiety the brows of the room-stays was to the effect that the Tammany chief had been in communication with Mayor Gaynor over long-distance telephone at frequent intervals through the night and had promised the New York executive to permit the use of his name.

Old Mrs. Corbett. (National Monthly.) A very amusing but funny incident happened in a Southern town a few days ago, which came near severing the friendship of a dozen years.
