To Speak Here.

Honorable Locke Crisp is to speak in Washington October 30th. Mr. Crisp is a prominent candidate for the democratic nomination for governor. No doubt a large number will hear this distinguished son of North Carolina.

One to St. Louis.

Major Wiley C. Rodman has gone to St. Louis as a delegate from the North Carolina State National Guard to the association to be held in that city October 2 to 5. Major Rodman was appointed by Governor Kitchin for this position.

THINK IT BELONGS TO THEM SOLELY.

By their attitude the manufacturers seem to think that the tariff belongs to them solely. As soon as the announcement was made that a tariff board was contemplated to adjust the schedules in order to fool the people into voting the Republican ticket, the manufacturers of the country began to make requests for a hearing, fearing that might be some changes that would injure their business. The requests were so numerous that Ways and Means Committee of the house, who still have the matter in hand, announce that it would take twelve months to hear the complaints, and therefore there would be little time to revise anything.

The truth of the matter is, the Republican managers think the manufacturers should possess sufficient intelligence to understand the dilemma in which the party is placed and allow something to be done to cajole the people into voting for the party the coming Congressional elections.

The especially favored trust magnate, however, is a pig and has about as much compunction of conscience as a big fat hog that has some one to bring him his feed every day. Money is his standard of value and he has been so long corrupted by the knowledge that he is getting something for nothing, that whenever the party managers tell him that it is absolutely necessary to do something to fool the people he remarks in the terms used by old man Vanderbilt, "The people be damned. You can buy all the votes you need. Just assess us for the amount you require, but don't bother the tariff." So the Republican party managers must be content to make some promises, and lie to the people for their masters, the trust magnates, whose slaves they are.—Wilson Times.

Makes Appeal.

To the Citizens of Washington: The gentlemen here representing the Radcliffe Lyceum Bureau trying to help us in getting up our Lyceum course for the coming fall and winter. They have been here a week, and have canvassed the city very thoroughly. We still lack about $200 in subscriptions of having enough to guarantee the course. We are asking that our friends come to the rescue and help to make the course possible. It will be a great disappointment to our people if we should not secure the amount necessary. We are offering a better course even than last year, and we sincerely hope you will help us.

Very sincerely,

N. C. NEWBOLD,

Superintendent.

Unless the full amount is guaranteed by subscriptions in advance, we cannot get the attractions at all.

BIG PROGRAM TONIGHT.

Four Acts, Four Thousand Feet of Film of the Gen.

The Gen had another fine show last night and was greatly enjoyed by the patrons.

"Fate Won and Lost" was the feature reel of the evening and made a tremendous hit.

Tonight a big feature show is scheduled and it's going to be a fine one too.

Feature Vacation is a screen throughout its 1,000 feet length.

Perdie was tired of working in a hot office and he planned to work the sick sister excuse. It worked all right, but a sympathetic stepped in to see the sick sister and there was not any. That's what starts the laughs.

The Wanderers—Kalem's big melodramatic picture, full of pathos which brings tears to the eyes, even though one realizes full well that it is only a story. The acting is excellent and quite in keeping with the story.

St. Paul and the Centurion—A heavy dramatic picture by Urban Milpase Company. Many different characters are required to complete the cast, which is an unusually large one. The performers handle their part well.

The Nature Faker Comes to Grief. This is a screen from beginning to end.

Dear Old Grandmother—a pretty, but pathetic picture. One that will dig deep down into the recesses of one's heart.

GAINES

Great War Drama—Three Full Reels Three Thousand Feet of Feature Film.

They all said the pictures were good last night at the Gaiety, and "The Death of Michael Grady" kept them in a constant roar of laughter. But when you see the program offered for tonight you will pronounce it, without question, better. It is not "the best" seen here in some time.

"A Colonial Belle"—An episode of the Revolutionary war. An incident of the stirring days of '76. A revolutionary war picture that will attract and entertain the best class of patrons of the motion picture theatre.

The action, beautiful photography and accurate scenic surroundings, will commend themselves to any audience.

"John Graham's Gold"—A story of a miser that is different. A love story and a woman who lost heavily on margins and borrowed of the miser to speculate are intertwined, while the sacrifice of a daughter to cover the mother's mistakes is an additional dramatic situation.

"The Perversity of Fate"—A powerful dramatic subject. A story with a high moral and a sympathetic appeal.

Don't fail to see this treat in store for you tonight.

Poultry Pointers.

Send the young cockerels that are not needed for breeding stock and save the food that they will consume.

Do not expect the hens that have been faithful layers during the summer to keep this up all winter. You may be disappointed if you do.

Fresh pure drinking water frequently changed is indispensable to poultry health and comfort. The fowls do not prefer stale drinking water any better than humans do.

Clover makes a splendid winter pasture for all kinds of fowls. Plant crimson clover in the orchard and let the fowls have access to it. It will build up the orchard soil and furnish nutritious food for the fowls.

For an autumn and winter feed for poultry cabbage is well liked. This is true up to the fowls to eat but reach it. Large sugar beets are also good. These are chopped up and cut open, or sometimes crushed. Common beet turnips are also good.

If it is desired to fatten farkers for market begin to increase the rations gradually. Never attempt to fatten birds which in successive weighings show a loss of weight. Overfeeding does not cause blackhead, but it does frequently cause the sudden death of birds in which blackhead is present.

A Fair Proposition. A popular comedienne and playwright was praising the business value of suggestions. "It is funnier to suggest a thing," he said, "than to say it out. Playwrights should remember this suggestion—pregnant suggestion—is what makes really funny the little boy's remark to his father, 'Pa, if you help me with my arithmetic lesson tonight I'll tell you where our old year teacher'."

Any man or woman who is thin can recover normal weight by this remarkable new treatment Bloodline. "I have been thin for years and began to think it was natural for me to be that way. Finally I read about the remarkable processes brought about by the use of Bloodline, so I decided to try it myself. Well, when I look at myself in the mirror now, I think it is somebody else.
